

THE BRETON BOOSTER

Christmas Gift Suggestions

To your enemy, forgiveness.
To an opponent, tolerance.
To a friend, your heart.
To a customer, service.
To all, charity.
To every child, a good example.
To yourself, respect.

Community

We will be back in 2022!

My WISH for the New Year

That you have someone to love, have meaningful work to do, and have things greater than yourself to believe in; that you have a reason to smile every day and a shoulder to cry on when you need it; that you keep your integrity when the choices are hard;

That you love deeply, give freely, forgive willingly, laugh easily, and live well enough to be grateful for every day.

IN MEMORY OF

JEFF BRODRECHT

MAY 2, 1967 - DECEMBER 17, 1996

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "my precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you only see one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

There is not a day that goes by that we don't think about you...

Love always Mom & Dad

FCSS NEWS from Deanne Young

Breton and Area FCSS would like to extend Christmas wishes and a thank you to all those in the community that have partnered with us to make our community a better place. To all of you that have taken time to volunteer either with a formal group or just being a wonderful neighbor, you make a difference and are very much appreciated. To those that we have offered services to, may each of your days be a bit brighter. The past year has brought many challenges, but it has also brought opportunity. Let us reflect on the year and move forward towards a promising year in 2022. Merry Christmas,

4 Mindful Tips to De-Stress This Holiday Season

Managing Mood and Stress Managing Stress

Not feeling particularly cheery this time of year? You're not alone. Many find that the holidays bring as much stress as they do joy. But there are ways to ease through the season. To help make the most of your festivities, Neda Gould, Ph.D., clinical psychologist and director of the Johns Hopkins Mindfulness Program at the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, shares some mindful tips.

What is mindfulness? "Mindfulness is bringing your attention to the present moment with an element of nonjudgment and acceptance. It is noticing when we get caught up in thoughts about the past or the future, and returning our attention to the present — the only reality," explains Gould. While mindfulness can be a formal meditation practice, there are also informal ways to practice this skill. This can give us perspective and decrease stress.

1. Accept Imperfection

Can good be good enough? "As we gear up for the holidays, we often set the bar impossibly high for ourselves and then feel upset when our celebrations don't live up to expectations," says Gould. Before you start preparing, acknowledge that things may not go exactly as planned. "It's OK if it's not perfect. Imperfection is healthy and normal. For some of us, it might just take a little practice," reminds Gould.

2. Don't Lose Sight of What Really Counts

With long lines and nasty traffic, the holidays can get hectic. When overwhelmed by the hustle and bustle, ask yourself:

Where does this fit in the grand scheme of things? If you're frustrated by the long grocery line you're standing in, remember that it is just a long grocery line — nothing more. Don't let it spoil your afternoon. Can I use this moment of frustration as an opportunity to reflect? While the cashier rings up the customers ahead of you, take inventory of the good things that have happened today or the things you are grateful for.

Even if this moment seems stressful, can I find a way to make it pleasant? Connect with someone else in line with a compliment or kind gesture, or notice what's around you with fresh eyes and an open mind.

3. Respond with Kindness

You can't change how others act during the stresses of the holiday season, but you can change how you respond to situations:

"Whenever I encounter a difficult person, I tell myself, 'this person is suffering, and that's why they're acting this way.' It softens my frustration, helps me be more compassionate and reminds me that it's not personal," says Gould. Keep in mind that the holidays are especially difficult for those who are alone. See if you can extend an act of kindness to those you know are without family and friends during this time of year. If things do get tense with someone, take a few deep breaths. "Those few breaths can shift things and give you new perspective," says Gould.

4. Rethink Your Resolutions

"Typical New Year's resolutions set you up for failure," warns Gould. If you want to better yourself in the New Year, follow these tips for success:

Start small. Break your goal into tinier steps over the course of the year. If weight loss is your goal, it doesn't have to be drastic. Try to eat more veggies during your first month and gradually cut back on sweets throughout the next, suggests Gould. Be kind to yourself. If you didn't achieve last year's resolution or stray from the path this time around, let it go. "We often contrive these stories ('I'm never going to quit smoking!') that only add to our distress," says Gould. "With practice, we can notice this self-critic, let go of that negativity and pick our goals back up without the guilt or shame."

Soul Care

Well it is Christmas week.

I do not know what circumstances or emotions you are navigating through this week.

Maybe you are feeling happy and all is wrapped and ready?

Maybe you still have a mile long list but you are ok with it!

Maybe all your baking is done?

Maybe you actually sent cards out in time?

Maybe you are excited as you have family and friends coming? Or you are going?

Maybe you are feeling at peace?

Or maybe...

You just cancelled your flights to go see your family...again...?

Maybe you noticed you just don't have enough funds to buy what you need?

Maybe you or your loved one is struggling with a diagnosis?

Maybe you are missing someone that is no longer here?

Maybe your heart just hurts too much?

Maybe you just lost your job?

Maybe you are alone this Christmas because of a disagreement or maybe just no one is coming?

Maybe you are dealing with anger or resentment or are just feeling depressed?

Maybe you are feeling everything is a mess...in your life or life in general?

I want to encourage you this week to remind yourself, it is ok.

It is OK to not be OK.

Don't pretend. Feel your emotions.

Life is real. Life can be hard. Life can be unfair. Life can throw things at you that you may not understand.

Life is not all rosy all the time.

Those posts you see...of the perfect life...well it's usually not.

But life is also beautiful.

I may not know what you are going through, but God does.

Have a good cry...but do not stay there...then give it to him.

Let Him heal your heart.

Let Jesus pick you up and carry you.

He loves you. He cares for you.

He has not left you. You are not alone.

He's got you.

Repeat after me...

I am loved.

Give it to Him. Surrender everything to Him.

Then make a plan.

Do what you can do.

Reach out to someone if you need help. Reach out to someone if you are feeling alone.

LISTENING TO ALBERTANS ON THE DRAFT K-6 CURRICULUM

Albertans' feedback is informing ongoing curriculum renewal, with adjusted implementation timelines, changes to the design of the Social Studies curriculum and more opportunities for engagement in the new year.

Alberta's government has been listening to all input from Albertans on the draft kindergarten to Grade 6 (K-6) curriculum and is taking significant steps to address feedback from parents, teachers and subject matter experts.

Curriculum implementation

The COVID-19 pandemic has added unique pressures on students, their families and teachers. Recognizing this, Alberta's government is making changes to curriculum implementation timelines.

New curriculum in three subjects – English Language Arts and Literature, Mathematics, and Physical Education and Wellness – will be implemented in September 2022. To help set the course for successful implementation, Alberta Education will seek advice from an advisory group of education and curriculum implementation experts early in 2022. The group will also provide recommendations on implementation strategies for the remaining K-6 subjects.

Social Studies curriculum design and content changes

A new draft design blueprint addresses substantive feedback received related to age and developmental appropriateness of the Social Studies curriculum and lays out a plan to make curriculum content changes. The blueprint and further engagement will inform a new draft that continues to ensure students learn historical content, build civic skills, explore First Nations, Métis and Inuit and Francophone perspectives and learn about different cultures and communities

Content changes

In addition, this round of content changes in four subject areas will address the specific feedback that Albertans, as well as piloting school authorities, have provided to date. Changes have been made to English Language Arts and Literature, Physical Education and Wellness, Fine Arts \(Music\) and Science curriculums to add clarity, strengthen content as well as expand key topics such as positive body image, climate change and learning about dinosaurs

While Alberta Education has made some content changes to these subjects, there are also areas that are not yet addressed, such as changes related to First Nations, Métis, and Inuit and Francophone perspectives in subject areas outside of Social Studies. The government is continuing to work with education partners and community stakeholders to gather feedback on these critical areas before changes will be made in the spring. Based on feedback, the draft Mathematics curriculum will also be updated this spring, prior to final provincial implementation in September 2022. All other subjects, including the draft French language curriculum, will also be updated.

Engagement opportunities

In January and February there will be new engagement opportunities for Albertans to share their constructive, meaningful feedback on updated draft content, as well as the draft design blueprint for Social Studies. In addition, Albertans are invited to attend virtual information sessions on the updated curriculum and implementation plans, starting on Dec. 16.

Albertans can register for virtual information sessions and sign up to find out more about new engagements when details are available in the new year at alberta.ca/curriculum-have-your-say.

In spring 2022, Alberta's government will carefully consider the feedback from all engagement opportunities and classroom piloting. This input will be used to finalize the Social Studies design blueprint, develop the corresponding draft Social Studies curriculum and further revise all subjects in the draft K-6 curriculum.

Quick facts

- Since September 2021, approximately 360 teachers have been piloting the draft K-6 curriculum with about 7,800 students across the province. School authorities and teachers will share valuable insights about their experience and the resources needed to support new curriculum.
- New engagement opportunities and virtual information sessions will be offered in English and French at various times to meet the diverse interests and needs of Albertans.
- Alberta Education has provided approximately $1 million in grants to support education partner groups in conducting a consistent and coordinated engagement process with their communities so their unique perspectives can be heard and reported back to Alberta Education.
- Feedback from all engagements and piloting will inform updates to Indigenous and Francophone perspectives in all draft K-6 subjects in the spring.
- Engagement feedback will also inform an updated Mathematics curriculum prior to implementation in September 2022.
- Four subjects in the draft K-6 curriculum have been updated for Albertans to provide feedback on:
  - o English Language Arts and Literature
  - o Physical Education and Wellness
  - o (Fine Arts) Music
  - o Science
- Recognizing that the adjustments being made to the draft K-6 content will affect later grades, the government will sequence on work on drafting curriculum for grades 7-10 accordingly.

PRESS RELEASE

Canada Summer Jobs 2022 Employer Application

OTTAWA: Gerald Soroka Member of Parliament for Yellowhead wishes to advise that the launch of the employer application to Canada Summer Jobs (CSJ)2022 program begins today. This program helps youth (15 – 30 years of age) obtain their first summer work experience. The program provides opportunities for youth to develop and improve their skills within the not-for-profit, small business and public sectors, and supports the delivery of key community services. Not-for-profit organizations, public sector employers, and private sector employers with 50 or fewer full-time employees can apply for funding now until January 25, 2022, to hire young Canadians next summer. Full-time job placements will take place during the summer of 2022.

Employers interested in applying for CSJ 2022 funding can submit their applications electronically via either the online fillable application or the Grants and Contributions Online Service. The online fillable application is the fastest way for employers to complete an application online without having to create an account.

Genesee Battery Energy Storage System

Capital Power is sharing information about plans to develop a battery energy storage system (“BESS”) at the Genesee Generating Station. We will be seeking regulatory approval from the Alberta Utility Commission in early 2022.

The BESS will be used to store, and later deploy, up to 210 MW of energy, using lithium-ion batteries. The project will use best-in-class battery storage technology and be amongst the first large-scale storage projects in Alberta.

Located entirely within the existing footprint of the Genesee Generating Station, the BESS will create no air emissions and will not require additional water supply during the electricity storage and deployment processes.

Stakeholder input is an important part of the process and we value your feedback. More information is available at www.capitalpower.com/operations/genesee-1-2/, including the project specific information package.

Preacher's Point

from Pastor Jeff Gooderham

If our greatest need had been information, God would have sent us an educator; If our greatest need had been technology, God would have sent us a scientist; If our greatest need had been money, God would have sent us an economist; If our greatest need had been pleasure, God would have sent us an entertainer; But our greatest need was forgiveness, so God sent us a Savior.

The Bible Truth Page

What is God's Will Concerning Healing? Part 2

I emphasised in Part 1 that we can know the will of God concerning healing, by reading in the Bible how Jesus healed multitudes of people while He was here on earth. Now I would like to further emphasise that point but also accentuate that Jesus taught His disciples to heal the sick as well.

So how can we be sure that what Jesus did was the will of God? The Bible says in Hebrews: “God, who at various times and in diverse ways spoke long ago to the fathers through the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, and through whom He made the world. He is the brightness of His glory, the express image of Himself, and upholds all things by the word of His power. When He had by Himself purged our sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high” (Modern English Version, Heb. 1:1-3). “EXPRESS IMAGE” MEANS AN EXACT COPY OR REPRESENTATION. That means Jesus is an exact copy or representation of the person of God. He is like the glove on the hand of God. Jesus said: “I can do nothing of Myself. As I hear, I judge. My judgment is just, because I seek not My own will, but the will of the Father who sent Me” (John 5:30). See also John 5:19-30. It is very clear that Jesus was doing the will of God while He was here on earth. He was doing the will of God when He healed the multitudes in Matthew 4:23-24, Matthew 8:16-17, and Matthew 12:14-22.

Jesus was also doing the will of God when He commanded His disciples to go preach and heal the sick. Jesus sent out the twelve and said: “As you go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, and cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give” (Matt. 10:7-8). Later He sent out the seventy: “After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them two by two ahead of Him into every city and place where He Himself was about to come” (Luke 10:1). “Heal the sick who are there and say to them, The kingdom of God has come near to you” (Luke 10:9). “The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, even the demons are subject to us through Your name.' He said to them, 'I saw Satan as lightning fall from heaven. Look, I give you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. And nothing shall by any means hurt you'” (Luke 10:17-19). Jesus instructed His disciples to heal because He needed help getting to the multitudes of people in need of healing. But He was also training them so that they would be equipped to continue healing and preaching when He was gone.

After Jesus was risen from the dead, He gave a command to the disciples. “Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.' Amen” (Matt. 28:18-20). Just as Jesus demonstrated healing, He also taught His disciples to heal and commanded them to teach others to do the same. That is exactly what the disciples did as recorded in Acts: “Believers were increasingly added to the Lord, crowds of both men and women, so that they even brought the sick out into the streets and placed them on beds and mats, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might touch some of them. Crowds also came out of the cities surrounding Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those who were afflicted by evil spirits, AND THEY WERE ALL HEALED” (Acts 5:14-16).

God's will back then was for all people to be healed and in good health and it still is today. “For I am the Lord, I do not change” (Mal. 3:6). “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever” (Heb. 13:8). “For there is no partiality with God” (Rom. 2:11).

Soul Care

The greatest love story ever to be shared happens on Christmas Eve. God's love for us is special. We are drawn into a relationship with God because of His love, not humanities idea of love, but God's idea of love for us. We light the 4th candle this week as a reminder to us that God showed us the greatest kind of love ever, by sending his Son Jesus to save us. Christmas reminds us that Jesus was born, He suffered and died to save us from our sins so we can be reconciled to God and live with him forever. The invitation is for all to receive Him, today is a good day to know Jesus.

As we spend time this week preparing for Christmas, may you truly find Hope, Peace and Joy that can only come from knowing the Love of Jesus.

Merry Christmas my friends, see you in the New Year!

Celtic Knot Massage is moving from Thorsby to Warburg
January 01, 2022!

With business success comes growth and change and though it can be frightful it can also be very exciting!

I would like to thank and welcome all my amazing massage clients, old and new, and ask that you join me on my new endeavour by visiting me at my new location starting in the new year.

A huge heart felt thank you to Linda,
Rose and their staff at SOS Bookkeeping for trusting me with their rental space for the past 3.5+ years. I will miss you all dearly.
