A LITTLE HISTORY - THORSBY THEATRE

John R. Powlik started in the entertainment business around 1940 by travelling to small neighboring towns with his films and projectors to show movies in their halls. Some nights, he would have to sleep in his car as heavy rains made the roads impassable. In 1945, tired of battling the muddy roads and storms, he decided to settle in Thorsby. He purchased the LaRose hall and showed weekly movies in it. At first his charges were 15¢ for children, 25¢ for students and 40¢ for adults. He changed films 3 times per week with comedies and westerns being the most popular.

In 1949, John started construction on the Thorsby Theatre. It had 318 seats and opened for business on June 12, 1950. John operated the theatre until 1972 when he retired and sold the theatre to Mr. C. Sabin of Edmonton.

This story and more history on Thorsby can be found in at the Municipal Library or displayed on the wall at the Thorsby Arctic Spas Recreation Complex.

BREAKING NEWS!!

LAST REMINDER UTILITY BILL PAYMENTS

When you're paying your utility bill through your online banking, it takes 2-3 business days for the bank to deposit the funds into the Town's bank accounts.

This means that if you pay on the last day of the month it takes 2-3 days for us to get the payment and our penalty system kicks in. We can only process payments when we receive them.

If you don't want penalties, pay 3-4 days before the end of the month otherwise we issue penalties. And we will not remove them.

THE FUTURE OF POLICING IN ALBERTA

Albertans can learn about what the future of provincial policing may look like through a new website.

The www.futureofABpolicing.ca site provides the public with information about the opportunities a new provincial police service could bring, including improved civilian oversight, more front-line police officers and better service levels across the province.

"Albertans have told us they want more details about the potential benefits of a provincial police service. As all levels of governments across the country review their policing models, Albertans need to have all the information available to ensure they lead this national discussion and make sure the future of policing in the province meets their needs." Tyler Shandro, Minister of Justice and Solicitor General

While no decisions have been made on proceeding with an Alberta police service, the government is doing the due diligence it promised by going directly to Albertans to talk about this public safety topic.

Municipal and First Nations police services

Currently, a number of municipalities and First Nations have their own police services and others are exploring the possibility of setting up their own. Alberta's government supports this work and has established a grant to support municipalities and First Nations as they explore the possibility of forming their own police service.

In addition to increasing the number of officers in rural areas, transitioning to a provincial police service would improve governance and give municipalities more say in setting their own policing priorities. This model would also provide greater coverage, reduce response times and lower case loads per officer.

Quick facts

- Alberta hired PwC Canada in October 2020 to study the feasibility of transitioning to a provincial police service.
- Their report found many opportunities associated with this transition and offered options for how a future provincial police service would look.
- Under the current RCMP contract, policing is the same for all eight provinces, three territories and several municipalities that use these services and provides little opportunity for local input to meet their needs.
- The federal government has indicated that there are sustainability issues across the whole of the RCMP. The prime minister recently directed Public Safety Canada to conduct a review of RCMP contract policing.
- Several provinces and municipalities that currently use RCMP contract policing are considering alternative policing models.

Leduc County Recreation and Parks Master Plan

We need your input!

Leduc County is proud to provide a variety of parks and recreation opportunities to our residents. We offer recreation programs, partner with local halls and societies on community-led events, take care of a number of parks, campgrounds and open spaces and maintain cost-sharing agreements with neighbouring municipalities.

To help us understand the current and future needs for parks and recreation services, Leduc County is undertaking a Recreation and Parks Master Plan. The plan will be a guiding document for the County for the next 10 to 15 years, and will be developed based on a thorough research program, which includes the involvement of residents.

GET INVOLVED

Your feedback is an important part of our planning process! Watch your mailboxes for information on our Recreation and Parks Master Plan survey. We also have a number of community events planned where you can provide your input.
