

THE WARBURG BUGLE

Warburg scholarship recipients meet generous donor

From Black Gold Regional Division No. 18

"It's a feeling of pride. It just makes you feel good." Terry Proskurniak beams as he talks about his annual namesake scholarship for Warburg students. On a snowy November day, Proskurniak is on his way from his home in Edmonton to Warburg School to complete his latest donation.

Proskurniak has a deep connection to Warburg - he grew up in the community. After moving away and building a successful business, he returned many times over the years for celebrations and visits. And in 2015, he decided he wanted to give back to the school in which he spent his formative years. "I always wanted to do something," he said, "I was at the school for the student awards ceremony and I got the idea of creating this scholarship fund."

The Terry Proskurniak Scholarship is an annual $5,000 donation to help Warburg School graduates fund their post-secondary education. The first students to receive the scholarships graduated in 2016. Now, for the first time, Proskurniak is meeting some of the recipients. Nathan Drysdale and Larissa Kuzio - first-year students at the University of Alberta - returned to Warburg School during their fall reading week to receive their scholarships and shake the hand of the man behind the donations. "I can actually say 'thank you' for giving to the school every year," said Kuzio, "That's huge."

After posing for the requisite cheque presentation photos, the trio sat down for coffee, joined by the school's principal, Wendy Maltais; BGRD's Associate Superintendent of Learning Services, Bill Romanchuk; and trustee for the area (County West), Shawna Ofstie. Conversation shifted from the realities of university life to the paths of previous scholarship recipients and Proskurniak's memories of Warburg School.

During the discussion, Kuzio and Drysdale credited the scholarship with motivating them to push themselves, academically and personally, in their final year of high school. One of the criterion is a commitment to community citizenship or volunteerism. Drysdale, who was active in the local hockey community, reflected on the valuable experience. "It's taught me a lot of life skills like leadership and respect and fairness," he said.

Proskurniak acknowledges he has been fortunate to be in a position in which he can contribute in this way, and he is encouraging others who are able to consider a similar gesture. "It's helping your fellow person out," he said.

On behalf of Warburg School and Black Gold Regional Division No. 18, thank you to Terry Proskurniak and all of our scholarship donors for their generosity and support. The scholarships BGRD is able to distribute support the next generation and invest in tomorrow's legacy.

Warburg School News

Submitted by Janet Sarvas

Welcome to the month of December at Warburg School. This month finds our school to be a hive of activity with concert practice, random acts of kindness, Christmas Angel Tree, door decorating contest, basketball games, and so much more!

In the last week of November, we learned that a local resident had bequeathed a total amount of $50,000 toward a Warburg School graduate scholarship ($1500.00/year) Thank you to Mr. Michael Gidosh for his posthumous generosity toward our students.

Our school alumni have been fantastic in “paying it forward” toward our current students. We have several scholarship opportunities from our former community members: Terry Proskurniak, Albert & Maria Reimer, George L. Saubak. Former students also came forward in our last Indigo Adopta-School’s “Love of Reading Foundation” to donate several hundred dollars in total toward new library books. THANK YOU. We are so happy that our school has cultivated fond thoughts for our former students that they choose to support our current students. This is a great legacy that does not go unnoticed -our staff and students are thankful.

Y.I.E.L.D. (Youth Initiatives & Education in Lifestyles & Driving) program visited our Grades 9-12 students on November 27th. The students found the virtual car to be a quite a scary experience as they were asked to try texting and driving in this virtual environment. Using goggles, the YIELD team were able to show the kids how different their motor skill reactions are while under the influence of drugs or alcohol. The goal is to show the students the tragic results of speed, not using seatbelts and, impaired or distracted driving, while giving students the opportunity to become part of the solution.

Basketball season has started. Watch our website ws.blackgold.ca Events and Activities calendar for game schedules.

Christmas Angel Tree gifts have started to come in.

Thank you to all who have donated gifts to families in our community. Last day to donate is December 11th. Thank you to Mr. Gene Begg for stopping by with a large donation toward the Angel Tree.

Our Kindergarten to Grade 6 classes are busy preparing to entertain their audience at our Christmas Concert on December 20th at 7:00 p.m. This annual Christmas season tradition is sure to be a crowd pleaser!

Christmas Potluck Dinner is Friday, December 21st at 11:00 a.m. Please watch for information from your student regarding food items needed for a delicious meal or contact Mrs. Forster in our office. We are happy to share the blessings of the season with our community.

Our School is actively seeking donations toward a new events sign. Our current sign, which is on the East side of our building (along hwy 770 through town), is falling apart. As we have SO much great news and events happening at W.S. we want to share with the community using a bright new sign! Thank you to those who are selling & buying chocolate covered almonds for $3.00/box toward the new sign purchase.

Pictured Above: Grade 7 students Mya Macpherson, Hannah Lange and Hayley Johnson are taking their class project to whole other level of “homework”. The girls have been baking at home with the plan to sell their goodies at the Warburg Christmas Bazaar with the sales going toward lung cancer research. To date these young philanthropists have raised $550.00!

This initiative is completely of their own merit and we salute their leadership and generosity! Yes, Warburg Bugle readers, these three girls are excellent examples of the children we are raising in our community!

Pictured Above: Mrs. Mosicki's Baking Options class has enjoyed learning new skills in the kitchen. The class even put together a cookbook which they sold on the evening of Parent Teacher Conference. The cookbook was given a 5 star review from Krista Heisler, as her son Sawyer tried out a cookie recipe and shared the cookies with his family. Great stuff!

Pictured Above: Mrs. Babcook had a classroom full of mysterious moustached students on November 30th. The students were participating in Movember with a $2.00 purchase of a fun moustache to wear for the day. The male teachers on staff had been growing moustaches for our annual Movember campaign to raise awareness and research for men's health. The students who raised the most had the chance to shave one of our teachers month long moustache growth. Thanks to Mr. Hodges, Mr. Skinner, Mr. Arnold, Mr. Head and a few grade 12 boys for participating in the Movember Shave!

Chris Koch visited Warburg School, and Warburg Colony School, on November 27th with his presentation of "If I Can" to share with our Kindergarten to Grade 12 students. Chris was born with no arms and no legs. His message of "If I Can" intends to change the mindset of people who may see challenges in life as insurmountable. What is his job? He is a farmer, who drives a tractor, rides a quad, and gives a good honest attempt at any type of work. He travels using his skateboard (which now proudly displays a Warburg School sticker!), and he smiles, a lot! The older students found that his question of, "If I am not sad and depressed because being born with no arms and legs-why would you be sad and depressed with all that you have?" gave them a lot to think about as they move about their day.

Elementary classes had Chris sitting right in the crowd with them as they asked how he gets up and down the stairs, so he showed them how he CAN. When students asked if everyone stares at him, Mr. Koch said yes, and it's okay for people to ask why I look like this, but to remember to ask politely and respectfully.

If Chris can thrive with positivity and love for life-you can, too! This inspiring Lethbridge-born man has an incredible attitude and we are so thankful that our students had the chance to meet him.

Visit his website If I can and watch his interviews. You will be inspired, too!

Bighorn Country Proposal and the Need for Your Input

In speaking with many people in Drayton Valley, Lodgepole, and Cynthia this week, it's clear there is a lot of concern about the Bighorn Country proposal and its impact on our local industries and families. I want to clarify what this announcement means at this point.

Bighorn Country is a proposal for a mix of parks and public lands that aims to conserve important and unique natural landscapes as well as encourage economic, recreational, and tourism opportunities.

Population growth, economic growth, and increased recreational use have created a need to revisit how all of the activities in this area are managed. But it cannot become a reality without supporting our local communities, compatible wilderness recreation economies, and careful planning, management, and enforcement.

The proposed West Country Public Land Use Zone that covers most of Brazeau County follows policies and plans that have been in place for over 40 years, and supported by responsible recreational use and management by stewardship groups, for similar Zones in western Alberta. These Public Land Use Zones are designed to accommodate and manage outdoor recreation & tourism while also supporting long-term environmental protection, and to enable & assist sustainable resource development and the management of industrial and commercial uses.

Specifically, if the Bighorn Country proposal is passed as is:

- industrial uses, including forestry, energy, mining, gravel, grazing and existing public land recreation areas would all remain permitted, and

- existing trails and camping areas would remain open, and future recreation management planning would be done to manage impacts of recreation activities on other land uses and the environment. This may include new trails, staging areas and other infrastructure, including support for commercial recreation and tourism development.

It's important to remember that this is a proposal and that the Government of Alberta is currently surveying Albertans for our input on Bighorn Country, including the West Country Public Land Use Zone, until January 31, 2019. If this proceeds, the next step is further consultations with stakeholders, municipalities, Indigenous Peoples, and the public would be held to inform recreation and management planning.

For more details about how this affects our communities in Brazeau County, see the Site Profile for the West Country Public Land Use Zone, and have your say in the survey at: tal-kaep.alberta.ca/bighorn-country

As your Alberta NDP Candidate for Drayton Valley-Devon, I'm always happy to speak with my neighbours about the issues that matter in rural Alberta and in our communities. I want to hear your thoughts on issues and plans that will affect our province, our community, and your family.

If you have any questions or concerns, or you would like to get involved, please write to me at DraytonValleyDevon@albertaNDP.ca I look forward to hearing from you!
