

TH^{RSBY} TARGET

Happy Birthday ATB!

ATB is proud to celebrate 80 years in the province serving the needs of Albertans. The team in Thorsby recently celebrated with a pulled pork lunch for customers and the community. There were approx 70-80 customers who enjoyed the day visiting with the team and neighbours. The lunch was by donation and over $230 was raised for the Stollery.

Community Soul

From Kieran Quirke

#CommunitySoul is so strong in Thorsby! Every fundraiser and community event is packed with people from the community! It's inspiring!

"Had a great time in Thorsby at the sold out Dueling Pianos event by the talented Jenesse Graling and Shane Young! Proceeds go to the Thorsby Community Centre renovation, and it looks like it's going to be a great success! Way to go Thorsby!"

And thanks goes to Sam & Marlene Kobeluck and the Thorsby Historical Society for organizing such a great event!"

TIPS From TOPS! From P. Elson

Our meetings are designed to encourage weight loss, maintenance, to educate and to provide support. New members are welcome to attend a meeting with no obligation. T.O.P.S. De-Stressing Tips

- Taking care of yourself should be one of your priorities. Have you built self-care time into today's routine?
- Don't let bad situations get out of hand. If you don't like the way things are going, speak up. The sooner you do, the easier it is to change things - and the less tension you'll have to live with.
- A stress-reduced break can be simple as sitting with eyes closed for five minutes, uninterrupted. Relax your muscles, concentrate on breathing in and out slowly.
- If you are an empathetic, caring person, beware of letting other's stress become your stress. Just because someone near and dear to you is angry or tense does not mean you have to be too. In fact, you'll support them better if you keep your perspective.

Ask for help. Spouses, children, friends and co-workers won't know you're overwhelmed unless you tell them. Specific requests, conveyed in a positive manner work best.

Meet Kieran - Advocate for Rural Albertans

Kieran Quirke was elected to the Alberta NDP Rural Caucus Co-Chair role April 28, where he advocates on behalf of rural Albertans, communities, and businesses to the Alberta NDP. June 23, he was nominated the Alberta NDP Candidate for Drayton Valley-Devon. "I believe that Rachel Notley and the NDP are working hard for an economy that works for everyone. She's fighting for Albertans and she has a hopeful and inclusive vision for Alberta's future. I want to be a part of that. Alberta cannot stay stuck on the boom-bust roller coaster, and Albertans were clear about that in 2015."

Born in Cold Lake and raised in Edmonton, Kieran is the oldest child of Moira and Michael Quirke, both from farm families in Ontario and Ireland, who then became entrepreneurs in Alberta's oil and gas sector. Kieran believes growing up in a household of farmers and businesspeople taught him the importance of hard work, community strength, personal integrity, and relationships – all traits he brings with his efforts to help the communities in Drayton Valley-Devon today.

Kieran holds a Bachelor of Management in Marketing from the University of Lethbridge, with two Management diplomas from Grant MacEwan University: International Business with a focus on Asia, and Small Business Management.

Before entering politics, he was an Oil and Gas Fabrication CEO, an Industrial Construction General Manager, and a Pulse Crop Grader. He currently sits as Chair of the Leduc-Nisku Economic Development Association Board, and Board Member of the Leduc #1 Energy Discovery Centre. "When oil collapsed in 2015, there were no real supports for affected businesses or families. After decades of PC government and still not having a good plan in place for the cyclical nature of Alberta's oil and gas sector, this was unacceptable and it was clear something had to change. I understand what an economy that works for everyone looks like, and I've seen the work that Rachel Notley and this government have done to accomplish this. When I read about the plans to diversify the economy and build a recovery that lasts for the people of Alberta, while also improving Health, Education, and Environment, I came to believe this was what we needed in Alberta so we can get out of the boom-bust cycle and grow strong for our future. That's why I chose to run on Rachel's team in Drayton Valley-Devon."

Since 2005, Kieran has served communities in various leadership roles including Vice-Chair of the Edmonton City Council appointed Community Services Advisory Board, Chair of the Family & Community Support Services and Community Investment Operating Grants committees, and as a member of the Diversity & Inclusion and Urban Parks advisory committees. "Like many other Albertans, I just don't trust Jason Kenney and the UCP. He is out of touch with today's Alberta. Mr. Kenney has proposed a $700 million tax cut for the wealthiest 1% and openly advocated for introducing two-tier American-style health care where only the rich get the care they need. And he would undo the positive work our communities are benefiting from, firing teachers and nurses, hurting our recovery and harming our economy."

Kieran has earned a reputation for showing up in the community to listen to people's concerns and work with the community on projects and solutions – from the Warburg Pembina Surface Rights group, the Calmar Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation group, and crop and watershed concerns of farmers, to economic development and innovation in all the municipalities of Drayton Valley-Devon, to tourism development in Drayton Valley, or helping to build a new playground in Thorsby and teaching community gardening in Devon, this Alberta-born and raised community advocate brings a breadth of experience and skills to the table to help serve Drayton Valley-Devon better. "Albertans have a choice to make in 2019. They could choose Kenney who would make deep cuts regardless of who it hurts, or they can choose Rachel, who will protect the things families depend on and keep this recovery going for all of us. To me the choice is clear, and that's why I'm proud to be running to bring our community voices to the Legislature in 2019."

Kieran currently lives in Devon and is out-and-about in all of the Drayton Valley-Devon communities on a regular basis.
