

The Thorsby TARGET

Thorsby Senior Citizen's Centre Sneak Peek

As you can see, the Seniors of Thorsby have come a long way. All their hard work and dedication have finally paid off. It didn't take them long to get organized in their new surroundings and are ready for "business as usual". The building is clean and bright, and has wonderful easy access for everyone, mostly due to it's amazing one floor layout. The new Senior's Thrift Store is beautifully laid out, well organized and ready for shoppers! Programs and events have begun in the building and the Thrift Store is just waiting for one more thing...volunteers! If you can help out once in a while, why not give them a call? Volunteer for an amazing group of people, serving an amazing community, in an amazing new building.

It's all about repurposing!

MP REPORT

from The Office of MP Jim Eglinski,
Member of Parliament for Yellowhead

MP Jim Eglinski Announces He Will Not Run in 2019

After many hours of consultation with my wife Nancy, family, and close friends, I have decided not to run in the next election. I will continue to serve as your Member of Parliament until the end of my term and/or until the next election is called.

Nancy has always been at my side while in politics, supporting, helping and encouraging me, and she now wants some time for us and our family. I hate to say this but we are getting older every year and with each year that you don't spend with family is one you tend to look back on with a bit of regret. After 52 years of public service it's time to retire.

I have spoken to our Leader, Andrew Scheer, who fully understands my reasoning; as a father of 5 he knows how much time this job takes away from those closest to you. My decision was not an easy one to make; my years as your Member of Parliament have been some of the best of my life. I will miss this job and the wonderful colleagues I have had the pleasure of working with. I cannot thank YOU, the constituents and supporters of the riding of Yellowhead, enough and appreciate your understanding of this very difficult decision.

The recent announced nomination process will now stop. The local Yellowhead Electoral District Association (EDA) and the Conservative Party of Canada will reactivate a nomination process at a later date to look for interested and qualified applicants to put their names forward to serve as the next Conservative candidate for the Yellowhead Riding.

SIMPLE SLOW-COOKED LASAGNA

Let your slow cooker do the work and come home to this easy, heartwarming meal. Swap in other greens or cooked vegetables to change things up.

Prep Time 20 min | Cook Time 6 to 8 hours on Low, 3 to 4 hours on High | Makes 8 Servings

- 1 onion, finely chopped
- 3 cloves garlic, minced

- 250 mL (1 cup) water
- 10 whole wheat lasagna noodles
- 1 tub (475 g) light ricotta cheese
- 1 container (142 g/5 oz) baby spinach, washed, chopped
- 60 mL (1/4 cup) chopped fresh basil or parsley
- 30 mL (2 tbsp) grated Parmesan cheese
- 125 mL (1/2 cup) shredded part skim mozzarella

1. Lightly spray inside of slow cooker with cooking spray.
2. In a large nonstick skillet, brown beef breaking up with spoon. Scrape out beef into a colander and let drain. Wipe out skillet and return to medium heat; cook beef, onion, garlic, oregano and hot pepper flakes for 5 minutes or until softened. Add passata and water and remove from heat.
3. In a bowl, stir together ricotta cheese, spinach, basil and Parmesan cheese.
4. Spread some of the meat sauce over bottom of slow cooker. Lay lasagna noodles in a single layer, breaking as necessary to fit. Top with one quarter of the sauce and one third of the cheese mixture. Repeat layers twice ending with meat sauce on top. Cover and cook on Low for 6 to 8 hours or on High for 3 to 4 hours. Carbon levy rebates

Single Albertans who earn less than $47,500/year and families who earn less than $95,000/year will receive a full rebate to offset costs associated with the carbon levy.

Carbon levy rebates protect low- and middle-income Albertans who spend a higher percentage of their income on energy costs and have fewer financial resources to invest in energy efficiency products. An estimated 60% of households will get a full or partial rebate.

Eligibility

Rebates are based on your family net income and the number of people in your household. It's not tied to energy use, so there's still an incentive to reduce household emissions.

To automatically receive a rebate you must:

- be an Alberta resident
- file a tax return
- meet the income criteria

Table 3. Rebate income criteria

		2018
Rebate amounts	First adult	$300
	Spouse/Equivalent to spouse	$150
	Each child (maximum 4)	$45
Maximum family net income to receive full rebate	Single	$47,500
	Couple/Single parent	$95,000
	Families	$95,000
Phase-out rates	Single	2.67%
	Couple/Single parent	4.00%
	Families	4.00%

Payments

Rebates will be mailed or deposited directly by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) in 4 quarterly payments: January, April, July and October.

If you have a spouse or common-law partner, the rebate will be paid to the person whose tax return is assessed first.

The CRA is administering the carbon levy rebate program on our behalf. For more information about receiving the rebate, visit the CRA website or call 1-800-959-2809.

Table 4. Maximum quarterly payment amounts

	Current benefit year		2018-19 benefit year
	Jan 2018	Apr 2018	Jul 2018	Oct 2018	Jan 2019	Apr 2019
First adult	$75	$75	$75	$75	$75	$75
Spouse/equivalent to spouse	$37.50	$37.50	$37.50	$37.50	$37.50	$37.50
Each child (max 4)	$11.25	$11.25	$11.25	$11.25	$11.25	$11.25

CRA will use your 2017 tax return to calculate rebates for the 2018-19 benefit year. Payment information will be sent to you in July 2018. If the quarterly rebate for your household is less than $25, you will not get a payment.

Government of Canada

improving service delivery for low-income seniors by expanding the scope of automatic enrolment for the Guaranteed Income Supplement

In keeping with his commitment to improve delivery of programs and services for all Canadians, the Honourable Jean-Yves Duclos, Minister of Families, Children and Social Development, announced the launch of automatic enrolment for the Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) benefit.

Implementing GIS automatic enrolment means that each month, up to 17,000 seniors who turn 64 years old on or after December 1, 2017, will be selected to be automatically enrolled for the GIS benefit without ever having to complete an application. Beginning in January 2018, these seniors will receive a letter notifying them that they will be enrolled for both Old Age Security (OAS) and GIS without needing to apply and will begin receiving their benefits automatically, if eligible, when they turn 65. The first payment will be made one month after the client turns 65.

Once automatically enrolled for OAS benefits, recipients will be automatically considered for the GIS each year based on their household income information included in their tax filing. It is important that tax returns are filed on time each year in order to receive or maintain these benefits.

GIS automatic enrolment is a key component of Employment and Social Development Canada's Service Strategy, which aims to transform services in a way that responds to clients' current and emerging needs and expectations.

As part of a wider effort to increase awareness of the GIS, Minister Duclos had committed to introduce automatic enrolment for GIS by January 2018. Building on previous phases of automatic enrolment for OAS, GIS automatic enrolment will not only contribute to ensuring Canadian seniors receive services and benefits that are easy to access, convenient and timely, it will also play an important role in helping reduce the incidence of low income among seniors.

Quote

"Automatic enrolment reduces the burden on many seniors by enabling them to receive their Old Age Security pension and Guaranteed Income Supplement at age 65 without ever having to apply for it. We continue our efforts to modernize the Old Age Security and Guaranteed Income Supplement services to meet the needs of Canadians."

– The Honourable Jean-Yves Duclos, Minister of Families, Children and Social Development

Quick Facts

The objective of the OAS program is to ensure a minimum income for seniors and help reduce the incidence of low income among Canada's seniors. OAS benefits include the basic pension, which is paid to all individuals aged 65 and older who meet the residence requirements, and the GIS for low-income seniors.

Seniors who receive the Canada Pension Plan benefits by direct deposit will receive their combined OAS and GIS payments into the same account. Clients who receive the Quebec Pension Plan (QPP) or who do not have direct deposit will receive their payments via paper cheque.

GIS automatic enrolment is the latest service improvement for the OAS program, building on previous phases of automatic enrolment which focused on the OAS pension in March 2013 and November 2016.

Service Canada also recently released an OAS Program Toolkit, making it easier for advocates and support groups to help seniors become aware of and obtain their OAS pension and other related benefits.
