

THE BRETON BOOSTER

Lest We Forget The Life of an Unassuming Veteran

Submitted by Allan Goddard

In 2017, the Breton Museum was contacted by the Kenora Museum seeking information on a WW1 veteran, for an exhibit on veterans from the Kenora area, named Edwin George Millward. They had followed his life to the Breton area, where the information trail had ended for them. The Breton Museum was able to piece together additional information for the Kenora Museum about Edwin George Millward, known around Breton as "Big Ed". As we approach Remembrance Day on November 11th the Breton Museum would like to remember his military service to Canada.

Edwin was born February 1892 to George and Margaret Millward at Rat Portage, later renamed Kenora, Ontario. On May 11, 1915 Edwin enlisted in Portage la Prairie, Manitoba, where he listed his trade as a teamster. Edwin was attached to the 44th Battalion, and embarked from Halifax October 23, 1915 bound for England. After arrival in England, he was transferred to a Reserve Battalion in February 1916, and in April Edwin was "Taken on Strength" to the 27th Battalion, arriving in France a month later. The 27th Battalion had been mobilized in Winnipeg and arrived in France in September 1915. The Battalion would fight in France and Flanders as part of the 6th Infantry Brigade until the end of the war. Shortly after arriving in France Edwin suffered a minor gunshot wound to the scalp, but soon returned to his unit and active service.

In the fall of 1916 Edwin was transferred to the 6th Brigade, a Machine Gun Company, later his company would be absorbed into the 2nd Battalion Canadian Machine Gun Corp. Edwin was promoted to Corporal in May 1918, and in July to the rank of Sergeant. After the Armistice, on November 11, 1918, Edwin remained in France until April 1919 when he proceeded to England, and shortly after embarked for his return to Canada. Edwin was discharged on May 25, in Toronto.

While Edwin returned to Canada safely, two of his half brothers would pay the ultimate sacrifice. Frank Linklater had enlisted in 1914 and during the 2nd Battle of Ypres was first reported as wounded and later reported missing and assumed dead in April 1915. Frank's brother William enlisted after his brother's death and during the Battle of Arras was reported killed in action on April 14, 1917. Both Frank and William are two of the many soldiers from the First World War who have no known grave. Frank is commemorated on the Menin Gate Memorial and William on the Vimy Memorial.

Edwin worked as a labourer, after the war, at a mill in Dryden, Ontario but by the early 1940's had moved to Breton where he was employed by the D.R. Fraser Lumber Co.

There were two brief notes about Big Ed in the community history book: one by Don Gillies that remembered him as a happy go luck lumberjack, and the other by Lloyd Ellis who remembered him as an experienced camp hook man, cared for the camp and horses and served as a fire watchman during the summer months.

Ray Ellis mentioned while he worked for D.R. Fraser in the 1940's, as a contract logger, a large man by the name of "Big Ed" had the job to count the tree stumps each contractor cut to estimate the number of logs each contractor cut, as the contractors were paid by the log.

John Kanda remembered Big Ed as a kind hearted man, who he never knew to swear. John also recalls him as an interesting individual, who when he told you something you could take it as the truth. Big Ed, in his later years, lived in a small shack at Fraser's planer yard and enjoying a glass of beer. Others remember his love of canned sardines.

Another Breton resident remembers that as a small child his mother, a single parent, at times had a difficult time, Big Ed would make sure she had a Christmas hamper along with some small gifts for her children.

Big Ed passed away at the Breton Hospital October 25, 1965, at the age of 73. A small military stone marks his grave site at the Breton Cemetery.

Edwin George Millward was one of thousands of veterans who returned from WW1 to quietly return to their life. Take time to pause and remember these brave individuals who have served Canada, so we can enjoy the freedoms that we as Canadians have.

Preacher's Point

from Pastor Jeff Gooderham

I heard a story once of a man from South Africa whose father was a Baptist minister during the apartheid years. Their family lived in a mining town and the labourers at the mine were from 3 different African tribes, each with their own independent language. At one time there was a lot of unrest amongst the mine labourers. The mine manager, concerned that a riot was going to start went and asked this Baptist minister if he would come and speak to the workers to try and calm them down. The minister agreed to try although he did not know any African languages. So he spoke and a riot was averted. Afterwards, much to his surprise, the minister was praised for having the common sense to speak in the African trade language so that all the workers, no matter what tribe they came from, could understand him. The surprise for him was that he had never learned that language and was totally unaware that that is what he had spoken.

The cost of counselling can be a barrier for many individuals and families. This subsidy is available to those who do not have access to coverage through health benefits or employee benefits, such as an Employee Assistance Plan (EAP), and whose family income is less than $75,000 per year. Fees are determined according to a sliding scale based on income and family size. Fees ranging from $15 per session to $50 per session will be reimbursed upon receipt of attending the appointment. This will be in effect until December 31, 2021 Counselling services are provided through a partnership with Karunia Counselling from Leduc.

We know that in this current environment many may have additional stress and anxiety. We also know that transportation may be an added barrier. These sessions can be arranged to be in person in the Karunia offices in Leduc, over the phone in your own safe environment or virtually on your computer.

To apply for the subsidy services, application forms are available through the Breton FCSS Office at 4916 50th Avenue or by contacting them at fcss@breton.ca or calling 780-696-3636. ALL APPLICATIONS ARE STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL. Please contact the Breton FCSS Office and we can discuss your individual situation.

Government of Alberta

Helping Alberta businesses go digital

The Digital Economy Program will provide small businesses with free support as they grow and manage their businesses through technology.

The Government of Alberta is investing $10 million over two years toward the program, which will help Alberta small businesses increase their digital presence to reach more customers and compete in an increasingly online world.

Business Link and Digital Main Street™ are delivering the Digital Economy Program on behalf of the government. The program consists of two initiatives to support eligible small businesses across Alberta.

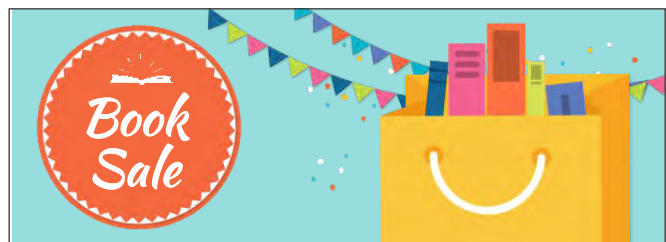

"We want to provide Alberta's small business community with easy-to-use tools and resources to grow. This program will not only support Alberta's small businesses but will also provide employment opportunities for post-secondary students and recent graduates looking to apply their technology skills and gain valuable experience." Doug Schweitzer, Minister of Jobs, Economy and Innovation

"Rural Albertans have often had to choose between living in their hometown and pursuing new opportunities. As the world moves digital and small businesses have the ability to expand online, Albertans will be able to live and work anywhere. With programs like Digital Main Street, genius creations from small-town Alberta can be sold around the world." Nate Horner, Associate Minister of Rural Economic Development

ShopHERE powered by Google program

The ShopHERE powered by Google program allows eligible small businesses to create and operate an online store. Businesses can access help through Digital Main Street to establish an online store and receive training and support to manage it.

Eligible businesses can now apply to the program. To be eligible, businesses must be registered in Alberta and have fewer than 50 employees. More information on the program, including full eligibility details and how to apply, can be found on the Digital Main Street Alberta website.

BLACKBIRD FARM & APOTHECARY

Matthew and Tammy Pawluik moved to Leduc County in 2016 and started Blackbird Farm & Apothecary in the fall of 2018.

Tammy's education and experience as a nurse was the driving force behind our personal care products and the very beginning of this adventure. Wanting to have safe, effective products to use ourselves daily was important and lead to the testing and development of our personal care product line.

Matthew's education in Forestry has always drawn and grounded him in nature. His work experience in the cabinet industry has honed his skills and love of creative design and working with his hands. This creativity is the foundation from which stems the custom woodworking and laser engraving side of what we do.

Together as a team we love to spend our time together working on all sorts of projects. From working in the garden, growing garlic, veggies and holistic plants. To being in the shop making shaving brushes to complement our shaving soaps. The products we make are all things we love to use ourselves and share with our family and friends.

We can often be found at the local markets including Mulhurst Bay Farmers market & Sunnybrook Market. Special pop-up markets such as Thorsby's pop-up market off main and seasonal markets like the Warburg Christmas Bazaar. If you have seen us at a market but have not seen what you're looking for, we are always happy to make custom products. We can do "one off" projects or bulk orders for your event or wedding with a complete line of gifts and giveaways.

We started with the simple idea of bringing the best from us to you. We put lots of love and careful thought into all we do. We hope you enjoy all we have to offer and share the experience with others in our small community.

Thank you so much for everyone's support,

TODAY YOU HAVE A CHOICE. YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN ANGER AND LOVE, DIVISION AND UNITY, FRUSTRATION AND HOPE, SELFISHNESS AND GIVING, TURNING AWAY AND SHOWING UP. CHOOSE KINDNESS AND THE CHOICE IS SIMPLE. IT'S HARD TO REGRET BEING KIND.

- Rachel Marie Martin -

Soul Care

My girl: Mom, why did you pay for the person behind us?

Me: Because it is the kind thing to do.

My girl: But you do not know them, and what if they do not appreciate it?

Me: No, I do not, and it does not matter, sometimes you just need to do something nice for someone.

My girl: They cannot even say thank you.

Me: That is ok. I hope it makes their day brighter and maybe they will do something kind to someone else.

My girl: Can we do this every time? I can help pay.

Me: Ok. 😊

Eighteen months ago, I decided that the only way I was going to make sense of what was going on around us was to just show kindness and love when I can. It is what Jesus would do. Is it easy? No, of course not. It is exceedingly difficult to be kind when people are rude and hurtful, or when you are hurting. Our human nature wants to defend and hurt back. In counselling, a term we often use is 'hurt people - hurt people.' This may be true, but I think we can change it. What would it look like if we could all just decide we are going to be kind to each other today? What if we decided to listen, show grace and mercy and just be caring? I know that this is the sort of world I want to leave for my children.

God is all about showing kindness and love. He sent His son to die for us. We do not deserve it. We have not earned it. But He loves us, and He did it, so we can have a relationship with Him and spend our eternity with Him. Oh, and do not forget, so we can also live out our lives being kind to one another. Kindness is something our world is desperate for. With growing fears and anxieties, everyone could use just a kind word or gesture today.

In what ways can you be kind this week?

"4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 5 It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres." 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

Who are the true Christians?

Have you ever been intentionally hurt or swindled by a person who claimed to be a Christian? Well, if you have, they were not a Christian at all!!! If they said they are Christian, they lied!! According to Webster's Dictionary a Christian is: "one who professes belief in the teachings of Jesus Christ". Well, if one professes belief in the teachings of Jesus Christ that one will be doing and living what Jesus taught. Jesus Himself said "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven" Matthew 7:21. In verse 24 of the same chapter Jesus said, "Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock". Notice in these two verses Jesus specified "doeth the will of my father" and doing his own sayings. The Word of God also says in James 2:26 "For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also". Works means doing. That means if you believe in Jesus but don't do what he said your faith is dead. In John 8:31 the Bible says, "Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word then are ye my disciples indeed". According to this verse, if a believer continues in His Word, the believer is His disciple, and so the opposite is also true, if the so called believer doesn't continue in his word, the so called believer is not his disciple and therefore does not actually believe. Here is what Jesus said in John 14:21, "He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him". Keeping his commandments means doing them.

So how do we know if a Christian really is a true Christian and not a fake? The obvious answer is, the true Christian will be doing and living the commandments of Jesus. Here are some examples of what Jesus commanded his followers and disciples to do:

- John 13:34-35 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another
- Matthew 22:39 Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.
- Luke 6:27-28 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.
- Matthew 7:12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.
- Mark 12:29-31 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

If a so called Christian has intentionally hurt or swindled you in any way that person was not obeying any of the commandments of Jesus listed above, and therefore are not a true Christian. Period.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Are We Willing To Be Crippled By Fear?

Nineteen months ago, soon to be 2 entire years of our lives, we instilled within us, fear, unshakeable fear, fed to us by multifaceted sources. Are we being deceived? This global fear, none we have ever experienced previously except World Wars. I believe it is akin to a war, a spiritual war. Darkness so prevalent in our society, we don't even see it! We are fed nonstop, continual propaganda accepting it like candy. Each week we would be hopeful that the curve of this so called pandemic would decline. No, it didn't happen, did it! The fear of this pandemic is what is making us sick, because we believe the narrative. "Oh My God, I'm so scared I'm going to die of Covid!" A self fulfilling prophecy, what you focus on perpetuates. We have been filled with propaganda for eons, we just don't recognize or acknowledge it. Yes, we are being deceived! The truth is, people are dying and will continue to die, covid or not. My heart hurts for the families that are dealing with their dying loved ones. The governmental rules and restrictions are appalling, beyond my comprehension. It's so heartbreaking to see my grandchildren wearing masks and having to follow these draconian rules.

Did anyone ever hear of boosting their immune system, eating healthy, having a positive outlook on life, prayer, etc! Most believe that the jab will be the easiest! The choice is yours, you can still get Covid.

I thought we were a democratic nation! Are we willing to give up our rights and freedom? Many have been censored because they know the truth. Be diligent and do research, follow the money!

I follow the road less traveled,

Be Blessed by a Light Warrior,

Wendy Hanson

A wife, being the romantic sort, sent her husband a text: "If you are sleeping, send me your dreams. If you are laughing, send me your smile. If you are eating, send me a bite. If you are drinking send me a sip. If you are crying, send me your tears. I love you!" The husband, typically non-romantic, replied: "I am on the toilet. Please advise."
