4-H Roadtrip!

From Justin Kronschnabl, Club Reporter

On November 2, 2019, the Strawberry 4H Club went to Olds to attend the Canadian National 2019 APA Poultry Show. It was a really interesting event. There were a lot of different breeds of chickens, ducks, turkeys and other small animals there.

It is not too late to come and join one of the following Projects that we offer: Beef, Pheasants, Poultry, Horse, Sheep and Small Engine. If you are interested in joining the Strawberry 4-H Club, please contact Tim Wegner 780.789.4103 or 780.940.9645 and plan to attend the next meeting on November 22, 2019 at 7:00 pm at the Warburg Village Office.

St. Matthew's Lutheran Church History

From Gwyneth Agar

St. Matthew's began life in 1926 as a Lutheran Fellowship in Strawberry Creek and Fruitland. The fellowship met in the Fruitland School led by Pastor Goss. The first St. Matthew's Church in Thorsby was built on the current site in 1934. After 30 years of worship in the original building a decision was made to build a completely new church and the new St. Matthew's was dedicated in 1964. A total of seventeen Pastors have served at St. Matthew's in the intervening eighty five years since the first church was established.

St. Matthew's has played a prominent role in the life of Thorsby during those years. The traditional Spring BBQ's, Silent Auctions, and Harvest Suppers at the church are very popular and well attended by residents of Thorsby and its surrounding communities. Over the years in addition to regular services, special services at Easter and the Christmas Eve Candle Light Service attract large congregations. St. Matthew's can be proud of the contribution it has made to life of Thorsby and its surrounding communities over the last 85 years.

On November 24th, 2019 St. Matthew's will be holding a special Service at 10:30 a.m. to celebrate 85 years in the community, everyone is invited to attend.

ROBERT FORD - Class of '86

Hello! It's been a while since I graduated from THS in 1986 and much has happened for all of us! When I last saw many of you I was on my way to Camrose Lutheran College with the intent to transfer to the University of Alberta to obtain an Education degree. My first year of university was a challenge and left me more qualified to attend the potato patch rather than transfer into a program at the UofA. As a result, I stayed at CLC and discovered a path with student leadership opportunities that eventually led to a life long career in Student Affairs. While attending CLC I studied my BSc in Biological Sciences and connected up with several leadership opportunities; I managed the college radio station, held representative positions on Student Council and became involved with Residence Life. During my time at CLC the campus went through a name change process to Augustana University College which is now a campus of the University of Alberta.

I graduated with my BSc in 1992 and immediately started working at Augustana in Residence and Hospitality. In 1995 I became the Assistant Director of Residence Life and in 1996 took on additional responsibilities as the Manager for our Conference Services department. I lived full time in residence from 1992 to 2004 which was a challenging time for the Campus which included the merger with the UofA. As the president of our staff council, I was a member of the transition team which was an incredible experience. Over the years, my role at the University has morphed and after 25 years I transitioned away from Conference Services to full management of Residence Services and Student Engagement. This role gives me the ability to have impact on the student experience through staff training, facility management and student programming. I am very passionate about working for inclusion in our communities. Whether students come from another country, down the road, have a different faith background or are from the LGBTQ community, students bring to our campus a kaleidoscope of experiences.

While living in Camrose, I have served the community through a number of different volunteer opportunities. Right after graduation I signed up for a 3 year term on the Augustana Alumni Board. I was a founding member of Tourism Camrose and held various board and executive positions from 2004 to 2016. Camrose hosted the 2002 Alberta Summer Games and I joined the Camrose Games Society as the Accommodations Director for the Games. As the Accommodations Director I was responsible for 13 athletes villages and accommodation for the coaches, trainers and media. I remained with the Camrose Games Society until we wound down the organization in 2008.

I am most proud of the 14 years I was a member of the Camrose Police Commission. During my time as the Vice-Chair, I guided the commission through the development of a set of policies and procedures and in 2016 we received our standards compliance certificate from the Solicitor General. In January of 2016 I took on the role of Chair of the Commission, and soon after we entered a time when we had to hire a Chief of Police. This was a very detailed process and I helped the Commission to develop a unique selection process that engaged community, municipal and internal stakeholders. We hired a Chief in 2017 and in 2019 our Chief was presented with the opportunity to take on the role of Chief Constable (aka Chief of Police) for the Calgary Police Service. I then had the task of guiding the Commission through a second hiring which gave me the chance to tweak the process.

I have been involved with the community my entire adult life and due to term limits will finish with the Police Commission at the end of December. I will start the new year by taking a break from volunteer activities to focus on an application to a graduate program that focuses on diversity and inclusion.

Some of you may remember the exchange students we had, notably Bernardo from Panama and Edgar from Costa Rica. After my first year of University Chris Bendoritis and I spent 6 weeks in Panama visiting Bernardo and his family. In 1989 I had the chance to visit Edgar for two weeks. Those trips ignited a desire to travel to locations in Canada, USA and farther away such as Kenya, UK, Thailand, Hong Kong, Taiwan and regular trips to Macau with my partner.

My Mom and Dad sold the farm in 2000 and moved to Edmonton so that they could be closer to their parents and family. Dad passed away in 2008 and Mom still lives in Edmonton.

When we use the mirror the brain tricks us into seeing ourselves five times more attractive than we actually are?

November is Family Violence Prevention Month

What happens in a healthy dating relationship? · You enjoy the time you spend together · You respect each other's opinions · You can disagree and know it's okay to talk about your differences · You feel good doing things apart from each other as well as together · There is a sense of safety and security in your relationship · You do not try to restrict or control each other · It's easy to be true to yourself when you are with the other person. You encourage each other to be great.

Being in a healthy dating relationship does not mean you always agree or that you are going to stay together for a long time. It just means you are respectful to each other while you are dating. But not all dating relationships are healthy.

Is it a big problem? Well, it might surprise you to know that dating violence is, in fact, more prominent than spouse abuse. It affects far too many people, and has a lasting impact on both self-esteem and future relationships.

What is abuse? Abuse is about power. Abuse is about control. Abuse is about one person trying to control or dominate another. Here are some control tactics that might be used.

EMOTIONAL ABUSE TACTICS may include: · Treating you with disrespect - Name-calling, insulting, blaming, humiliating - Interfering with or ridiculing your beliefs and values · Emotional roller coaster - Being explosive or having wild mood swings - Manipulating you emotionally, such as, "If you love me then you will do as I want" · Isolation - Being possessive, not wanting you to be with other people - Trying to keep you away from your friends and family.

SEXUAL ABUSE TACTICS may include: · Pressure to have sex · Unwanted sexual touching and/or unsafe sexual practices · Making fun of you if you do not want to do certain sexual things · Forcing a person into degrading, humiliating or painful sexual acts · Forcing you to use technology to record intimate images of you or your partner

INTIMIDATION TACTICS are actions meant to scare you. They may include: · Behaviours that could harm you or people or possessions you care about, such as: - Throwing things or breaking things - Destroying your possessions - Using technology to spread intimate images of you without consent · Threats - Threatening to harm you, people or pets you care about - Threatening to spread rumours about you or get you in trouble - Threatening to commit suicide if you do not do something they want - Threatening gestures or facial expressions - Threatening to use technology to hurt you · Stalking or harassment tactics, such as: - Following you - Parking close by and watching where you live or work - Contacting you by phone, Internet or text message more than you feel comfortable with - Contacting your friends or family to ask about you or spread false rumours about you - Using technology to stalk or harass you.

PHYSICAL ABUSE TACTICS may include: · Shoving, slapping, kicking, biting, punching, pinching, hair pulling, pushing or elbowing you · Throwing things at you · Threatening to harm you with an object or weapon.

Know the early warning signs: Seven warning signs that you are dating a person who is abusive and could be violent. 1. Soon after you begin dating, your boyfriend or girlfriend pressures you to make the relationship very serious or to have sex.

2. Your boyfriend or girlfriend becomes extremely jealous and possessive. He or she thinks these destructive displays of emotion are signs of love.

3. Your boyfriend or girlfriend tries to control you and to make all decisions about what you do together. Your boyfriend or girlfriend does not take your views or desires seriously.

4. Your boyfriend or girlfriend tries to keep you from spending time with close friends or family.

5. Your boyfriend or girlfriend verbally and emotionally abuses you. He or she does things like yell at you, swear at you, manipulate you, spread false and degrading rumours about you, and try to make you feel guilty.

6. Your boyfriend or girlfriend threatens physical violence.

7. Your boyfriend or girlfriend has abused a previous girlfriend or boyfriend. He or she accepts and defends the use of violence by others. These are only some of the possible signs of abuse. Trust your instincts and get help if you feel your partner is abusive.

For more information on this topic, refer to the Dating Abuse booklet; available online at www.familyviolence.alberta.ca or by phone at 310-1818, toll-free in Alberta.
