Farm Freedom and Safety Act

Have your say on farm and ranch safety and workplace legislation.

Our government has initiated comprehensive consultations with farmers, ranchers, agriculture workers, and others as we move forward with the new proposed Farm Freedom and Safety Act.

The new legislation will address:

- Ensuring basic safety standards.
- Recognizing that a farm is unlike other businesses, and that farmers and ranchers require flexibility in meeting workplace standards.
- Minimizing red tape and the regulatory burden on farmers and ranchers.
- Requiring employers to have workplace insurance, but allowing a choice of market insurance or the Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) as long as basic standards of coverage are met.
- Exempting small farms from employment standards legislation.

We are committed to restoring balance, fairness and common sense to the regulation of Alberta's agriculture sector. Farm and ranch operations have unique needs that are unlike other industries. We need legislation that balances the unique economic pressures of farming with the need for common sense, flexible farm safety and employment legislation.

Alberta Agriculture and Forestry is leading a range of stakeholder consultation opportunities throughout the summer. Watch for Agriculture and Forestry Minister Devin Dreeshen at events in our community, and take that opportunity to connect with him and share your opinion.

A survey on Farm Freedom and Safety is available online at Alberta.ca until the end of the summer and I encourage you to provide your input. The survey is online at alberta.ca/farm-safety-engagement.

If you have any questions or would like to provide input into this important legislation, feel free to contact me at the Drayton Valley constituency office, 5136B – 52 Ave, 780-542-3355, or email: draytonvalley.devon@assembly.ab.ca

Straight Out of Thorsby

From the County of Leduc, from Alberta and Canada, from Singapore to the U.K., from Australia to Holland, from the USA to Panama, Thorsby graduates are making a difference. This is the 28th installment in a series of profiles which indicate what a small school and community can produce.

The people who conduct the interviews are Audrey Brosseau and John Elson. If you have suggestions please contact John at 780-789-3822 or Audrey at 780-886-0658.

Harry SCHMOLKE Part 2
VERNON B.C.

My interest in law enforcement was peaked when a friend, Jim Fink, joined the RCMP and was posted to Valmont B.C. I visited him a few times and rode with him on his patrol. I approached the Thorsby detachment members and rode with them as well. One of the files I remember was covert operations to catch bad guys doing doughnuts in front of the Warburg bar. The NCO i/c parked in front of the bar in a borrowed pick-up truck in plain clothes and called out the violators to the members nearby. Hilarity is a term I would use to describe the night. Cst. Al Goodman of the Thorsby detachment was the catalyst in my application to become a member of the force.

The RCMP during the 70's was transitioning their recruitment standards between high school graduates and university graduates and back. I covertly (never let a prank go to waste) submitted my application through the Thorsby Detachment. One day I received a phone call from a RCMP staffing Sgt. indicating that he was coming to Thorsby to interview Marlyn and myself. It was now time to tell Marlyn what was afoot. Following OUR interview I attended Grant McEwen college in Edmonton to study law enforcement. Nearing the end of my first semester I was contacted by the Force and given a date to report to the RCMP training academy in Regina. Marlyn moved to Edmonton to live with a friend until I graduated six months later.

Following my graduation, we were posted to North Vancouver B.C. Marlyn went to work for Palm Dairies in the Vancouver office. North Vancouver detachment had a contingent of 130 which was quite an adjustment. Our daughter Christina was born in North Van. Five years later we were transferred to Lytton B.C. in the Fraser Canyon. Our son Vincent was added to the family. Five years after Lytton we were transferred to Vernon B.C. where I retired after serving twenty five years in the force. Marlyn retired after serving twenty years as a Certified Teaching Assistant. Our daughter, Christina, graduated from the U of A with a degree in psychology and has a private practice in Edmonton. Christina is married to Jeremy, who is also a psychologist, and works for Alberta Mental Health. Our son Vincent remained in Vernon and upon my retirement from the Force we formed an automotive detailing company which we operated for a number of years. Vince has a son and another one due at the end of July. Vince and Carly are going to be wed in February 2020. Our grand babies are named Enzo and Mitchel.

Presently I am semi retired. I am a landlord of a large commercial building in Vernon and I own a purified water vending company.

We still have ties to Thorsby through family and many friends.

Don't wash your hair in the shower

(It's so good to finally get a health warning that is useful)

IT INVOLVES THE SHAMPOO WHEN IT RUNS DOWN YOUR BODY WHEN YOU SHOWER WITH IT A WARNING TO US ALL!!!

I don't know WHY I didn't figure this out sooner! I use shampoo in the shower! When I wash my hair, the shampoo runs down my whole body, and printed very clearly on the shampoo label is this warning, "FOR EXTRA BODY AND VOLUME."

No wonder I have been gaining weight! Well, I got rid of that shampoo and I am going to start showering with Dawn dishwashing soap instead. Its label reads, "DISSOLVES FAT THAT IS OTHERWISE DIFFICULT TO REMOVE."

Ok, who's the cutest? Todd is!
Now who knows they are the cutest? Todd does!
