

THE BRETON BOOSTER

School Year 2020 - 2021

From Deanne Young, FCSS

Deciding whether your child should go back to school is not an easy decision for parents to make. It is important that parents do what they feel is right, comfortable and safe for their entire family.

If you have decided that you would like to send your child back to school, here are some tips on how you can support your child to transition back to school life:

Talk to your child about how they are feeling about going back to school and try not to make assumptions. Ask them if they are worried or feel scared about anything, but also if they are excited about or looking forward to something. No matter how your child feels, let them know that it is completely normal to feel a mixture of emotions and that everyone will be in the same boat. Have a look at more advice on starting a conversation with your child.

Provide your child with as much information about their new routine and school day as you can. This will help them to prepare for any changes that have been made to the timings of their day, the layout of their classroom, their peer groups and playtimes. For younger children, it can be really helpful for them to visualise these changes – so ask your child's school if they can send any pictures to help make things feel more familiar.

Reassure your child. During COVID-19 we have been told to stay at home, remain socially distant from others and wash our hands regularly. This means children may find it difficult to go back to school because it will be a huge change from what they have been asked to do during the pandemic. Talk with your child about ways they can stay safe at school, such as washing their hands before and after eating, and reassure them that the school are putting measures in place to keep them safe.

Re-establish a routine to help ease into school life. During COVID-19 it is understandable that your family's routine may have changed. Children are likely to have been waking up later or going to bed later. To help them get ready for school, try to gradually get them back into their usual morning and bedtime routines as they get closer to their return date.

Don't put pressure on yourself. The transition back into school is likely to take some time. Lots of children will experience ups and downs. Try your best to support, reassure and comfort them, without putting pressure on yourself to make sure their homework is done or they settle into a new routine straightaway.

Think ahead. As well as reflecting on what has happened during the past few weeks, it is important to help children develop hope and a sense of excitement for the future. At a time like this, it can be hard to feel positive, but identifying the things that they can look forward to will help them to realise that the current situation won't last forever and their feelings will change.

Seek support if you need it. Transitioning back to school after being in lockdown is no easy task. You may find that your child struggles to get back into school or experiences difficulties while they're at school. If this is the case, reach out to your child's school as soon as you can so that you can make them aware of the challenges and work together to support your child. If you are concerned about your child's mental health and you think they need professional support, speak to the school and your GP about the best next step.

Thank You!

The family of BETTY WILLIAMS would like to express a heartfelt thank you to all those who sent cards of condolence, wrote on the tribute wall, phone calls, donations and trees that were planted in her memory. Thank you for the wonderful care that she received at Breton Long Term Care.

A special thank you to Ashley, her oldest great granddaughter, for the beautiful memorial card that she designed.

Her life's work is done - Rest in Peace MOM!

The family of the late Alex Waldron wish to extend a big thank you for all the text messages, flowers and visits.

We would also like to say thank you to the past and present staff of Breton High for the lovely plants and thank you to Sandra Kegyelka-Rochan and the class of 1977 for the flowers.

Much appreciated.

So many good memories.

Thank you Roy for the lovely tribute to Alex.

Penny, Mark and Michael and families

Thank You

Covenant Corner

from Pastor Jeff Gooderham

A small trouble is like a pebble. Hold it too close to your eye, and it fills your whole world and puts everything out of focus. Hold it at a proper viewing distance, and it can be examined and properly understood. Throw it at your feet, and it can be seen in its truest setting, just one more tiny bump on the pathway to eternity. In John chapter 16 verse 33 Jesus clearly tells us; "That in this world we will have trouble." That is a given, we will face difficulties, trials, and tribulations. But then He says these remarkable words; "But be of good cheer for I have overcome the world." How we view these troubles in our lives is so important to how we live in the midst of them. We can allow the troubles to shape our world or we can allow the truth of who Jesus is and what He has done for us to shape our world. He has overcome the world. And He invites us to be overcomers as well. That doesn't mean we won't face trouble, actually quite the contrary, what it does mean is that we will face the troubles with the hope of eternal life and the promises of God.

Paul says in Romans chapter 5 verse 3 and 4 that we are to; "glory in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance, and perseverance, character, and character, hope. Now hope does not disappoint." This hope, the hope of eternal life is the one thing in this world that shall never disappoint. Why? Because it is the gift of God! That is how we overcome, even in the midst of tribulation, we hold fast to the hope of eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord!!

Beef Raffle Winners

The winners for the Beef Raffle for the Warburg Cultural Society were:

½ Beef: Elizabeth Szepesy from Warburg

¼ Beef: Jeff Brodhagen from Beaumont

¼ Beef: Debbie Kadish from Thorsby

Elizabeth wanted to share her half with someone, so we drew another name and the winner was Dale Broadbent, beef going to his parents, Gary and Evelyn Broadbent of Warburg.

We want to thank everyone who helped with this raffle in any way. Prima Dairy Farms for donating a young Black Agnes, Ranchland Meats for donating the cutting and wrapping and for Al Gilchrist for donating half the cost of his services.

Candice Prins needs a special pat on the back for all the work she did to make this raffle successful. Also Warburg Village Market and Ranchlands for selling tickets for us.

Please check our Facebook page and our website for upcoming information on our monthly 50/50's. Your odds will be so much better than the Oiler's 50/50. LOL

Thanks to all who bought tickets for this raffle. The money is helping us keep the Cultural Centre going. Whatever is left from any of our fundraisers will go to maintenance & repairs of some water issues in the basement and to paying for the trees to be removed from our newly acquired property in behind the Cultural Centre.

We raised approximately $8,000 with the Beef Raffle! YAYYY!

Also, please see Warburg Cultural Society Facebook page to watch the video of the drawing of the raffle tickets.

NOTE* Warburg Cultural Society is able to issue charitable receipts for any donations. These can be used for your income tax.
