HEALTH MATTERS

THORSBY FAMILY CHIROPRACTIC CLINIC

Old fashioned caring for the whole family with modern techniques.

Fall chores: keeping it safe

With the long, hot days of summer behind us, many people are turning their thoughts to fall chores like raking leaves and cleaning out gutters. This is a great time to get out and enjoy the cooler weather, but it's important to take precautions to avoid the aches and sprains that can often go along with these tasks.

Alberta's chiropractors offer the following health and safety tips to avoid injury this fall:

Warm up and cool down. It may not seem like a workout, but one hour of raking can burn nearly 300 calories! Warm up for at least 10 minutes by walking and stretching to prevent straining your shoulders, neck and back. When you're done your work, gentle stretching exercises will help relieve tension in your muscles.

Choose the right tools. Use tools that are the right size for your height and stature. Look for ergonomic handles for comfort, ease of use and to prevent back strain.

Wear the right clothing. Lightweight clothing will keep you warm without trapping sweat. Shoes should be sturdy to help prevent injuries to your feet and have slip-resistant soles to minimize the risk of falling. Gloves provide traction and help prevent blisters on your hands.

Practice proper position. Stand upright and vary your movements often to avoid overus-ing muscle groups. Bend at the knees and not the waist when picking things up. Avoid tossing leaves over your shoulder or to the side, which can strain your back.

Practice ladder safety. Ensure your ladder is in good repair with no loose screws, hinges or rungs. Position it on a firm, level surface and angle the ladder approximately 75 degrees from the ground. Always face the ladder when climbing and descending, and never sit or stand on the top of the ladder.

Take frequent breaks. Rest every 10 to 15 minutes—repetitive tasks can strain your muscles and joints. Drink plenty of water and stretch to relieve any tension in your back, shoulders and neck.

If you or your family experience back pain this fall, seek relief from your chiropractor. Chiropractors are experts in back, muscle and joint pain and are specifically trained to diagnose and effectively treat these issues.

KIDS BACKPACK SAFETY

Tips to help you and your child make smart choices about selecting, packing, lifting, and wearing a backpack.

- WEAR BACKPACK ON BOTH SHOULDERS
- Backpacks should be 10% or less of your child's weight.
- Use chest straps to help distribute weight evenly.
- Place heavier, larger books closer to the body with the smaller items furthest away.
- Choose a backpack made of lightweight material.
- Choose a backpack with wide padded shoulder straps, a padded back, and a waist strap.
- Carry books in arms if the backpack is too heavy.
- Tighten shoulder straps so the backpack hangs at the waist. Backpack should not hang more than 4 inches below the waistline.

Hello again from West of the Fifth Law! Today I'm going to take a break from our four-part introductory series and take a moment to write about a question that I often hear: "Should I incorporate?"

Put simply, a Corporation is an entity, registered with the government, that has many of the same rights and responsibilities that a person does. Corporations are owned by shareholders and controlled by directors and provide a means for them to do business without exposing themselves to personal liability.

When executed properly, having a Corporation can protect the owners from the risk lawsuits that arise out of business operations. This means that when a Corporation is being sued the owners' homes and personal assets are generally safe from being taken in the lawsuit.

Corporations also provide a benefit of reduced taxes, and when coupled with good accounting and bookkeeping can help reduce the overall taxes paid on money earned by the Corporation. Once the Corporation pays taxes on the money it can then be disbursed to shareholders through dividends at a lower rate of personal income tax.

The downside to incorporating is primarily the cost. There are fees involved, both from the Government and our fee for legal services provided. Corporations require special tax returns which often requires hiring a certified accountant every year. Finally, there is an annual requirement to provide a report to the government, and requirements to have a registered office where you keep your books. We offer these services for $250 plus GST, per year.

The short answer to whether you should incorporate or not is actually another question: Are the benefits of decreased risk of personal liability and lower tax rates worth the initial and ongoing costs of a corporation?

Book an appointment with us if you would like some help answering that question.

Young Artist Competition

From Nhung Zyp

The Calmar Art Society is thrilled to present the winners of our 1st Annual Art Competition for young artists. Recently, the winners came one-by-one with their families to receive their awards and have their pictures taken. It warms our heart to see how excited the children/youths are to see their creation hung up so professionally in a gallery, and it moves us to see the love and support these young artists have from their parents and family.

Because we were so impressed by all the amazing entries, we decided to set up an exhibit to showcase these talented young artists in our communities. The Exhibit of Young Artists opens October 13th at the Zyp Gallery in Calmar, and runs for two months. Admission is free. When you have a chance, do wander through, read the stories behind their pieces, and be inspired by these youths! Congratulations again to all the winners!

Special thanks to our sponsors who contributed to the prizes for the First place winners: Countryside Vision Care, Calmar Chiropractic Clinic, Rise-Well Massage Therapy, Versus Cafe and Catering Co, Town of Calmar from The Office of MLA Mark Smith,

MLA REPORT

Member of the Legislative Assembly
for Drayton Valley - Devon

Albertans know that 2020 has been a uniquely challenging year for families and job creators and that now, perhaps more than ever before, we must boldly pursue new ways to diversify our economy. I am excited to share with you that Alberta's government is introducing legislation this fall to attract new investment in Geothermal energy as part of Alberta's Recovery Plan.

Using emerging made-in-Alberta technology and our decades of drilling experience in oil and gas, we are setting our province up to harness earth's natural energy and diversify our innovative energy sector. A strong Albertan geothermal sector has the potential to create jobs and economic opportunity for Indigenous and rural remote communities, while contributing to the global effort to lower greenhouse gas emissions.

Our government is also launching a new plan for diversifying and growing Alberta's natural gas industry that will position the province as a post-pandemic powerhouse for responsible energy development. The Natural Gas Vision and Strategy is a key part of Alberta's Recovery Plan and shares the actions Alberta's government will take to grow the sector and seize emerging opportunities for clean hydrogen, petrochemical manufacturing, liquefied natural gas (LNG) and plastics recycling. In addition to fueling countries around the world, natural gas – expected to pass coal as the world's second largest energy source by 2040 – has many other uses, including being the foundation for creating hydrogen. Alberta's 300-year supply of affordable natural gas provides significant opportunity to attract investment and job creators back to the province, building back our economy stronger than ever.

Despite the COVID-19 crisis initially reducing demand for pulp and paper products this year, Alberta is now seeing record-breaking solid wood prices at $1,288 per thousand board feet for western spruce-pine-fir. While competing jurisdictions reduced production levels in reaction to the pandemic, these have proven difficult to reverse as demand for wood products increased. In contrast, Alberta saw limited production curtailments, allowing us to maintain a competitive advantage. Alberta's forestry and lumber producers are among the best in the world and through our partnerships they are in a position to keep our forests and communities safe from fires and infestation while supporting jobs and growth.

COVID-19 INFORMATION

NON-TRICKY TIPS FOR A SPOOKY SAFE HALLOWEEN

DON'T trick-or-treat, hand out treats, or go to a party if you are feeling ill (even if symptoms are mild) or in isolation/quarantine.

Trick-or-treating

- Choose costumes that allow your child to wear a non-medical mask. They can wear a mask underneath a Halloween mask as long as they can see and breathe comfortably. Make sure it's comfortable so your child won't need to adjust it.
- Go only with family or cohort members and keep a healthy distance from others.
- Stay in your community to limit the number of people you come into contact with.
- Carry hand sanitizer and use it after touching touch-points like doorbells or railings.
- If you can, knock instead of pushing doorbells, or keep 2 metres from the door or porch and call "trick or treat". Make sure the person calling is wearing a mask.
- Wait until you're home and have washed your hands before handling candy.

Handing out candy

- Print posters from Alberta.ca to hang in your window or place on your door to let trick-or-treaters know if you're handing out treats this year or not.
- Wear a mask and use tongs or a grabber.
- Keep a healthy distance from trick-or-treaters. If possible, hand out candy from the driveway, open garage, or lawn instead of your front door.
- Ask trick-or-treaters to knock instead of ringing the doorbell.
- If you are indoors (school, apartment building, or mall) use a table or desk to keep a safe distance from trick-or-treaters (e.g. school classroom, apartment building, mall)

- Avoid handling treats
 - Use prepackaged candy (no homemade treats)
 - Hand treats out directly from the package they came in
 - Don't leave self-serve bowls of bulk candy
 - Make candy bundles/bags and space them out on a table or blanket for trick-or-treaters to take
- Get creative! Build a candy slide down your front steps or railing! Build a (safe) candy catapult! There are many fun ways to hand out treats while maintaining physical distance.

Attending a party (adults and kids)

- Spend time with people you know. The smaller the group the better.
- If possible, host your party outside. It's easier to keep a healthy distance between guests and there's better air circulation. (See guidance for "Outdoor Events")
- If the party is indoors, keep it small and maintain 2 metres away from people in other families and cohorts. (See guidance for "Indoor Events")
- Don't share drinks, snacks, cigarettes, vapes or cannabis – and no bobbing for apples!
- Choose games and activities that don't involve sharing items, and allow for distancing.
 - Set up art and craft stations so that each guest has their own materials (no sharing).
 - Instead of face painting, hand out temporary tattoos or stickers that guests can put on themselves.
 - Make sure any shared items are sanitized between uses.
 - Wash or sanitize your hands often. Have hand sanitizer easily accessible.
