

THE BRETON BOOSTER

BRETON MUSEUM CELEBRATES BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Submitted by Allan Goddard

Join the Breton Museum on February 25, 2024 as we celebrate Black History Month. This year's guest performer is Thomas "The Voice" Alexander, an Edmonton based singer, which I had the pleasure of meeting this past summer. Thomas was one of the individuals on the tour set up by Calgary writer and historian Cheryl Foggo, when the group toured the Breton Museum and area, learning about the community of Keystone and the rich black history of this community. It was at this time that I learned of Thomas' connection to the families who settled Keystone in 1911. Thomas' grandfather Clifton was one of the individuals who came to Keystone. Clifton, along with his brothers homesteaded land northwest of present-day Breton.

Thomas "The Voice" Alexander, grandson of Clifton Alexander

Thomas has had a long and varied career in the music business. Starting out in the late 1960's, Thomas has played with numerous bands over the years, including "The Key", "Gaetz Avenue Dance Band" and "Force Major". In more recent times, Thomas continues to perform his music in Edmonton and area. Thomas sang at the memorial of the late Lieutenant Governor Lois Hole at the request of the Hole family. For the Alberta Centennial he sang "Alberta Strong and Free" at the centennial celebrations. Thomas was also one of the performers to sing on the DVD "Wild Rose Country", which was about the diverse culture in Alberta, where he sang "Blue Alberta Blue".

Clifton Alexander

Join the Breton Museum as we partner with the Breton Faith Covenant Church and Breton Food Bank to celebrate Black History Month. The performance will take place at the Faith Covenant Church on February 25, 2024 at 1:30. Admission to the performance is by donation. As in past years, we are also doing a food drive for the Breton Food Bank. Mark your calendar for February 25, I am sure you won't be disappointed.

HIGHWAY 39 FULLY OPEN

*from the Village of Breton Facebook page - spill update #14
Feb 5, 2024*

Thanks to the amazing clean up crews Highway 39 is now fully open!!! Such an incredible job!!! Thank you to Torq and all their contractors for their 24/7 response to the spill. Now on to cleaning up 20! There aren't any projected opening times for 20 just yet but we will update as we hear.

The car wash station demand is slowing down considerably. There are appointments available for 2 days this week (Tuesday and Wednesday) then depending on demand it will be evaluated whether to offer another day this weekend. Please text 587-842-1271 for an appointment as soon as possible.

Hang in there everyone. We are halfway there.

Welcome to February. This year we have an extra month to show some kindness. If you would like to make a Valentine's Day card, we have left some at the Breton Library for you to color. It would be great to see these made and distributed to those in our community that could use a lil love! Maybe a elderly neighbor, someone at the Long Term care or someone that is alone. Here are a few suggestions to do throughout the month.

Kindness Ideas for Adults

There are a lot of simple and inexpensive or free things people can do to make a difference to someone. We hope you are inspired by some of the kindness ideas below.

- help the elderly with their shopping
- leave a chocolate for the cashier
- bake a cake for someone
- pay for someone's meal
- give a compliment
- listen to and play with children
- clean someone's home
- clean someone's car
- buy coffee for the person behind you
- visit someone in a nursing home
- take food or clothing to the homeless
- collect hotel toiletries for a care basket
- help at the Family Day Breakfast
- give someone a warm hug
- leave your coin in the cart for the next person when you return it
- leave a note in a lunch box
- become an organ donor
- write a love note to your partner
- ask an elderly neighbor if they need help
- let someone checkout ahead of you
- babysit for someone
- listen to someone
- acknowledge people who deserve to be
- when shopping, pick up things that have fallen off shelves or hangers
- hand make cheer up cards and deliver them to a hospital for patients
- give a mom / dad a break for some 'me' time

Changes to Alberta Government Payments

Albertans who rely on the Assured Income for the Severely Handicapped (AISH) and Income Support programs will get their payments four business days before the first of the month. Here are the next few payment dates:

Brazeau County

Brazeau County is committed to improving its emergency response to better protect people and property in the event of disasters.

The County is developing a list of local resources and equipment to be called upon in the case of an emergency. The County is also looking for individuals with heavy equipment or water hauling experience interested in taking emergency management training.

Two streams of training will be offered:

Dozer boss training for the construction of fireguards, and safe operations during a wildland fire, including Incident Command System (ICS) training

Water hauler training, including ICS structure training, staging, and safe operations during a wildland fire.

These training courses will enable local resources and personnel to effectively and safely contribute to future emergency response efforts in our community.

Course dates are expected to start in February, and are being finalized. They will be announced on the Brazeau County website and Facebook page.

Please e-mail firetraining@brazeau.ab.ca to provide lists of available equipment and personnel interested in the training courses. If you have questions, please call Public Works at 780-542-7777.

If you wish to be a firefighter, please contact Drayton Valley/Brazeau County Fire Services at 780-514-2216.

JAKE VAADERLAND & THE STURGEON RIVER BOYS

Friday, January 26, 2024
EPAC

REVIEW by Russ Hickman

The Sturgeon River Boys were already on the Pembina Stage and were playing the first bars of "My Father's Son". Stephen Williams' bouncy bass line was overlaid with a low guitar riff flavoured with a country twang. Jaxon Lalonde's banjo caught up and filled the gap as the lead guitarist, Joel Rohs, spoke into his old time microphone, "Ladies and Gentleman, Mr. Jake Vaadeland." Jake emerged, smiling and eager, from behind the curtain. In that moment, January 26, 2024, the EPAC audience were transported into another dimension of sound, of sight, another dimension of time. We had just crossed over into the Vaaderland Zone; Nashville's Grand Old Opry of the 1940's.

As Jake Vaaderland, (sounds like Vauldland) was played onto the frontman spot and began to sing, the audience was fully on board for a whirlwind ride on his well oiled, high performance way-back machine. Throughout the 26 song set list the lyrics were often personal and revelatory. Song titles foretold the intimate nature of Vaadeland's lyrics: "Farewell Blues" "Be a Farmer or a Preacher" "Everybody but Me" "Bachelor's Life" "Retro Man" and especially "My Father's Son", "Now everywhere I go, They treat me like a horse untamed, For no other reason that, I carry on my father's name. They say I am a sinner, But I know that I am a winner. But don't give me any rules, Because I'm as stubborn as a mule, And I won't let you under my skin. Still I got news for you. I'm my father's son, And I'm like him, too."

Other Vaadeland songs were humorous and sentimental. Most sprang from hard experience or quiet reflection like "Not Going back to Nashville", his latest single, or "One More Dollar to Go" and "Cow on the Road". Judging from the applause for the latter, it was a song most in the audience certainly could relate to! Some tunes featured virtuoso instrumental duels between Jake vs Jaxon on banjos, or Jake's banjo vs Joel's lead guitar in "Farewell Blues". "Pike County Breakdown" and "Foggy Mountain Special" were played so fast, yet so tightly you felt it was it might be a race with serious bragging rights for the player that didn't trip up. This was some serious pickin' an grinnin', that earned, hooting and hollering, whistles and wows from the audience! The upright bass player Stephen Williams's behind the scene's flashy percussive strumming, frequent high carry fly-bys, and tornado inducing bass fiddle twirls grabbed attention from the amused front line players. The audience approved his antics with raucous applause.

The musicianship of Vaaderland, AKA: Retro Man, a nickname he appropriated from his school bullies, and the Sturgeon River Boys was exemplary. The acoustics and professional sound of the theatre lifted old school rockabilly, bluegrass and classic country music off our dusty, scratchy records and into a crowd pleasing, high energy mix of fun, fantastic and unforgettable live music. Vintage wear and gear, old-time banter, very down-home jokes and two spoken word advertisements topped-off with musical jingles, made a standing ovation easy to give. Their explosively welcomed encore piece, "Blue Suede Shoes", ended our evening's trip back in time with smiles and a happy buzz all around. I left wanting a return visit to the Vaadeland Zone next season!

JANUARY HIGHLIGHTS

January 18, 2024 – Warburg, AB

Thorsby/Breton RCMP with the assistance of Central Alberta District Crime Reduction Unit attempted to apprehend a male on outstanding warrants. Police attempted a traffic stop on a vehicle, and the truck failed to stop. The truck was later located at a residence in the area, and confirmed to be stolen. Logan DAVIS (28), a resident of Warburg, Alta, and Pauline HAMPEL, a resident of Warburg, Alta, were arrested on scene.

DAVIS was charged with the following:

- Possession of property obtained by crime over $5,000
- Operate a motor vehicle while prohibited

DAVIS was held for a bail hearing and transported to Edmonton Remand Centre.

HAMPEL was charged with the following:

- Possession of property obtained by crime over $5,000

HAMPEL was released on scene, and scheduled to appear at Breton Provincial Court on February 14, 2024.

January 25, 2024 – Area of Brazeau County, AB

Thorsby/Breton RCMP attended a call for service involving multiple vehicles in the ditch along Highway 39 where a slippery substance was reported to have covered the road. Police intercepted a tanker truck southbound on Highway 20 that was deemed to be responsible, as it was determined the tanker cap was not properly secured causing the entire tank to spill onto the highway. The tanker was carrying VGO oil that is non-toxic, but extremely slippery. Highway 39 was closed, but has since been reopened. As of this writing, Highway 20 is still closed between Highway 39 and Winfield, Alta. Cleanup is ongoing, and crews are working to get the road reopened as soon as possible.

UCP GOVERNMENT'S BIG WIN IN CUTTING RED TAPE

For the past several years, our United Conservative government has been steadfastly committed to cutting red tape – recognizing the negative impact it has on Alberta families and businesses.

Under the NDP, Alberta was one of the worst jurisdictions in Canada for red tape, getting a failing grade on the Canadian Federation of Business' (CFIB) Red Tape Report Card. In 2019, we promised to do better and cut red tape by one-third. Today, we are celebrating that achievement, as well as getting a grade of 'A' on the CFIB's Red Tape Report Card for the fourth year in a row.

The significance of the work we've done on the red tape reduction file cannot be overstated, as it not only reflects our government's responsiveness to the needs of businesses but also translates to tangible benefits for Alberta families. By simplifying procedures, eliminating redundancies, and embracing modernization, we've managed to save Albertans a staggering $2.75 billion since 2019. With over 200,000 pieces of red tape slashed, we're not only cutting through the thicket of red tape, but we're also laying the foundation for a stronger and more prosperous Alberta.

Through this work, Alberta is also addressing affordability concerns that are top-of-mind for Albertans right now. Every piece of red tape that is eliminated represents more money in Albertans' pockets and more time in Albertans' lives. As Minister of Service Alberta and Red Tape Reduction Dale Nally stated, "Our attitude about red tape is simple: when we find it, we cut it. We're proud that we've hit our one-third milestone, but we're not done yet."

The significance of Alberta's leadership in red tape reduction is not lost on the CFIB, whose director of interprovincial affairs, Keyli Loeppky, stated, "The Alberta government consistently demonstrates that with strong political leadership, progress can be made to reduce red tape for small businesses and Albertans. While the government has made significant progress, we further challenge them to make red tape reduction part of the solution in other areas like health care and housing."

Reducing red tape has played a pivotal role in fueling Alberta's economic prosperity. Over the past five years, our government has been steadfast in our commitment to lightening the regulatory load for Albertans. This has resulted in tangible benefits such as job creation, skill enhancement, and innovation and investment. This proactive approach has set Alberta apart from other provinces, with a dedicated focus on collaborating with job creators to identify and eliminate unnecessary bureaucratic hurdles.

The journey towards a leaner, more efficient government is an ongoing endeavor. We encourage any Albertan who has an idea for red tape reduction to submit to us at Alberta.ca/cut-red-tape. Our province has proven that by working together, we can build an Alberta that is better for everyone.

As a reminder the Colors of Drayton Valley-Devon Youth Art Contest is still open. For more information on this contest please check my social media or contact my office directly.

You can submit your entries to draytonvalley.devon@assembly.ab.ca by February 22nd. (Deadline extended)

Submit your artwork today and let the Colors of Drayton Valley Devon shine through your creativity!

Don't be pushed around by the fears in your mind. Be led by the dreams in your heart. Believe in yourself. You are braver than you think, more talented than you know, and capable of more than you imagine.— Roy T. Bennett, The Light in the Heart
