

THORSBY TARGET

Leduc County May Long Weekend Traffic Statistics

Over the Victoria Day long weekend, Leduc County peace officers issued 30 charges and 11 warnings for speeding and intersection safety violations.

This is up from the 23 charges and 10 warnings issued over the May long weekend in 2020, and the 21 charges and 16 warnings issued over the same weekend in 2019.

Peace officers travelled a total of 3,400 kilometres over the four-day period from May 21 to 24.

Speeding continues to account for the majority of charges – 28 of the 30 – issued over the weekend. There were a number of excessive speeders charged who put others at risk on area roadways, including the following:

- a motorist on Range Road 221 near Township Road 501 was charged for travelling 43 kilometres per hour over the speed limit
- a motorist on Glen Park Road near Range Road 260 was charged for travelling 40 kilometres per hour over the speed limit
- a motorist on Range Road 263 south of Township Road 494 was charged for speeding 39 kilometres per hour over the speed limit

Peace officers also charged a commercial driver holding a class 1 licence after the motorist attempted to drive through a roadblock at the scene of a collision in Nisku on Friday.

Enforcement Services assisted with a regional boating safety event at the Devon boat launch near Highway 60 and conducted proactive patrols on quads in the Conjuring Creek area.

We thank area motorists for following the rules of the road over the long weekend, and we thank our experienced and dedicated officers for their service to Leduc County citizens.

Clifford Sather

March 7, 1945 - May 21, 2021

Clifford was born March 7, 1945 in Warburg, AB to Lars and Mary Sather. He grew up in a house located east across from the school. His mom and dad owned land across from the school to the east where the bush is today and south to just the other side of Hylands and north up to the end of the school. Eventually they sold most of the land and kept enough for the house. Clifford attended Warburg School. After school, he would go to the pool hall to get his hair cut where he met Joe Koblos who had a honeybee farm just south of Warburg and would cut hair in his spare time. Joe would always give him a chocolate bar and took him under his wing and would always call Clifford his son. When Clifford was 14 years old, he would go to Joe's place after school and holidays and would help him with the bees. In 1959, Clifford went with Joe to California in April to pick up honeybee packages. Joe would even let him drive — Clifford was only 15 years old at the time. Joe had a 1959 Chev 3 ton truck/van at the time. In 1960 Clifford quit school and started working for Joe full time. In 1962, Clifford shipped his first barrel of honey to Alta Honey Co-op as a member. He was only 17 years old. Clifford and Joe kept making trips to California in April to pick up honeybees. They would make 3-4 trips every April. As Joe got older and couldn't make the trips, Clifford would take another person with him and finally had to quit these trips in 1986 when the US border was closed due to mites in honeybees. Joe and Clifford became partners in 1968. Clifford took the business over in 1985 as Joe could not do it anymore.

Clifford married Dianna Dool from Thorsby on October 2, 1971. They had 3 children: Sherry, Sheldon and Shawn. Joe and Clifford went half and half and built a house in July, 1971. Joe lived downstairs with his own kitchen, living room, bedroom and bathroom. Clifford and Dianna lived upstairs. We lived together as a family. Joe had a stroke and in September of 1986, Joe moved to Cloverleaf Manor until he passed away on January 25, 1987 at the age of 85 years. In the late 80's, Clifford started collecting scrap iron from farmers and breaking it down into different metals. He would also haul vehicles in too. He did this as a hobby for something to do in the fall and winter months after the bee season was done. Clifford and Dianna kept on with the bee business until May, 2010. They quit because there was a lack of help and it was too much work for them to keep on. They sold the bee equipment and business. After the bee business was gone, Clifford kept on doing his scrap iron as a hobby. He also did snow removal, rototilling and hauling dirt for people. Clifford worked hard all his life, but he took pride in keeping the yard and place very tidy. He landscaped his own yard. He enjoyed sitting on the patio and admiring his yard.

Clifford passed away suddenly on May 21, 2021 at the age of 76 years. He leaves to mourn his wife, Dianna, of 49 years; daughter Sherry (Mike) Grizell and sons Sheldon and Shawn; grandson Clayton (Katelynn) and granddaughter Leilay (Ryan); great-granddaughters Zahara, Raiza and Izaleah; sister Bea Wayne; brother Johnny Sather; brother-in-law Cyril Dool; sisters-in-law Shirly Dool and Diana Dool; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to charity of your choice.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I, William Clough, of Warburg, AB, have received the documents of the census questionnaire.

I will, at no time, fill this document out until Justin Trudeau and the Ethics Commissionaire are both taken into custody, and jailed for concluding that Trudeau was not guilty of corruption regarding the WE Charity.

His family, including his mother, were paid large sums of money to speak when the funds belonged to the charity and not the Trudeau family. They have nothing to say which would interest anybody and the paid funds do not belong to the Trudeau's.

For this reason I refuse to answer the census questionnaire.

William G. Clough

MLA REPORT

from The Office of MLA Mark Smith,
Member of the Legislative Assembly
for Drayton Valley - Devon

As COVID-19 case rates decrease and more Albertans get vaccinated, our province is starting to see signs of getting back to normal. To support our entry into a post-COVID world, Alberta's government recently launched the Jobs Now program. Jobs Now is the largest jobs-training initiative in the history of our province – a $370 million program that will get 22,000 Albertans back to work.

The Jobs Now program will help employers offset the costs of creating jobs and training new employees while giving unemployed or underemployed Albertans the opportunity to find a job or receive training that improves their skills. Our United Conservative government is launching this critical job-creation program in part with $185 million in funding through federal transfers from the Workforce Development Agreement.

As part of the Jobs Now program, employers can apply for a grant equal to 25 per cent of a new hire's salary up to $25,000 per employee. Employers hiring a person with disabilities can apply for a grant equal to 37.5 per cent of the new hire's salary up to $37,500 per employee. The program is open to all businesses in the private and not-for-profit sectors regardless of size and can be used to pay wages or to teach new and valuable skills.

Ken Kobly, president and CEO of the Alberta Chambers of Commerce, recently said the Jobs Now program reflects what business owners have been asking for, adding the availability of industry-specific skills is a top barrier for employers trying to recruit talent. If the Jobs Now program is as successful as we're anticipating it will be, then our government will consider extending the program into the new fiscal year.

All of our United Conservative MLAs are concerned about the impact the COVID-19 pandemic has had on local jobs, businesses and economies, and we are laser-focused on ensuring Alberta not only comes out of this pandemic strong, but is once again a national leader in jobs and economic growth. The Jobs Now program will go a long way to ensuring our province is successful in that effort.

The Jobs Now program is part of our government's Economic Recovery Plan. For more information on Alberta's Jobs Now Program or for information on how to apply, please visit www.alberta.ca/jobsnow.

I can be reached at the main constituency office in Drayton Valley at 1-800-542-7307 toll-free Monday to Friday, the Devon constituency office at 780-987-3666 Wednesdays and Thursdays or emailed at draytonvalley.devon@assembly.ab.ca anytime.
