

TH^{RSBY} TARGET

The Spirit of Thorsby Shines

"We were thrilled with the turnout," said Economic Development Coordinator Carol Rempel. On Saturday, September 21st we celebrated the Spirit of Thorsby in support of Taylor Park. We had a great volunteer team of 6 with 46 Sponsors, over 50 volunteers, 19 Vendors/Community Engagement tents with food & drinks like pizza, ginger beef, chicken satay, ice cream treats, rhodiola tea, homemade salsa, donair hotdogs, donuts, beer gardens and much more! Free entertainment, a great band (Wild Rose Roulette), children's games & jumbo pong. The proceeds are all going to the future "Taylor Park", a downtown arts & cultural park and community space to hold more events to support this wonderful town! The Spirit of Thorsby truly showed what our community is all about! What a success! Thank you everyone for your support!

FCSS Community Appreciation And Family Night

From Patti Skarpinsky, Thorsby FCSS

On Friday, September 13th, approx. 125 guests and 28 agencies and organizations attended Community Awareness and Family night. The surveys were very positive, as most said they liked having the event on a Friday night and not a school night. Community Awareness used to be a night you registered to join different organizations, but most say they register online now. It was previously held on meet the teacher night, but that has been moved to an earlier date so young students can meet the teacher before school starts. With that being said.... The dynamics of the evening may be changing. I did take this opportunity to try and promote what the Arctic Spa Rec. Centre has to offer. A lot of people in Town had not yet been to the Rec Centre and they were not aware of the great Services and Programs. The people had a chance to meet and discuss Rec programs with the Rec Supervisor Kristen and Becca the Program leader and children could also do some tabletop activities

Leduc County Rec was also here with a table of info plus interactive activities for children. Thorsby Library manager Gayle Sakuta and Laura Cooke shared their programs and how engaged they are in our community with children, youth, adults' seniors and families. I am grateful that my FCSS office is next to the Library. The outreach they do is amazing. A big thanks to Audrey Brosseau for all the children and Youth Programs. Please feel free to stop by and get your Library Card, and say hi to Gayle, Audrey, Cindy, Laura and their volunteers, Elena, Jessica and Dakota.

The Preschool Teacher Sharon Powlik and few young students graced us with a lemonade stand, and all donations were going to go to preschool. I encouraged everyone to check out the cafeteria "Coffee Pucks and Poutine" the bowling alley and the Gym, along with of course my Family and Community Support Office.

Regrets that the Thorsby Foot Nurse could not be in attendance or our Thorsby Public Health Nurse. And the Pickle Ball Team, the Bowling Team and the Crib Players that come out weekly to play.

I thank everyone who came out to the event..... even though it was such a beautiful Friday evening!

Thanks for All You Do!

The Thorsby Target would like to apologize for not getting this into the last publication of the Target.

SHAWN WAGAR

I was fortunate to have had the opportunity to grow up on a farm just outside of Thorsby. I was born in Edmonton and can remember coming out to the farm on the weekends to see my cousins, uncles and aunts and grandparents. I can remember many weekends on the farm building our house and being excited about our move to Thorsby. I was very much welcomed into Thorsby Elementary and my life in Thorsby began. I can remember from a very early age loving baseball and we were fortunate enough to have a great group of guys and many great coaches. We played right through to high school and then eventually played men's fast-ball and baseball for Thorsby teams. I think going to Thorsby Sports Day and watching all the older guys started my love for the game. We even started our own men's hockey team. In High School, we had many fabulous teachers and we were offered great opportunities. I began to curl on a mixed team that took us all over the province. I played the standard high school sports and also had the benefit of great instruction in small classes.

When I graduated I decided to attend the University of Alberta where I obtained an Education Degree with a major in Physical Education. It was sad to leave home as I have such a great relationship with my Dad and Mom as well as my brother and sister. I am very thankful we are still close today. I started work that fall in a small town called Eckville which was very much like Thorsby. Eckville was very good for me as it gave me the opportunity to meet my wife Alana and many new friends. I began a 5 year run of teaching P.E. and coaching school sports. Alana and I moved to Lacombe where I taught grade six for 2 years and returned back to the University of Alberta where I obtained my Masters Degree in Educational Administration. While working on my degree, I became an assistant principal, a job that I still hold until today. During my time away from Thorsby I was fortunate enough to keep in touch with family and friends and enjoyed going back to visit them.

We have 2 wonderful children (Ty and Colby) who I was lucky enough to coach in baseball, ringette and hockey. We were able to travel all of Canada and Europe while our kids played their various sports. Both of our children are now attending university in Edmonton.

I continue to be an avid sports fan and I am still a passionate fan of the Eskimos, Oilers and Blue Jays. I love coaching and was fortunate enough to be a coach from a very early age, this was influenced by the great coaches that I had. I have scouted Ringette at a National level and am currently beginning my new career as a referee. I love the outdoors and like to keep active, something that started from living on the farm.

I still really enjoy going back to Thorsby and taking my family there as well. Our family now has grown with lots of kids making family events all the more fun. I think small towns have a really good pace to life and a nice feel. A few of my many memories of Thorsby include me helping to build the recreation complex, working at the car wash and always having a dog on the farm who was my best friend. I have such great cousins who lived in Thorsby that took care of me and who I am still in contact with today. I believe Thorsby was responsible for giving me many of the values that I have today.

MLA REPORT

from The Office of MLA Mark Smith,
Member of the Legislative Assembly
for Drayton Valley - Devon

In the spring election the people of Alberta had a choice to make. Instead of re-electing an NDP government that had increased our debt from $13 Billion to $60 billion they elected a United Conservative government that campaigned on balancing the budget over the next 4 years and working towards eliminating the debt after that.

In May of 2019 the new Alberta government appointed the Mackinnon Panel who's Chair, Janice Mackinnon, was a former Minister of Finance from the NDP government in Saskatchewan that had to tackle an even greater economic crisis in Saskatchewan during the 1990's.

The Mackinnon Panel was appointed to ... "conduct a "deep dive" into Alberta's fiscal situation, recommend a path to balance, and propose a realistic plan to start paying down the debt."

The Mackinnon Panel reviewed the Alberta government's finances including:

- Government's fiscal outlook
- Ministry expenditure trends and cost drivers.
- Develop a new fiscal framework that requires future balanced budgets by 2022/23 without raising taxes and a plan to retire the accumulated debt.

The Mackinnon Panel reported back to the Alberta Government on August 15, 2019 and their report was then studied by the government and recently released to the general public. The report's conclusions and recommendations are important and they are not necessarily going to be easy to pursue. Here are some of the conclusions of the Mackinnon Report:

"Alberta's debt has increased rapidly in the last four years, $13 billion to $60 billion, and without a change in course will exceed $100 billion in just four years."

"Growing deficits and debt mean more and more tax dollars are spent on interest rather than on programs ... the payments to service the debt in 2022/23 could pay for more than 30,000 teachers or 35,000 long-term care beds."

"(Alberta) is spending more per capita than the three other large provinces on most of its programs and services but often getting poorer results. Raising taxes to find more money for the current level of programs and services is not the answer."

"In some key areas, in spite of the higher levels of funding, the results achieved are no better and, in some cases, worse than in other provinces."

Alberta's spending would be $10.4 Billion less every year if we matched the average spending of Canada's three largest provinces – Ontario, Quebec and British Columbia. Alberta would have a $3.7 billion surplus instead of a $6.7 billion deficit.

To balance the Alberta budget in four years, operating expense will need to drop by at least $600 million by 2022-23, relative to 2018-19 actuals, and $1.1 billion relative to the 2018-19 budget.

The Mackinnon Report clearly shows that increasing taxes to address our debt and deficits is not the answer. Alberta does not primarily have a revenue problem – rather, as the Mackinnon Report concludes Alberta has a spending and program efficiency problem. We need to ensure that the tax dollars we do collect and the government services we do provide are being used and delivered at least as efficiently as in Ontario, Quebec and British Columbia.

As we move forward into the fall budget the government is going to be reviewing and implementing many of the recommendations of the Mackinnon report. This will not be easy, but it is necessary, if we want to ensure that the people of Alberta continue to be able to have a government that has the financial capacity to deliver the services that all Albertans want and deserve.
