LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Letter to Jason Kenny, May 12, 2021

Dear Jason Kenney,

It is tiresome hearing you constantly blaming the federal government (or anyone else you can scapegoat) rather than take responsibility for your mistakes. Heaven forbid Trudeau ever look good!

Because of your self-centered pride you have deprived us of the federal Covid-app which may have saved lives while the app you spent tax dollars on was faulty. Why did you sit on thousands of rapid Covid tests kits from the federal government for months? Why are you refusing their help now when Alberta has the most Covid cases per capita in all of North America? It is embarrassing that our three largest cities are reaching out directly to the feds because you won't!

Albertans have never been your priority, it is your personal power and your own bullheaded, completely out of touch agenda. You go on about our rights and our democracy while you deprive us of both. Albertans are losing out, suffering and dying while you try to save face.

It's well past time for you to resign.

Carolyn Schoepp

Deck the Halls

From Allan Goddard

As the new Community Hall nears completion, the Breton Museum felt we should take some time to look back and reflect on the halls which have served this community.

I mentioned in last week's article that during the 1940s Breton held a two-day Stampede and Ball tournament with a dance each evening in both the Community Hall and Nelson's Hall. That is right, Breton had two halls from the 1930s through to the late 1950s.

I will start with Nelson's Hall, which was located on the north side of Main Street. It was owned by Stanford Nelson who was an early settler from the Yeoford area. From what little is written, it appears that he started the hall within a couple of years of Breton being established in 1926. For the next twenty years or so, the hall had a steady stream of movies, dances, and other social events.

One interesting event, that was carried out at the Nelsons Hall was the Travelling Clinic. In the 1930s, the Provincial Government began sending out Travelling Clinics to rural communities for the purpose of removing tonsils, adenoids, and extracting teeth. As Mark Hooks describes in the Keystone Legacy, "The clinics would move into town and set up their chamber of horrors. The kids needing their tonsils or adenoids out were herded into the recreation hall. In Breton that was Nelson's Hall". You can read Mark's whole ordeal in the Keystone Legacy, available at the Breton Museum.

Ted Gryzb related some of his memories about the Nelson Hall to the Breton Museum. He indicated that the Nelson Hall was larger than the Community Hall of the time, "the roof leaked like a sieve", it was none too warm when it was cold, and at dances the single men would line up at the back of the hall in a "stag line".

On to the "Old" Community Hall. One of the artifacts in the Breton Museum collection is the minute book from the Breton Community Club from 1937-1959. While many of the entries in the book are about routine operation, every so often there are interesting entries. In October 1938 the ball club had a wind-up banquet where supper had cost 35 cents and the dance 50 cents.

The Community Hall was located next to the Breton Hotel, well in fact the hotel now covers the lot on which the hall was located. The building was the cookhouse purchased from the Breton Lumber Company, which had a lumber planning operation on the west side of the railway in the late 1920s and had ceased operations. The building was converted to a community hall in the early 1930s, and also hosted movies, dances, public meetings, banquet's etc. Provincial Court was held in the hall and continued in the present hall until the Courthouse was built.

This hall served Breton until the late 1950s when the Village needed a "New and Bigger" Hall to serve the community. There were years of discussion surrounding the new hall, but in July 1958 the hall was closed and construction of the new hall began at its present location. The records indicate numerous Board meetings and changes made to the plans, with the hall opening in 1960. For the past 60 years the hall served the Breton community, and over the years there were additions to hall, including a three-sheet curling rink. Many memories have taken place in the current hall both happy and sad. But as the Breton community gets ready to say good bye to the current Community Centre, praise needs to go out to all the people who worked so diligently over the past number of years to bring to fruition a beautiful facility that will serve the needs of the community for many decades to come.

From: the Breton Museum collection.

We Are Working On A Garden Project!

From Deb Mellafont

Well, it has been a little while since we have updated you on what is happening with the Legion!

The Warburg Legion has received a grant from the Senior Horizons Grant Program. This grant entails two projects and the one we are working on now is The Garden Project for the Cloverleaf Manor!

To date, the residents and staff have been busy planting so they could start their gardens this spring. They have been a big part of how this garden project will work for them. This project started in 2019 -2020 but we received extension for another year due to Covid protocols. They will be receiving a greenhouse, planter gardens and barrels as well as plants for them to enjoy and enhance their existing gardens. Part of this grant requires volunteer time with the community, (all ages) so we are hoping to set up some work bees to help set up these gardens so the residents can enjoy the foliage, vegetables and working with it all. Family members are welcome to join. Work bees must be small groups as per Protocols with Covid plan. We are focusing on supporting local businesses and groups to help with this project. Masks must be worn and social distancing will be followed.

The work that needs to be done:

Help set up barrels with dirt mixture, peat moss and soil to put into their greenhouse. Fill garden planters which are barrels, so they can have gardens to plant vegetables and flowers. This is where a bobcat could be of assistance. There are 4 garden boxes where the dirt is old and needs to be dug out, replaced with a new mixture of soil so plants will be available to be put in these garden boxes. Help with any pruning as needed. We will be replacing some bushes to improve some gardens with new foliage and dirt buildup and some landscaping. Hanging baskets when weather turns for the better.

So, we are reaching out to groups & businesses who can be of assistance to us. Can you share your talent with this project? We are looking for approx. 4 hrs of time for a bobcat to move dirt to the planters and move some barrels around. This is volunteer time. If you can spare 2 or 3 hours here or there, please contact Deb Mellafont at 780-848-2923 or Allan Gruninger at 780-848-7756 to set up a work bee to complete this project. Acknowledgement will be recognized for all who participate.

To date we owe a lot of thanks to:

Whitecap Resources Inc. for donation of barrels for our garden planters and a donation of funds for the residents to purchase plants and vegetables for this new venture. Ruhr Valley Lumber Ltd. in Thorsby for lumber supplies for garden planters and equipment for working on their project. Thorsby Home Hardware for tools for gardening. Shaun Meier Trucking for hauling in some black soil for us. Our Legion Member, Allan Gruninger for building the garden planters. Daisy Mae Greenhouse for donation of small planters to start it all off. My Own Greenhouse for the purchase of a greenhouse for The Cloverleaf Manor. The Warburg Bugle and The Leduc Representative for our articles.

Happenings with this project:

Mr. Gerald Soroka, our MP Yellowhead will be visiting the Project site on May 17th at 3:00 PM to check on us as he is very much involved with us receiving this grant.

Preacher's Point

from Pastor Jeff Gooderham

In late September 1864 Confederate General Nathan Bedford Forrest was leading his troops north from Decatur, Alabama, toward Nashville. But to make it to Nashville, Forrest would have to defeat the Union army at Athens, Alabama. When the Union commander, Colonel Wallace Campbell, refused to surrender, Forrest asked for a personal meeting, and took Campbell on an inspection of his troops. But each time they left a detachment, the Confederate soldiers simply packed up and moved to another position, artillery and all. Forrest and Campbell would then arrive at the new encampment and continue to tally up the impressive number of Confederate soldiers and weaponry. By the time they returned to the fort, Campbell was convinced he couldn't win and surrendered unconditionally!

In the book of Jeremiah chapter 9 verse 6 we are reminded; "You live in the midst of deception, in their deceit they refuse to acknowledge Me. Declares the Lord." Jesus calls believers to watch and pray and says do not be deceived!

Musings from the East End Scriptorium

by Elizabeth Emond
eemond.phd@gmail.com

It's spring, and time for some light reading. When I was young (around the time of the American Civil War), I used to enjoy science fiction, but now that I'm actually living in the 21st century, I find that The Future is both more wonderful and more mundane than anyone imagined. Even the Jetsons didn't have the Internet. (On the other hand, they didn't have spam.) I'll admit that I'm kind of relieved that we don't all have to wear tight shimmery silver jumpsuits and boots, but on the whole, I feel disenchanted.

I also spent many years enjoying fantasy fiction, and even wrote my share for a role-playing game one summer. However, it became harder and harder to wrap my mind around worlds where you can make a dent in the Forces of Evil by, say, throwing a ring in a volcano. Eventually, I abandoned the genre.

Then my nephew Sam recommended the Discworld books by Terry Pratchett. If you were sorting books, you'd have to put them in the Fantasy and Science Fiction box, but they're delightfully different and irresistibly funny. There are over three dozen books in the series, but you don't have to read them in order. If you want to, though, start with The Colour of Magic. The first one I read was Going Postal, and I was hooked. You're certain to find some Discworld books at your local library, so give them a try.

Enjoy!

THINGS HAPPY PEOPLE do differently

by Marc

#1

Express gratitude

- ❖ When you appreciate what you have, what you have appreciates in value
- ❖ If we aren't thankful for what we already have, we will have a hard time ever being happy.

Cultivate optimism

- ❖ People who think optimistically see the world as a place packed with endless opportunities, especially in trying times.

#3

Avoid over-thinking and social comparison

- ❖ Comparing yourself to someone else can be poisonous
- ❖ The only person you should compare to is yourself before now.

#4

Practice acts of kindness

- ❖ Selflessly helping someone is a super powerful way to feel good inside.

#5

Nurture social relationships

- ❖ The happiest people on the planet are the ones who have deep, meaningful relationships

#6

Develop strategies for coping

- ❖ It helps to have healthy strategies for coping pre-rehearsed, on-call, and in your arsenal at your disposal

#7

Learn to forgive

- ❖ Harboring feelings of hatred is horrible for your well-being.

#8

Increase flow experiences

- ❖ Flow is a state in which it feels like time stands still.
- ❖ It's when you're so focused on what you're doing that you become one with the task.
- ❖ Nothing is distracting you or competing for your focus.

#9

Savor life's joys

- ❖ Deep happiness cannot exist without slowing down to enjoy the joy.

#10

Commit to your goals

- ❖ Magical things start happening when we commit ourselves to doing whatever it takes to get somewhere.

#11

Practice spirituality

- ❖ When we practice spirituality or religion, we recognize that life is bigger than us.
- ❖ We surrender the silly idea that we are the mightiest thing ever.

#12

Take care of your body

- ❖ Taking care of your body is crucial to being the happiest person you can be.
