Connected To War

From Noeline Hoffmann

Every year on November 11th, for as long as I can recall, I have attended a Remembrance Day ceremony. From a young age we are taught about how fortunate we are to be living in a free country, and as we grow older, we learn about the prices that have been, and continue to be paid in order for Canada to be the flourishing place that it is today. These sacrifices are nothing that I have taken lightly, and I am sure that the majority of Canadians and Canadian youth would say the same. Many people worry that once their generation has passed, the tradition of Remembrance Day will discontinue because the youth of today have never experienced war close-up; that the tradition isn't important to us. I would like to stand for the generations of the future and say that - it is true that we will never personally remember the battles, or the soldiers of yesterday, but we will carry on the memory of them into our tomorrows. We will never forget why we are free, and we will never lose the ability to reflect.

Humans are sentimental beings, and even as generations go by, we won't forget those who came before us. We won't forget to teach our children the lessons we learned from our grandparents. My Opa taught me to eat every last morsel of food on my plate. He licked his own plate. At times, I hated this rule, my little belly far overfilled, I didn't understand; but I kept my thoughts to myself. You don't argue with your elders, and it is a thing of respect to appreciate what you are given. Later on, I learned that my Opa lived through a time of war. Rations were frugal, nothing was wasted. I can say that I have always been content with the things I had, but this small lesson from Opa taught me to be thankful - thankful for the everyday things that I take for granted. I won't know what it was like for my Opa to live the way he did, but I will always remember the many stories he told me. This is the same as the tradition of Remembrance Day. We pay respect to the things that we are given, and honor those who have passed by sharing their stories. Just because the youth of today weren't there to experience the peril of World War I and II, we learn from the second hand stories.

We are all connected to war. Whether it be through our family tree, the news, or the history we learn in school. It affects everyone, every day. Throughout the year we may take our freedoms for granted, but on November 11th we remember why we can enjoy the free life that we do. We reflect on all of the blessings in our lives, and with heavy hearts we send silent thanks to those who have fought, and those who died for our great country, Canada.

Thorsby Library News

From Gayle Sacuta

Hello everyone! The library wants to remind you about some upcoming programs and new resources:

Author visit with Pearl Gregor will be happening on Saturday, November 23 from 11:00 am -1:00 pm. Find out about Pearl's journey to being an author and try your own hand at writing. Thorsby Municipal Library is continuing with our financial literacy series with the help of CPA Canada and volunteer Karen Stix. Our next program is called Teaching Your Kids About Money on Tuesday, November 26 from 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm. Please call to register. Drop in participation is welcome, although at least 6 people must be registered in order to run the evening. We are looking for ideas for library programs related to employment and entrepreneurship. If you have any ideas, email me at yatmgsacuta@yrl.ab.ca.

We purchased some great new non-fiction titles. One of these is the new cookbook by Giselle Courteau called Duchess Bake Shop: French inspired recipes from our bakery to your home. We also have new titles in the children's section and on topics related to our Living Library program hosted in partnership with Leduc & District Victim Services. In this wonderful evening we heard the lifeexperience of four speakers talking about traumatic times they have known. I would like to thank the speakers and all the participants who came to the evening. We really must all come together in conversation in order to learn from each other about how to address complex issues in our community. In order to place a hold on new items just come to our web page and use your library card number and pin. Phone the staff if you need any assistance at 780-789-3808. <https://thorsbymunicipallibrary.ab.ca/>

Please remember that the library will be closed for Remembrance Day on November 11 and that our board meetings take place in the library on the third Wednesday of the month at 7:00 pm. Meetings are open to public attendance, please contact us in advance. The next meeting is Wednesday, November 20, 2019.

Could they be a benefit to you?

Seniors Services provides preventative social programs that assist seniors and people with disabilities in maintaining their independence and enhancing their quality of life.

A housekeeping subsidy is available to assist seniors and adults with disabilities to live as independently as possible in their own safe, clean and comfortable homes.

To be eligible for the housekeeping subsidy, you must:

- be a senior (65+) or an adult with a disability or inability to complete household tasks,
- be a resident of Leduc County, Calmar, Thorsby, or Warburg, and
- have a total household income of less than $60,000 a year (as a couple) or less than $40,000 (as a single).

Housekeeping fees are determined based on family income level and eligibility to other subsidies. The services are provided through a partnership with Serving Hands Senior Care Inc.

Seniors Services also offers one-to-one support to assist you with:

- Information and referrals to other local resources
- Assistance with forms and applications
- Advocacy and coordination of services
- Goal setting and future planning direction

For more information or to access any of these programs, please contact the Seniors Services Coordinator at 780-955-4554.

We have a book club that meets on the 3rd Tuesday of each month at 7:15 pm in the basement of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in Thorsby.

We are a group of people who enjoy reading and discussing books, and then socializing over a cup of coffee or tea and snacks. We started the book club in the fall of 2014 so now have been meeting for 5 years, enjoying many good books and getting to know others in our community through the discussion and socializing. Many of the members have commented that they have read books that they wouldn't have otherwise and it has introduced us all to new authors and topics.

We always enjoy having new members and welcome anyone from our community to join us. For further information you can contact Audrey Brosseau at 780-886-0658 or Crystal Krueger at 780-789-2285

SHARON KUZIO (nee Hier)
THS Class of '63

I am proud to say that I was born and raised in Thorsby by my parents John and Lil Hier and grew up with four siblings - Doreen (Hostyn), Veona (Zingel), Lyle and Donald. I have seen Thorsby grow from a Hamlet, to a Village (of which my father was the first mayor) to the Town it is now today.

Needless to say, life has changed a lot from those days. Unless you lived out of town and had to be bussed to school, most kids walked to and from school. When we were in high school you needed permission from the Principal to bring a vehicle to school and you needed a pretty valid reason to do that. We went to school ALL day EVERY day. I remember older people telling me that high school would be some of the best times of my life and me thinking that they were crazy. Looking back now I realize that they were right. I still occasionally see some of my old classmates whenever I get the chance to visit Thorsby and enjoy those chance meetings immensely. While attending high school I also had part-time jobs at the local theatre, the Rexall Drug Store and with AGT (Alberta Government Telephones) as a telephone operator at the local telephone office. I also did a lot of baby-sitting for both of my sisters and a couple of other families in Thorsby.

I had no aspirations to go to any sort of post-secondary school or to travel the world, and my hope was to be employed in a secretarial role. When I graduated from Thorsby High in 1963 I moved to Edmonton and got a job at the Great Western Garment Company (GWG). I started out as a file clerk, was promoted to receptionist and then to the payroll department. While there I became engaged to my husband Larry Kuzio, presently of 54 plus years, and we both moved back to Thorsby in 1964 where I worked in the Bank of Montreal and Larry worked for my brother-in-law Leo Zingel apprenticing as a mechanic. We were married in 1965 and after a year or so of living in Thorsby we decided to move back to Edmonton. I was able to get a transfer to a Bank of Montreal in Edmonton and Larry got a job driving truck for Dynamic Transport. I worked at the Bank for a couple more years and then got a job with Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation where I worked until 1973. Our oldest daughter Tammy came along early the next year and I became a stay-at-home mom. In 1976 we welcomed our second daughter Melanie. In 1978 we decided to again move back to Thorsby. In 1979 I started working at Thorsby Elementary School as the Library Clerk which I did for two years and then took over the Secretary position which I held until my retirement in 2010. Both of our daughters also graduated from Thorsby High School. Tammy went on to the University of Calgary where she obtained her Bachelor of Education Degree and Melanie attended N.A.I.T. and graduated as an Interior Design Technologist. Sadly we lost Melanie to leukemia in November of 2000. Tammy taught school in Calgary, married Ryan Hewitt, who also graduated from Thorsby High, and they have made us the delighted grandparents of two wonderful grandchildren, Tristan and Emma. They are all presently living in Calgary and making both of us very proud of all of them for their accomplishments.

In 1997, with Larry now working in Drayton Valley for his brother-in-law Les Huber, we decided to move again. This time we moved to a condominium community right on a golf course just east of Drayton Valley, where we presently reside. Larry also partially retired in 2010 and fully retired in 2014. We are both still in reasonably good health, enjoy our life here, have made many wonderful new friends and have no plans to leave here in the foreseeable future.

Thank you for allowing us the opportunity continued support.

ATTORNEY: Now doctor, isn't it true that when a person dies in his sleep, he doesn't know about it until the next morning?

WITNESS: Did you actually pass the bar exam?

ATTORNEY: The youngest son, the 20-year-old, how old is he?

WITNESS: He's 20, much like your IQ.

ATTORNEY: She had three children, right?

WITNESS: Yes.

ATTORNEY: How many were boys?

WITNESS: None.

ATTORNEY: Were there any girls?

WITNESS: Your Honor, I think I need a different attorney. Can I get a new attorney?

ATTORNEY: How was your first marriage terminated?

WITNESS: By death..

ATTORNEY: And by whose death was it terminated?

WITNESS: Take a guess.

ATTORNEY: Can you describe the individual?

WITNESS: He was about medium height and had a beard

ATTORNEY: Was this a male or a female?

WITNESS: Unless the Circus was in town I'm going with male.

ATTORNEY: Do you recall the time that you examined the body?

WITNESS: The autopsy started around 8:30 PM

ATTORNEY: And Mr. Denton was dead at the time?

WITNESS: If not, he was by the time I finished.

ATTORNEY: Doctor, before you performed the autopsy, did you check for a pulse?

WITNESS: No.

ATTORNEY: Did you check for blood pressure?

WITNESS: No.

ATTORNEY: Did you check for breathing?

WITNESS: No..

ATTORNEY: So, then it is possible that the patient was alive when you began the autopsy?

WITNESS: No.

ATTORNEY: How can you be so sure, Doctor?

WITNESS: Because his brain was sitting on my desk in a jar.

ATTORNEY: I see, but could the patient have still been alive, nevertheless?

WITNESS: Yes, it is possible that he could have been alive and practicing law.

Do y'all remember, before the internet, that people thought the cause of stupidity was the lack of access to information?

Yeah. It wasn't that. 🙄

They say you're only as old as you feel.

Well I feel like I've been exhumed from the tombs of Egypt, given a cup of coffee and been sent to work.
