

THE WARBURG BUGLE

Great things to know about your home town...

Whether you are new to a community or have been here a long time, or grew up here, even in a small village there is something always going on...

The Senior's Centre –

Here is a quiet little building in the centre of town that holds a heap of good times, memories, and a lot of fun over the years. This active bunch would like you to know, this place is not just for the senior's, it's for people of all ages who want to do something in the village.

Let me explain -

When we first moved to the area, we were introduced to a few people and invited to a pot luck luncheon that went on monthly. Well when you get to know these cooks, you will want to come, visit, have a good meal and dessert all the time!

There is quilting classes on Tuesdays. If you're really interested, you may find a personal instructor amongst this talent who will work with you. These quilters have won awards for their work, and yes, you will see them in the many raffles throughout the year raising funds to help others.

There is Floor Curling on Thursdays at the local community centre. You don't have to have grey hair to partake in this activity. It's great exercise, come meet some new people and have some fun. Who knows, you get good at this and you can move next door and curl on the ice with our local curling club!

Games, games, and more games plus a potluck dinner each Wednesday afternoon - Card games of all sorts, dominos, play pool, shuffleboard, board games or visit. This is an exercise for your hands, brain and good humour.

Monthly luncheons - If the people will come, we will feed them great dishes from their farms and gardens, and the desserts.....

Catering for any type of function – There is a group of people here who can help and take care of any function for you, from birthday parties to funeral service luncheons, to a good old pancake breakfast. They are there for you to work with your budget, understanding your needs and making it an enjoyable function.

Rental Unit – Since this facility hosts a variety of things to do, they rent it out to families at Christmas for their Christmas dinners, hockey teams who need a break and change of scene at a tournament, special birthdays, anniversaries, the list goes on. It all starts here..... Just call Nancy at 780.848.7756 or if you see May O'Neill around town, stop and chat. Some of the fun stops for summer, but what's to say you can always rent for a great price and bring in family and friends.

The Warburg Museum-

Here is a little gem that you do need to know about. Have you been to the museum for a visit? This is something that one of any age should do when they visit any town. Find history, fun facts, meet the locals. However, this facility features something special - Homemade Pie and coffee or tea etc. Some very talented pie folk make pies weekly and take them down there for you to come and visit with them and enjoy some homemade dessert! Yup, and a good visit too! Hint: I did this at one function. When you wait till the end, there is always left-over pies, so you get one of these, then you get slices of all the other pies to make a whole pie. Sounds yummy when you can have Lemon Meringue, chocolate, apple, rhubarb and strawberry, how about pecan?

This happens every weekend during the year except for holiday weekends. Enjoy your time here!

Alberta RCMP shares tips for motorcycle safety month

As motorists welcome warm weather across the province, the Alberta RCMP reminds motorcyclists to adopt safe driving behaviours that reduce the risk of collisions.

Alberta RCMP encourages you to practice the following motorcycle safety tips:

- Gear up! Along with a helmet, riders should wear shatter-proof eye protection and durable weather-proof clothes to keep you comfortable while riding.
- Stay bright and in sight! Staying out of blind spots on roadways and in parking lots will help keep other vehicles aware of your presence.

- Showing off does not pay off – but driving defensively does. Remember, motorcycles are smaller than most vehicles. Be aware of your surroundings, share the road and change lanes with extreme caution.

- Practice makes perfect. Riders should practice on safe roads away from high traffic areas and highways to make sure they are comfortable and confident in their skills on the road.

“With season change and warming weather, motorcycles are prevalent on our roadways. In 2018, there were 12 people killed and 232 motorcycles involved in injury collisions in Alberta RCMP jurisdictions,” said Supt. Gary Graham, Alberta RCMP Traffic Services. “These numbers are a good reason to raise awareness about safe motorcycling so that we all get to our destinations safely.”

The Alberta RCMP will continue to work with Alberta Sheriffs and other law enforcement and safety partners to ensure Albertans make the right driving and riding decisions. Follow our traffic safety tips on Facebook @RCMPinAlberta and Twitter @RCMPAlberta.

Leduc County Hawkweed Program

Orange, Meadow and Mouse-Ear hawkweeds are classified as prohibited noxious weeds under the Alberta Weed Control Act. These weeds have the ability to spread rapidly and completely overtake established ecosystems. Once established, these weeds are extremely hard to control and remove from properties.

What Leduc County is doing:

Leduc County is taking a proactive approach by strategically targeting infestations of hawkweed less than five acres. Leduc County has a Hawkweed Spraying Program to give landowners an additional option in stopping the spread of these highly invasive weeds. The program covers all invasive species of hawkweed, including:

What you need to know about hawkweed:

- It's a perennial weed that has very high seed production and the ability to reproduce through lateral stolons or rhizomes.
- Most species of hawkweed are characterized by low rosette basal leaves with a single stem growing up to 70cm and produces orange or yellow flowers that will bloom several times a year.
- Control options are limited. It's recommended you use herbicides registered for use on Hieracium spp./hawkweeds or hand digging where all stolons and roots can be removed.
- If you are grazing livestock, hawkweed will decrease the amount and quality of grass available and will thrive in over-grazed areas.

For more information about the Hawkweed Program, please visit www.leduc-county.com/services/weed-control or contact Leduc County Agricultural Services at 780-955-4593.

The above-listed information was sourced from Alberta Invasive Species.

The Breakfast Program at Warburg School

Hope everyone is keeping a positive outlook from all this spring weather.....The moisture is great for the farmers and our gardens.

This has been a busy year for the Program with some changes, additions, and is still successful each day thanks to our dedicated volunteers.

Volunteers have been working with us for a long time now and some are taking on new challenges and retiring from the program next year. The program is based off volunteer participation in supplying breakfast to the students. We are always looking for new volunteers and get a lot of questions about what they do.

Well, we arrive on our scheduled day by 7:30am at the school, where we prepare toast, waffles, bagels, pancakes with various toppings. We try to work in pairs as we have two toasters going at the same time. We then put fruit out, water, any contributed baking, with napkins and then take the trays out to serve the students at 8:15 am on. We serve between 90 to 135 students until the bell rings at 8:30 am, and then some after if they arrive late or a bus is late. The students are allowed into the school after 8:15 am.

While one volunteer is serving, the other volunteer restocks for the next day's breakfast, cleans up the toasters, washes a few dishes. The leftovers are packed up with the fruit bowl restocked and then taken down to the office for the students to access throughout the day. We leave to go home by 8:50 am to 9:00 am. Their smiles at breakfast is your reward to start your day off in a great way!

If you have an hour in the morning and would like to help, please call Deb at 780.848.2923 or leave your name at the office.

In the month of May, some of our volunteers have been called away to assist with family commitments. This leaves some of the existing volunteers contributing extra days and other we unfortunately have to cancel breakfast.

We will be finished the Breakfast Program Friday, June 14, 2019 so our volunteers can take the summer off and enjoy it. I would like to sincerely thank all the volunteers who will be leaving our program for their dedication and service. You are all special people with big hearts! Thank you to all who have contributed food, baking and goodies for the students, they were greatly appreciated. Thank you to all those who have supported us in so many ways, whether it was unloading groceries, giving financially or helping in other ways. This includes staff at the school, students, community members and private citizens.

Till next fall, have a great summer everyone!

No More RRSP Room? No Problem

BY TAMAR SATOV / JANUARY 2019

Nicholas Cheung was a teenager in the 1980s when he opened his first registered retirement savings plan (RRSP). Most people his age were blowing their money on junk food and going out. "I had a job working at my father's drugstore every Saturday, and decided to invest," says the now 46-year-old chartered professional accountant from Toronto. "I had learned about the rule of 72 – divide 72 by the annual rate of return to see how many years it will take to double your investment – so I knew the significance of starting young."

If you've maxed out your RRSPs and your TFSA and still have money to invest, then consider opening a non-registered account. However, investments in these accounts get taxed, so it's important to know which securities to keep inside them.

Since his part-time income at the time was low, he had limited allowable RRSP contribution room, though he always saved to his max. He bought guaranteed investment certificates (GICs) and Canada Savings Bonds, which offered attractive double-digit returns in the late 1980s. Impressively, Cheung has continued maxing out his RRSP, even as his annual contribution room has grown. With more money to save, he's now using a variety of accounts, such as a TFSA and non-registered options. "I look for other opportunities to invest in a more tax efficient manner," he says.

While few Canadians start as young as Cheung, many people with high incomes do invest to the RRSP limit, which is $26,230 for 2018, often year after year. Yet, a number of them still have more money to save. Where should you put your money when your RRSP is at capacity? Here are some ideas.

Max out your TFSA

Tax-free savings accounts (TFSAs) should be most Canadians' Plan B, says Todd Sigurdson, Director, Tax and Estate Planning at IG Wealth Management. Investment earnings and growth inside a TFSA is completely tax free. And, the contribution room is now fairly significant, he adds. Anyone who was 18 or older in 2009, has lived in Canada since that time and has never contributed to a TFSA has a total of $63,500 of TFSA contribution room. As of January 1, Canadians can contribute $6,000 per year, up from $5,500.

Invest in other registered accounts

The RRSP isn't the only registered account where money can grow tax free. Parents or grandparents can invest extra funds in a registered education savings plan (RESP) to save for a child's education. Like an RRSP, an RESP is tax-deferred. Unlike the RRSP, though, the government will chip in 20 percent of a contribution up to a maximum of $500 per year. "The grant is free money and anyone saving for a child's education should be taking advantage of it," says Sigurdson.

Similarly, for individuals who are disabled or have disabled children, registered disability savings plans (RDSPs) offer grants and bonds, while any income earned in them gets taxed only when it's withdrawn.

Make use of non-registered accounts

If you've maxed out your RRSP and your TFSA and still have money to invest, then consider opening a non-registered account. However, investments in these accounts get taxed, so it's important to know which securities to keep inside them.

Stocks, mutual funds and other equities should be held in non-registered accounts, as capital gains – the money made off a sale of a stock – and dividend income are taxed favorably. "Earnings from fixed-income investments are fully taxable, so you want the tax-sheltered growth," says Sigurdson. "But only 50 percent of capital gains are taxed and dividend income provides a dividend tax credit."

Get creative with other investments

Other tax-efficient investments include some life insurance policies, as the proceeds go to the beneficiary tax-free upon the policyholder's death. "When you think about how you're going to pass along your wealth to the next generation, it can really help shape how you structure your investments," says Cheung.

The Warburg Legion Branch No. 205 - We are at it again!

In May -

The Legion members have been very busy with our Breakfast Special at the end of each month. Our next breakfast will be May 26, 2019! This will be the last breakfast until the end of September 2019, as all members take a well-deserved summer off. Our next meeting will be on May 28, 2019 at 7:00 pm at the Warburg Legion. We will be busy working on our Cenotaph and surrounding garden area for spring.

But in June -

June 3, 2019 Legion members will be attending the Annual Ceremonial Review for 2561 Misiwete Army Cadets in Thorsby, Alberta

June 15, 2019 Fathers Day Special! The Legion will be putting on a Family Steak OR Chicken Night at the Legion. The evening will feature great food, good company, surprises and entertainment. Kids get those pencils out and write Dad a Happy Fathers Day Note or a poem or make him a picture! You can read them at the Father's Day Special! Our entertainment features Tony with Laredo. Watch for posters!

June 22, 2019, we join the community for our annual Heritage Days Celebration. We will be in the parade, free hotdogs after the parade at the Legion. The Legion will be open in the afternoon for bar service and a great luncheon right after the parade. More details to follow. Come out and support Heritage Days!

June 25, 2019 will be our monthly meeting at 7:00 pm at the Warburg Legion.

Please support your local businesses, both home based and commercial. Please support FCSS and the Village Recreation Department in summer programming in Warburg!
