Our Markets

Greetings from Breton Elks Lodge #402

Well, hello everybody. Hope all is well and have survived our first major snow storm. That event definitely signaled the arrival of winter. We certainly did not have time for a long good-bye to fall. However it is time to move forward and finish shoveling the sidewalks and snow plowing the driveways.

Along with these tasks it is now time to get on with plans for the coming season. A crew of young men from our community have been hard at work preparing the skating rink. A layer of ice has been established, but we now need to make friends with Mr. & Mrs. Winter. That is the only couple that can insure a fun skate season.

It is also time to start preparing for the festive season. So November 27th will be the official kick off to Christmas. Many activities are being planned and with the future forecast Mr. & Mrs. Winter appear to be smiling for that day.

Moving further into the season the Elk members will be hosting a community supper on December 17th. The Community Centre will open the doors at 4:00pm for a meet and greet session with the big guy from the north. Then at 5:00pm the door to the main attraction will open so everyone can find their favorite chair and at 5:30pm it will be dinner time. At this time the special caring of all involved will treat everyone to a feast of turkey and ham prepared by our world famous chefs.

Moving on into the new year, plans are also in progress for a very prestigious event on May 13th. One of our very own will receive the honor of becoming Grand Exalted Ruler for the Elks of Canada. There will be a ceremonial installation with our own patrol team assisting under the leadership of Dennis Johnson. A number of dignitaries from Elks will be in attendance and of course a banquet will round out the evening.

Although May 13 is going to represent a very important occasion, there will be a variety of activities to fill in the remainder of the year.

The Elks Lodge would like to extend an offer to anyone who would like to experience the feeling of outdoor action while contributing to the growth of citizenship in our young people. Simply put, we need help to clean the ice. Along with this opportunity are free lessons on operating our equipment.

In conclusion to this session it is now time to press forward in preparation for the coming season

So here is wishing everyone Good Health and Good Wealth. Will chat soon

Christmas Wishes 2022

from Breton Christmas Wishes Volunteers

Once again Christmas is just around the corner. The Breton Christmas Wishes Society volunteers are gearing up to help needy families in our community.

Everything with Breton Christmas Wishes continues to remain the same. We have bins at the local stores for donations of non-perishable food items or new unwrapped gifts. We also have donation cans in local businesses. Anyone wishing a receipt for their donation please include your name and address and a note with your donation.

Our society covers Breton and area and the Brazeau County area east of the North Saskatchewan River, excluding those areas covered by other groups. We help families who are financially in need at this time and/or those who have children under the age of 16 who are living at home. Consideration is also given to families who are without children living at home and are on a fixed income and are finding it hard to make ends meet. Our goal is to help those who may not have the means to provide a Christmas meal and provide gifts for their children.

Referrals can be made by schools, churches, social agencies, friends, neighbors, or self referral. If you know of someone who may be in need or needs some extra help at this time of year consider making that referral. Referrals can be made to: Diane Wilson – 780-514-4273. Referral deadline is December 9th, 2022.

If you have an extra hour or two we are also looking for a few extra people to help wrap gifts this year. If you are interested please text or give the above number a call for more information.

IMPROVING ALBERTANS' ACCESS TO DOCTORS

To help increase patient access to physicians, there will no longer be a daily cap on the number of visits a physician can fully bill.

During the negotiations with the Alberta Medical Association (AMA), Alberta's government heard that Alberta's doctors could safely see more patients than the current cap allowed.

Albertans want to know that they can see a doctor when they need one, and physicians want to be able to provide Albertans with the health-care services they need. By changing the daily cap policy, some of the immediate pressures for services provided by general practitioners and specialists, including pediatricians and ophthalmologists, will be addressed. By lifting the cap, physicians will be fully compensated for every visit rather than receiving a discounted rate if they provide more than 50 visit services in one day, which is the current practice.

"We're moving forward to implement the new agreement, starting with ending the daily visit services cap policy and working to put rate increases in place. We've heard from some physicians that the daily visit cap was having a negative impact on patient access, so this change addresses those concerns. It is also part of the new agreement with the AMA where we are listening to physicians and working with them as partners moving forward." Jason Copping, Minister of Health

"The AMA agreement allows physicians and government to work together on challenges facing patients and physicians in the health-care system. This early step to remove the services cap is an important example that will allow more physicians to care for more patients while helping to stabilize physician practices." Dr. Fredrykka Rinaldi, president, Alberta Medical Association

Lump sum payment

The agreement between the AMA and the province also includes a one per cent rate increase in each of the next three years and a one per cent recognition lump sum payment in 2022-23.

Alberta physicians were at the forefront of the pandemic and the one-time payment for eligible practising physicians is in recognition of that work during the 2021-22 fiscal year. This lump sum payment is approximately $45 million and will go to the AMA to distribute to their members by the end of 2022.

In addition to the lump sum payment, the government is working with the AMA to implement the one per cent rate increase for 2022-23. The increase applies to fee-for-service and alternative relationship plan rates, providing an additional $46 million to physicians.

As outlined in the AMA agreement, the rate increase is heavily weighted to specialties facing the greatest pressures, such as family medicine. Alberta's government and the AMA are working together to distribute these increases across and within specialties. Increases will be effective April 1, 2022, and are expected to be finalized by March 31, 2023.

Quick facts

- The daily visit services cap policy was introduced as part of the Physician Funding Framework in 2020.
- The intent of the policy was to support quality patient care by reducing physician burnout while addressing fiscal constraint for the province.
- It applies to all physician services that are defined in the Schedule of Medical Benefits (SOMB) as "visits" with a "V" category code that physicians provide to patients in person, including physician office visits, consultations and counselling services. Procedures and tests that physicians provide are not billed as visits.
- Under the current policy, physicians are compensated 100 per cent for up to 50 visit services billings in a day, 50 per cent for between 51 and 65 visit services, and there is no compensation for visit services billings greater than 66.
- Physicians working in rural and remote areas, hospital visits and virtual care are exempt from the current policy.
- The policy change (to lift the cap) aligns Alberta with most other jurisdictions.
- Alberta Health is working on updating the SOMB and billing system to operationalize this change. A Medical Bulletin and a new SOMB will be posted when information technology changes are complete.
- The daily visit services cap policy change will be reviewed and its impacts assessed before determining the future policy beyond the current fiscal year.

Soul Care

I honestly feel like it was only a few days ago that I wrote an Advent reflection for the Booster. Yet here we sit...a year later and what a year it has been. Each one of us can think back on this year and reflect on some amazing moments and yet again, some challenging ones. We realize soon enough that this is just the rhythm of life as we take in the good and work through the hard.

It is difficult for me to grasp that five months ago I was in Poland participating in something that was bigger than I had planned or imagined. As I walked alongside the many refugees that had come off the buses, most if not all had this sense of anticipation in waiting for something...anything to happen that would be better than what is happening. One woman comes to mind as she asked me “how long do I have to wait for this to end? What good thing can I wait for?” I cannot imagine the emotions she was experiencing, and truth be told, I had no answers. All I could offer was the Hope that Jesus can bring. I share with her that I don't know when that something you are waiting for will come but I do know that someone amazing has already come in the form of a baby. This baby Jesus will bring you the only Hope and Peace that can calm our heart and soul, everything else in life is unpredictable.

Advent is the season in which we prepare to celebrate the first coming of Jesus and where we also begin to anticipate and eagerly await for His second coming to establish His Kingdom.

Each of us carry a different story of what we hope for, what is yours?

A restored relationship, a peaceful household, healing, a new future, a new career opportunity, a new move, a family, a loving relationship, restored finances... What are you waiting for? I don't know the journey you have been on this past year, and I certainly do not know what you are waiting for. None the less no matter what you are hoping and anticipating for, I invite you to prepare your heart that something amazing is coming.

Because something or rather someone amazing is coming.

We are reminded today that something amazing has happened, a prophecy has been fulfilled – The Messiah has come born in a manger and with Him he brings His HOPE– LOVE - JOY and PEACE. That is amazing indeed.

I may not have all the answers, but what I do offer is the truth, that the Hope we are waiting for is found in knowing who Jesus is. Seek Him with all your heart as you prepare for the Advent season.

Peace my friends,
Pastor Natasha Westerhoud

MLA REPORT

from The Office of MLA Mark Smith,
Member of the Legislative Assembly
for Drayton Valley - Devon

Premier Danielle Smith has wasted no time getting to work on reforming Alberta's healthcare system.

This past week, Premier Smith joined Health Minister Jason Copping to announce that Dr. John Cowell has replaced AHS' part-time board of directors as its full-time administrator on a six-month contract. Dr. Cowell has extensive knowledge of and experience in Alberta's healthcare system and will bring strong, decisive leadership to his new role.

Dr. Cowell will work directly with Mauro Chies, the interim AHS CEO, to address four important goals: improve EMS response times, decrease emergency room wait times, reduce wait times for surgeries, and develop long-term reforms through consultations with front-line workers, including discovering ways to restore decision-making to local healthcare professionals and authorities.

We know Alberta has the best frontline healthcare staff in the entire world, but despite the excellent work of our doctors, nurses, paramedics and other frontline staff, our patients are waiting too long to access the care they deserve. As Premier Danielle Smith said, "we need more-urgent action to improve access. Albertans want accountability within AHS, and they want to know that a world-class health system and level of care is available when they need it."

Help is now here. We all wish Dr. Cowell success as he begins working to improve emergency response times and reduce wait times for patients and their families. Albertans care deeply about their healthcare system. They want and need it to work right, so it's there to support them and their loved ones, should they need it. Dr. Cowell will deliver the change we need.

Ultimately, Albertans will know whether these changes are working to improve the system, because we will measure the outcomes through transparent performance measures. Although there are many unknowns in healthcare, Dr. Cowell has said he is confident that there will be measurable improvement by next year in how the healthcare system is operating.

68,400 Albertans are currently waiting for surgeries that will improve their health and quality of life. That number is down from the 81,000 Albertans who were waiting at the height of the pandemic, but it is still too high. Getting surgical wait times down is a key area of focus for Dr. Cowell, and an area I and so many others look forward to seeing improvement.

We must be honest about the state of our healthcare system if we're going to fix it. Right now, the system is struggling to keep up with growing demand. The driving force behind these changes is building a system that is not only strong but resilient to changing circumstances and growth pressures.

Like you, I cherish the work of our frontline healthcare workers and I care deeply about the system they operate in. That is why I am pleased to see our government acting to resolve these longstanding issues in our healthcare system.

We will not kick the can down the road. We will act now to ensure Albertans have the world-class system they deserve for generations to come.

I can be reached at the main constituency office in Drayton Valley at 1-800-542-7307 toll-free. The office is open Monday to Friday. The Devon constituency office is open every Wednesday and the phones are manned Tuesday to Friday at 780-987-3666 or I can be emailed at draytonvalley.devon@assembly.ab.ca anytime
