Sculptors in the Making From Warburg School

Rubble Road Soapstone Carving brought their expertise to our grades 2, 3 and 5 classes on Thursday, January 23rd.

The students enjoyed learning about soapstone, it's place in the lapidary carving field, and how it compares to other minerals in the carving format. They will also bring home their soapstone carvings.

Check out the site: <https://www.rubble-road.com/> to see what cool kits can be ordered from this Edmonton company.

Ralph Lee Halladay

July 5th, 1938 - December 27th, 2019

With a heavy heart we commemorate our beloved husband, father and friend to a better place.

Ralph Lee Halladay, born July 5th 1938, passed on December 27th, 2019 at Leduc hospital, he was with his loving wife at the time three days before their 59th wedding anniversary, Ralph was 81 years old.

He leaves behind to mourn his passing his wife of 58 years, Caroline, son Philip, daughter Brenda and grandson Jesse (Brittany, Sage) and his three great granddaughters Eva, Blake and Kysa and their brother Keegan and their mother Natasha. Also by his brother Lawrence (Lil), sisters Kathleen (Tom) and Barbra (Zolten), many nieces, nephews, friends and neighbours.

He was preceded by his son Wesley, his mother and father Olive and Arthur, sister Gladys, brothers John and wife Olga, Vernon and Harold (Melba), his best friend Norm (Doris), Rod and Billy.

Ralph loved to have visitors and revelled in having people around him, ultimately this led him to the oil patch where he was never alone. But most of all, he loved his birthday and the party that was always mandatory. So on July 5th 2020, we will have one last birthday party to celebrate his life at the fire pit in the back yard, it will be a Sunday, so hopefully everyone can come, if you wish to and its encouraged, bring a piece of wood to commemorate Ralph along with any special story you feel you would like to share and throw them on the fire as a final farewell to a really good man, a good husband, a good father and a good friend, may he rest in peace, we will all miss him.

Alder Flats

by: Keara Grover

Happy New Year! The Club did a couple of activities and had a lot of fun, the first one was underwater hockey at the Manluk Center in Wetaskiwin. We would like to thank UFA for the grant that made this activity possible.

We were able to purchase a club jacket for each member because we received a County of Wetaskiwin FCSS grant. Thank you very much. We held a Christmas Social where we shared a meal, played games, and had a lot of fun!

The next activity was tubing at Drayton Valley ski hill and this activity was funded by County of Wetaskiwin Rec Board.

We've held a bottle drive and thank you to people who donated their bottles.

Tax season: Why it pays to plan ahead

BY IG WEALTH MANAGEMENT / PHIL GODDARD

Good tax planning is a year-round activity. For many people, tax planning revolves around the RRSP contribution deadline. But that may be too late if you're trying to take advantage of every opportunity to lower your tax bill. With a little advance planning, before the end of the calendar year, you'll be set up for greater success and hopefully lower your taxes.

A little paperwork goes a long way

If you receive a regular paycheque, it's easy to think your income and the taxes you pay are on auto-pilot. Taxes get deducted, contributions get made to a company benefit plan, and it can seem like you don't have a lot of control over the numbers. The truth is, you have more control than you think and there are ways to lower your tax bill and put more money to work. Planning does not need to be complicated. You only need to locate a few documents and set aside a little time to chat with your IG Consultant. Key documents include: Notice of Assessment sent from Canada Revenue Agency (and available online if you have a MyCRA account). Your latest pay stub and your best estimate for any income from bonuses or commissions.

Statements for non-registered investments.

This information will help your IG Consultant determine if any action needs to be taken before the end of the calendar year in order to create the maximum amount of savings for you.

Planning for the "Rs"

The "Rs" are your registered accounts. These accounts are either tax-deferred or tax-free. They include:

Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP)

Tax-free Saving Account (TFSA)

Registered Education Savings Plan (RESP)

Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP)

When planning to optimize your contributions to your registered accounts, consider the order of events. For example, a contribution to your RRSP could generate a tax refund. You could then contribute that amount to your RESP to generate grants from the federal and provincial governments.

Consider capital gains and losses

Sometimes, it makes sense to sell investments that have gone down in value because you can use the loss to lower your taxable income. You should seek the advice of a qualified tax specialist before taking this step. If you decide this approach is right for you, your IG Consultant can guide you through the steps and potential tax advantages.

The bottom line

Year-end is not the only time when you should be planning the best way to minimize taxes, but it is when deadlines are important, and a little extra attention can reap big rewards. This is also a great time to take note of any changes to your income, your expenses or your lifestyle. Then, work with your IG Consultant to make proactive changes to your IG Living Plan™ so you can take full advantage of tax-efficient strategies to enhance your overall financial well-being. Call Phil directly at 780-910-1596 and he can show you ways to save taxes you may not have been aware of. There is no obligation.

Bonus advice on bonuses.

If a bonus is paid directly to you, there may be withholding taxes at source. However, if your employer permits, some or all of the withholding taxes on the bonus may not have to be withheld if the bonus or a portion of the bonus is transferred directly to your RRSP. Talk to your financial advisor for direction on this issue.

LIMITS FOR RRSPS' & TFSAS'

The allowable limits for your 2019 (and subsequent year) contributions for both your RRSP & TFSA is on your 'Notice of Assessment' that you receive after filing your taxes for the preceding year. 2020 contribution room is on the 'Notice of assessment' for 2019.

Important Things to remember!

RRSP DEADLINE: February 29th, 2020

TFSA DEADLINE: NO DEADLINE! (Call Phil -780-910-1596, for more info –Don't miss Out!) No Obligations.
