

THE BRETON BOOSTER

Federal-provincial Child Care Agreement

The Alberta Government has successfully negotiated an agreement with the federal government that will support the expansion of accessible, affordable and high-quality child care that gives families the choice they need. This made-in-Alberta plan also reduces fees for parents of 0 to kindergarten-aged children by an average of half next year, and provides an average of $10 per day child care by 2026.

Through the agreement, $3.8 billion will be invested in child care for children aged 0 to Kindergarten over the next 5 years:

$2.865 billion to lower child care fees for Alberta parents

$240.64 million to increase the number of child care spaces

$202.6 million to develop and fund child care options to support vulnerable and diverse populations, as well as children with extra needs

$306.16 million to support licensed programs and certified educators in offering high-quality support for families in their communities

What this means for parents.

Parents will see reduced fees starting in early 2022 and for the next 2 years. While additional information will be shared soon, families can expect to pay an average of:

$10 per day if they earn up to $119,999

$11 to $17 per day if they earn between $120,000 and $179,999

$22.19 per day if they earn $180,000 and above

For example, a family earning $120,000 with an infant attending a licensed facility-based centre full-time currently pays on average $1172 per month. By year 2022, this family can expect to pay an average of $284 per month.

Obituary of Carol Louise Wowk (Armstrong)

It is with broken hearts that the family of Carol Wowk announce her passing on Saturday, November 6, 2021, in the Drayton Valley Hospital, at the age of 75 years. Carol was the loving matriarch of the family and leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Steve; four children, Jamie (Tim) Miller, Terry (Lonnie) Stacey, (Adrian) Bieda, and Travis (Linda) Stacey, as well as two stepchildren Mike Wowk and Lisa Jabier Wowk.

Also mourning her loss are her sixteen grandchildren, Chad (Robin) Collier, Ty (Amanda) Collier, Stacey (Jon) Anstey, Matthew (Nelly) Witchen, Zachary Witchen, Ashley (Adrian) Paolinelli, Andrew (Ashley) Bieda, Bethany Bieda, Jakob (Meghan) Bieda, Austin (Alyssa) Stacey, Jordan (Chad) Stacey, Colton Stacey, Tianna Jabier, Drake Jabier, Miranda Wowk and Michaela Wowk.

She will also be missed by eighteen great-grandchildren: Delilah Collier, Alexis Collier, McKenna Collier, Sloane Collier, Lilly Anstey, Lennox Anstey, Nixon Paolinelli, Alessandra Paolinelli, Lucas Paolinelli, Florence Paolinelli, Cohen Bieda, Jace Bieda, Charlotte Bieda, Lincoln Bieda, Aylah Bieda, Rylynn Bieda, Beau Bieda, and Maize Wowk. Carol is survived by her siblings; Connie Young, Marg (Peter) Langlois, Wayne Armstrong, Russel (Sheila) Armstrong. Randy (Brenda) Armstrong, and Gary Armstrong.

Carol was a long-term resident of the community leaving memories for many friends and family to share. She was warm, caring, generous, kind, and a tireless worker at the Breton Care Centre for over 17 years. She loved visiting with friends and family, watching her favorite television shows and spending time with her beloved dog "Opie". But most of all, Carol was a loving and committed mother and grandmother who served as a fabulous role model. Though we are all saddened by her loss, we cherish her life and the many memories we all have been able to share with her.

Greetings from Breton Elks Lodge #402

Good day everyone, and I hope all is well with all.

As many of you know, The Breton Elks received their Charter 65 years ago and have pledged to support the Breton Community and surrounding area since May of 1956. The lodge members work hard to provide recreational opportunities for our young people. They have given financial assistance from time to time as is needed. Part of this activity includes looking after the R.V. Park in summer months and the ice rink for winter. The skating rink requires much time for preparing and cleaning. In order to satisfy this need some equipment is needed, such as hoses to flood with.

In the very recent days, someone has taken the liberty to break into our storage facility and removed our hoses, hose reel plus all paper products. Whoever is responsible isn't only stealing from the Elks but you are stealing from our young people of the community. Is this the message you wish our young people to receive at Christmas.

FCSS NEWS from Deanne Young

Bullying Awareness Week November 15 - 19 is a time to spotlight where Albertans can turn for help. One place people can call is the Bullying Helpline – Phone 1-888 456-2323, where friendly, trained helpline staff can help anyone experiencing bullying explore their options and discuss what actions to take next. Or try Bullying Helpline Chat. Chat online anonymously at alberta.ca/BullyingChat 24/7 | English

What you can do, if you are being bullied, there are 4 ways you can take action:

Tell someone you trust. There are people who can help. You do not have to deal with this alone.

- Talk to someone you trust, such as the Bullying Helpline or a trusted friend, teacher, coach, co-worker or human resource person.
- You may need to contact the police if the bullying is severe and includes threats or physical violence.

Stay safe - Do not fight back – it can make the problem worse.

- Be assertive and stand up for yourself by telling the person to stop.
- Try to remain calm and leave the area.
- Find support in your community
- Contact the Bullying Helpline to find supports.
- Spend time with friends, family or colleagues who support you.

Know your rights. You have the right to feel safe. Schools, workplaces and other organizations have a legal responsibility to protect you from bullying.

- Check the bullying prevention policies and codes of conduct for your school, workplace, sports team and other community organizations.
- Learn about the laws to protect you from bullying.

Stay safe online. Follow these tips to protect yourself from cyberbullying:

- Report bullying and abusive behaviours to the place where it is happening (like Instagram or Facebook) and tell someone you trust.
- Save texts, voicemails, emails and screenshots to prove what happened.

- Do not share your passwords with anyone and change them immediately if you suspect someone knows them.
- Block the people who are bullying you

Halloween Yard Celebration – We have received some fabulous picture of the creative yards that were constructed for Halloween. You can view all of the photos on our Breton FCSS Facebook Page. If you are one of the 10 that submitted photos, please stop by the Village Office for your participation reward. Thank you to all that participated and make our community look “spooky” for the holiday.

Santa's Workshop – Together with the Breton Agriculture Society and Breton ELKS we are hosting a Santa's Workshop on Sunday November 28th. This will be an area that children are able to shop in for their parents, grandparents and siblings. We are also having additional activities including letter writing and story time hosted by the Community Parenting Coalition, a craft area hosted by Brighter Futures, and cookie decorating hosted by McMann Family Resource Network. There will also be wagon rides around the Village, along with the Breton ELKS and Breton Food Bank providing hot dogs, hot chocolate and goodie bags outside of the community center in the parking lot. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Breton FCSS at fcss@breton.ca or 780-696-3636. We will be asking that the current AHS protocol be followed at the event. This will be a wonderful way to Kick Off the Christmas Season.

Secret Santa for Seniors – With Christmas just around the corner Breton FCSS will be coordinating a Secret Santa for Seniors. This program is for seniors that live in the Village of Breton or Brazeau County east of the North Saskatchewan River. There are two parts to this program.

1. Seniors that are going to be alone for the holidays can phone in or stop by the Breton FCSS office and complete a profile. Information collected will be your name, address, phone number, Things you like to do, treats you like, items that you would like to have on your Christmas List. Seniors can also be registered by community members or agencies. This information along with just their first name will be placed on a Christmas Tag. Registrations must be received by December 1.

2. Community members can view the Christmas tags at the Village of Breton Office and select a senior to shop for. Once they have completed their shopping, they will return the items to the FCSS office. Additional items will be added to your gift, wrapped and delivered by Volunteers. Shopping must be completed by December 18th. If you are unable to come into the office to make a selection, please call or email fcss@breton.ca and we can assist you with the selection.

3. Deliveries will be made on December 21 & 22.

If possible, we encourage purchases to be made in Breton and Drayton Valley to support our local businesses. We will be looking for Volunteers to wrap and deliver the gifts on December 21 & 22. These activities will be done according to Covid-19 regulations set out by Alberta Health Services.

Community Wellness Calendar – Thank you to all of the groups, and community members who volunteered to be a part of our Community Wellness Calendar. The calendar is a partnership between Breton and Area FCSS and the Rural Mental Health Project. The calendars are in production and we hope to have them available to the community in mid-December. Please watch for more details on when they are available and where you can pick yours up.

TIPS From TOPS! From P. Elson

Fresh Starts for Fall

Just because there is a nip in the air doesn't mean you should go into hibernation mode! Embrace the season with these fresh ideas.

1 Savor seasonal produce. Autumn is the perfect time to find fun recipes that feature beets, celery root, rutabaga and more.

2 With the change in the season comes a change in the family schedule. Schedule in "mini-workouts" of 10 or 15 minutes of physical activity to keep you on track while you adjust.

3 Clean out those cupboards! You've heard of spring cleaning- here's your six month reminder to restock pantry items that support your healthy eating habits!

4 Get creative at an apple orchard or pumpkin patch. stretching to pick fruit, squatting to grab a gourd, or strolling alongside a hay ride (instead of hopping on), all contribute to better fitness.

5 Take advantage of the time change and power down a little earlier with a good book or a luxurious bubble bath. Or, combine the two!

6 Go for a bike ride. The air is fresh and cool, and the leaves are changing. Because its not as hot, you might find yourself logging more miles than in the summer months.

7 Spice it up! Add a cinnamon stick to some apple cider, cloves to pumpkin bread or nutmeg to baked squash.

8 Re-imagine a fall chore as a great source of exercise. Aside from the benefits of being in the crisp, fresh air, raking leaves works your muscles and burn calories, too!

9 Get a holiday head start. Before you know it, it'll be New Year's, and you'll be pulling those snazzy clothes out of the closet. Set a goal for the next few months to fit into them better!

10 Conquer a corn maze. Make a game out of it, and see who can get to the end faster- or take a nice stroll in and around the maze.

Soul Care

I thought I was going to die. My chest felt heavy and tight with sharp pains piercing through it. Then I started to feel overwhelmed and had difficulty breathing. I could hardly stand as the dizziness and shaking took over my body and I had no idea what was happening. Little did I know that I was experiencing what would be my first anxiety (panic) attack. That was almost 10 years ago. In those 10 years I was admitted into EMERG 4 times thinking I was having a heart attack. My last time was 15 months ago.

Anxiety is real.

We have all experienced anxiety at some level. A new job, moving, having a baby, or going on a date can all cause one to feel anxious and nervous, which in fact is a normal experience. But for some, anxiety can be debilitating. Physical symptoms caused by an anxiety disorder can feel like you are having a heart attack. Anxiety can be caused by many circumstances in your life such as stress from school, work, financial worries, a medical concern, emotional trauma, a difficult personal relationship, or the turmoil from a pandemic. Then we have the emotional symptoms of anxiety which can include the intense feeling of losing control, or like your mind is going crazy or that you feel like every breath you take is your last breath and you feel like you are dying.

We are living in complicated and challenging times. CTV reported the number of individuals experiencing high levels of anxiety quadrupled in the first month that COVID-19 was reported. Depression and anxiety are at an all time high as many struggle through their days. Every one of us can be impacted by anxiety including children.

I am sharing this today to encourage you that you are not alone and do not need to go through these feelings of losing control and feeling hopeless on your own. We have an amazing God who cares for us and knows what we need and when we need it. He does not leave us or forsake us; Hope comes from Him, and He loves us.

What you are feeling is real and there are individuals who are trained in this area who can walk along side you. Reach out to them.

You are not alone. You are loved.

1 Peter 5:7

"Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you."

Preacher's Point

from Pastor Jeff Gooderham

Annie Johnson Flint's life on earth could never be measured in any degree by comfort and ease; quite the contrary, from childhood her body endured the onslaught of Rheumatoid Arthritis until she could no longer rise from bed. Over the years the affliction took an even greater toll, leaving her with no choice but to seek some comfort from sleeping and resting on soft pillows. Her body developed serious bed sores and finally she suffered the ravages of cancer.

Yet her attitude through all the struggles with pain and confinement may best be expressed through one of her great Christian poems that has been set to music in many hymnals. Her faith in God and His purpose, reflected through these words, portray her deep commitment and disposition of hope and peace:

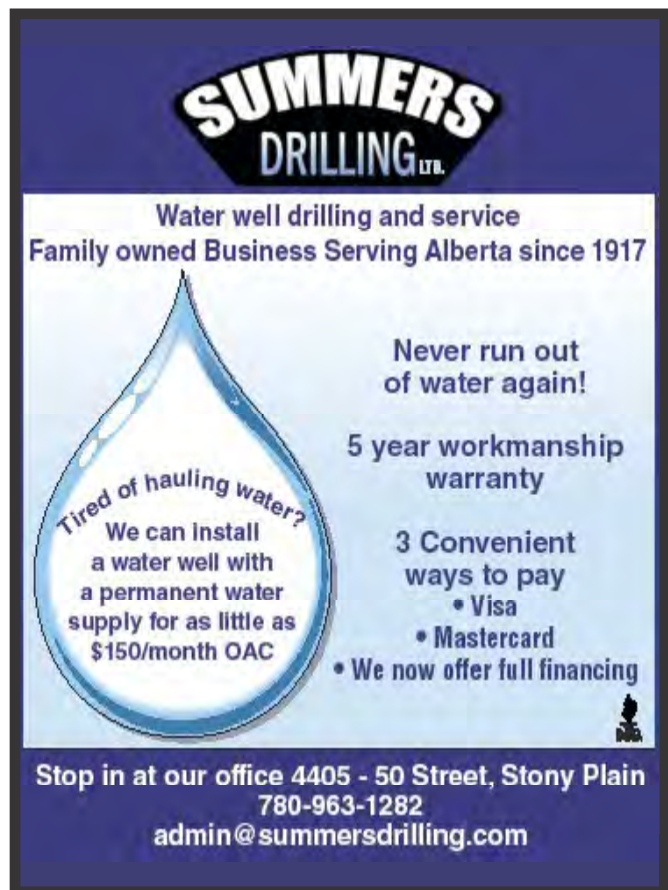

He giveth more grace when the burdens grow greater;
He sendeth more strength when the labors increase.
To added affliction He addeth His mercy;
To multiplied trials, His multiplied peace.

His love has no limit;
His grace has no measure.
His power has no boundary known unto men.
For out of His infinite riches in Jesus, He giveth and giveth and giveth again.

When we have exhausted our store of endurance,
When our strength has failed ere the day is half done,
When we reach the end of our hoarded resources,
Our Father's full giving is only begun.

His love has no limit;
His grace has no measure.
His power has no boundary known unto men.
For out of His infinite riches in Jesus, He giveth and giveth and giveth again!

Paul gives to us this great hope in 2nd Corinthians chapter 4 verse 16-18; "Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal! Let's keep our eyes on the prize!

Albertans aged 18 and older now have an additional COVID-19 vaccine option

Starting Nov. 12, Albertans 18 years and older can book appointments to receive the Janssen (Johnson & Johnson) COVID-19 vaccine by calling 811. Due to limited supply, the Janssen vaccine will only be administered at Alberta Health Services (AHS) clinics in select locations across the province.

"We have heard that some Albertans would consider getting protected if the Janssen vaccine was made available. We have made doses available and now we need these Albertans to follow through and get vaccinated. These doses are a start; we will continue advocating for more Janssen vaccine as we do everything we can to get more Albertans vaccinated." Jason Kenney, Premier

"Having the Janssen vaccine available in the province now gives Albertans more choice when it comes to getting protected against COVID-19. Every dose administered not only protects individuals but also our communities at large and the capacity of our health-care system." Jason Copping, Minister of Health

"Whichever COVID-19 vaccine you receive, it's important to get fully vaccinated as soon as possible and continue following the current public health measures to protect yourself and others." Dr. Deena Hinshaw, chief medical officer of health

The Janssen vaccine is currently a single-dose viral vector vaccine that works similarly to the AstraZeneca vaccine.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

November 11th, the day we honor those who fought and died for the freedom of this country and its people. People like my grandfather, my father, Bryans father and all our uncles on both sides. The disgusting display of hypocrisy I witnessed today is mind blowing.

I took myself down to the local legion as I have done for many years to partake in the Remembrance Day Ceremony. Bryan wouldn't join me; this is the first one he has missed in probably more than 40 years.

The ceremony was lovely as usual, Pastor Gooderham's homily was spot on, as usual. But the hypocrisy I witnessed was astounding. Many in the color party wore their obedience cloths, the first symbol of the stripping of our freedoms, yet the irony was lost on all. When the service was over, the host proclaimed they would be following ALL the AHS protocols. Anyone entering the Legion would be required to wear a mask and prove their vaccination status.

I couldn't take it anymore, I screamed HYPOCRISY at them and walked away. The man just kept talking. They just don't get it. It can't possibly be because they are stupid, you would have to be too stupid to keep breathing to not understand the hypocrisy they are displaying, or maybe they are, and they can keep breathing just because it is an innate action.

The Royal Canadian Legion was founded by veterans returning from serving in the first world war. It was designed to be a non-profit organization to help and serve those people returning from war. A place they could go for aid and understanding when many around them didn't understand what they had been through. It has since grown to include the RCMP, and other first responders.

The veterans who were there at the Legion's inception in 1925 had fought fascism and communism. Many of those soldiers came back without the friends they made and lost on the battlefield. Those that fought and those that died, fought with honor and valor to protect the fundamental freedoms of the families they left behind.

Now here we are a century later bowing to the overloads who dictate that we must give up our fundamental freedoms, the right to chose for ourselves what we put in our bodies, the right to chose what we put on that body.

The irony is lost on so many that we are bowing to leftist, authoritarian tyranny, giving up our fundamental freedoms for tyrannical governments promise of the illusion of those same freedoms.

Our fathers, Victor Nordlund and Al Kinsey, along with the rest of our family of veterans would we rolling in their graves at how far our society has fallen.

Thank you
Carol Nordlund Kinsey

Did Jesus ask you to say a prayer?

Many people think that all they must do in order to be saved, is say one prayer. Unfortunately, that is not at all true. Jesus never said, "Just say this one prayer and you are good to go". He never said anything remotely close to that. What Jesus did say, over, and over again is "follow me".

When Jesus said "follow me" what did he mean exactly? The Greek word that 'follow' is translated from in this statement means: to join one as a disciple, side with his party, accompany him (Thayer's dictionary). When Jesus asked his disciples to follow Him, they dropped what they were doing on the spot, left their family and job and followed Him, and helped Him with his mission. They learned from Him what His will was and how to execute it. After Jesus was gone, they continued His mission on earth as he commanded them. The life of the disciple was forever changed from living for themselves, to living for Jesus and following Him. Jesus made this concept very clear in Matthew 19:16-30 KJV:

And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? [17] And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. [18] He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, [19] Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. [20] The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? [21] Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. [22] But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. [23] Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. [24] And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. [25] When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? [26] But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. [27] Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? [28] And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. [29] And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. [30] But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

John 10:25-30 KJV Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. [26] But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. [27] My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: [28] And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. [29] My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. [30] I and my Father are one.

It is essential to pray, and to repent of our sin, and ask for salvation, but that is just the beginning of a new life dedicated to the Lord Jesus Christ. Praying one prayer is no guarantee of salvation and everlasting life. We must follow him by obeying His commandments and doing what he told us to do.
