KEEPING DEMOLITION DERBY'S ALIVE

by Shawna Ofstie

Local father and son duo from Warburg have been destroying cars and racing in the mud for years. Together Chad and Lantz Reyne travel all over Alberta, BC & Saskatchewan participating in and running derbies. They travel as far as Armstrong BC and St. Walburg Saskatchewan to participate in this traditional motor sport that brings families and communities together for smashing, crashing fun.

Chad Reyne (Bad Chad) started his derby career in 1990 at the age of 15. For 30 years he smashed different makes and models of Chevy with great success at the top level in 3 provinces. He even competed at Rexall place in Edmonton with the Monster Trucks show for 15 years. Chad recently received the Western Canadian Legends of Destruction award for 30 years of service. He has now stepped aside from smashing cars to work on builds with his son and as a Tech Inspector for demolition derbies across Alberta and BC. Recently, on September long weekend, Chad was the Tech Inspector for the 49th Annual Demolition Derby in Fernie BC.

Lantz Reyne, following in his father's footsteps started his career at only 12. Together, he and his dad build their derby cars and mud racing trucks to compete. This summer alone, Lantz has placed 4 times and won 3rd in Fernie BC. The Fernie Derby is considered one of the largest derbies around attracting thousands of people each year and raising money for local causes. Lantz will be heading to compete in Armstrong BC on October 8 for one of the last Derbies of the season.

Maybe you remember the days of the Demolition Derby's in Warburg, Thorsby and even Sunnybrook... it's wonderful to see this sport is still alive!

Thank you Chad & Tori for inspiring this story.

Send in your local stories to share.

Sept. 25 to 30 is Truth and Reconciliation Week

Reconciliation starts with education

Learning and commemorating the truth of our history from First Nations, Métis, and Inuit knowledge keepers is an important part on the path of reconciliation.

During Truth and Reconciliation Week, the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation (NCTR) invites you to join a daily lunch and learn for an immersive experience to UN-learn the myths of colonial history in Canada.

Day one - Sept. 25

Indigenous peoples and the history of residential schools

Day two - Sept. 26

Unconscious bias and debunking stereotypes

Day three - Sept. 27

Intergenerational impacts and ongoing systemic discrimination

Day four - Sept. 28

Indigenous Peoples' rights and the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples

Day five - Sept. 29

Taking action towards Reconciliation

Learn more and register at www.nctr.ca

September 30, 2023

Truth and Reconciliation Week 2023 will end on a very special note. The NCTR is working with the Aboriginal Peoples Television Network (APTN) and partners to bring the country a live national broadcast called Remembering the Children that will commemorate National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day. The event takes place on Sept. 30 at Parliament Hill and will also be broadcast live.

Learn more at www.nctr.ca.

ReconciliACTION Plans

In 2015, the NCTR released 6 Actions of ReconciliACTION that were developed to assist the public in supporting their work towards Reconciliation. These actions are:

- Learn the history between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples;

- Understand the history and legacy of residential schools;
- Explore the unique intersections we have between treaty, constitutional, Indigenous and human rights we have in Canada;
- Recognize the rich contributions that Indigenous peoples have made to Canada;
- Take action to address historical injustices and present-day wrongs; and
- Teach others.

The 6 actions of ReconciliACTION can be applied to any of the Calls to Action or even beyond them.

FUN ALBERTA FACTS ABOUT CITIES AND TOWNS

From www.mustdocanada.com

1. Vulcan, a small town between Calgary and Lethbridge, is famous with Star Trek enthusiasts. Why? Because they truly took their name to heart and built a 31-foot Enterprise replica next to the spaceship-shaped visitors centre. Even the plaque is written in three languages: English, Vulcan, and Klingon!
2. Sylvan Lake, a small town and popular lakeside retreat, is also home to an inland lighthouse. It was built to commemorate its 75th birthday in 1988 but was rebuilt in 2015.
3. Wolverine, the comic book mutant, is from Alberta. According to Marvel history, Wolverine was born in Cold Lake, Alberta in the 1880s. I wonder if any of them had ever been to Cold Lake...
4. The town of St. Paul features a UFO landing pad, just in case Aliens need to stop for fuel on their way to distant galaxies (Okay, we made that part up). But they do have a UFO landing page and a UFO tourist information centre where you'll find "actual" photographs of UFOs, crop circles, and cattle mutilations.
5. The town of Mundare has a 42' tall statue of a sausage coil.
6. The city of Lloydminster is shared by Alberta and Saskatchewan. Lloydminster straddles the border between Alberta and Saskatchewan, and instead of fighting over the territory, the provinces agreed to just share it. We like to cooperate over here. In fact, Wolverine's hometown of Cold Lake also kind of shares the lake with Saskatchewan.
7. Alberta's last train robbery took place in the Crowsnest Pass in 1920.
8. In 1914, the purest oil discovery in Canada occurred in Turner Valley (southwest of Calgary) where the oil was so pure it could be pumped straight out of the ground and into the car! This is also what spurred the oil industry in Alberta.
9. In 1915, the Brooks aqueduct was built as part of a bigger plan to build an irrigation system with numerous water storage lakes and over 2,140 kilometres of canals at a huge relative cost of $40 million. It still stands today!
10. Another big thing happened near Brooks in 1955 with the founding of Dinosaur Provincial Park, the world's richest site of dinosaur bones.

SCHOOL LUNCH IDEAS FOR KIDS

from www.happinessishomemade.net/school-lunch-ideas-for-kids/ by Heidi Kundin

Barbecue Cups

Ingredients:

- 1lb lean ground beef cooked
- 3/4 cup barbecue sauce
- 1 can Pillsbury Grands! flaky layers original biscuits, refrigerated
- 3/4 cup cheddar cheese

Instructions:

1. In 10-inch nonstick skillet, mix cooked beef and barbecue sauce. Heat over medium-high heat, stirring constantly, until hot.
2. Pull each biscuit apart into 2 layers; press each into 4-inch round. Place 1 round in each of the 10 greased regular size muffin cups. Firmly press in bottom and up sides, forming 1/4-inch rim. Fill with beef mixture; sprinkle with cheese.
3. Bake 375 degrees for 13 to 15 minutes or until edges of biscuits are golden brown. Cool 1 minute; remove from pan.

You can substitute chicken instead of beef

Chicken Ranch Wraps

Ingredients:

- 2 cups cooked grilled chicken breasts chopped (seasoned with your favorite spices, see note*)
- 1/4 cup Hidden Valley® Simply Ranch dressing
- 1/2 cup mozzarella cheese
- 1/4 cup Cilantro minced (optional)
- 4 8" tortillas

Instructions:

1. Lay tortillas on a clean flat surface. Place about 1/2 cup chicken, 1 tablespoon ranch, 2 tablespoons of cheese, and 1 tablespoon of minced cilantro on each tortilla. Fold tightly to form a burrito shape.
2. Heat a heavy-duty pan or grill to medium heat. Coat with a light layer of oil or cooking spray and cook wraps for 1-2 minutes on each side or until the tortilla is crispy and golden. Remove from heat, slice in half and serve immediately.

Notes

*For the chicken: You can use cooked rotisserie chicken, leftover chicken, or grilled chicken seasoned with your favorite spices. I like to season my chicken with a tablespoon of fajita seasoning and grill in a hot pan for 5-6 minutes per side or until cooked through.

Cheesy Pepperoni Pizza Sticks

Ingredients:

- 1 Pillsbury pizza crust, tube
- 40 pepperoni slices
- 10 mozzarella cheese sticks

- 2 tbsp butter
- 1/2 tsp garlic powder
- 1/2 tsp dried parsley
- marinara sauce, for dipping (Optional)

Instructions:

1. Preheat oven to 450 degrees F.
2. Spread pizza dough out on a lightly greased baking sheet. Cut the dough into 10 equal size rectangles.
3. Arrange 4 pepperoni slices on each rectangle and top with a mozzarella cheese stick.
4. Roll up the pizza dough, enclosing the cheese stick, pinching the seams closed.
5. Melt the butter and add the garlic powder and dried parsley. Brush the pizza sticks with the butter.
6. Bake for 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown.
7. Enjoy warm with a side of marinara sauce for dipping if desired.

Chicken and Waffle Sliders

Ingredients:

- 1 cup Cornmeal
- 1 cup All-Purpose Flour
- 1 Tbsp. Baking Powder
- 1 tsp. Salt
- 1 Tbsp. Sugar
- 1 Tbsp. Honey
- 1 1/2 cups Buttermilk
- 4 Tbsp. Butter melted
- 1 Egg

Instructions:

1. Preheat waffle iron and spray with cooking spray if necessary.
2. In a small bowl, combine honey, buttermilk, melted butter and egg.
3. In a large bowl, combine cornmeal, flour, baking powder, salt and sugar.
4. Add the wet ingredients to the dry ingredients and stir until well combined.
5. Bake in waffle maker according to manufacturer's directions.
6. To make chicken and waffle sliders, layer cornbread waffles with fried chicken, bacon, and cheddar cheese.

WE FOUND OUR DREAM HOME!

Written by PK

They had been living in their house for four years, and they decided it was time for a change; they wanted a better house. Ray and Shirley had talked this over and were certain that somewhere out there in the city was their dream home, just waiting for them. Ray took a drive over to see his friend Bob to get some advice from him about selling. Bob was a real estate sales agent and had lots of knowledge about the market. He was the one that sold them their current house four years prior.

After speaking with him for a short while, it was decided that Bob would list their home for sale and get it advertised. He also agreed to start searching for their dream home. This sounded great! Ray and Shirley were excited and had confidence that they would soon be able to move into their dream home.

About 8 PM that evening, Ray answered the phone, it was Bob. He began to read him an advertisement about a perfect house. Ray ran into the living room as the details were being read so that Shirley could hear as well. "...and it also has four large bedrooms, three facing the wooded area behind the house. It has a large stone fireplace, double attached heated garage, three bathrooms, ground floor office..."

Ray and Shirley looked at each other and nodded their heads. "Bob, sorry to cut you short, but we would love to make an appointment to see this house."

There was dead silence on the phone. "Hello", Ray said. Bob cleared his throat and answered, "I'm sorry for the misunderstanding. I was reading you the advertisement I put together to sell your house."

Ray and Shirley did not sell their home after all. It dawned on them that the place of their dreams was right where they were. There was no need to look any further. Until they heard their own home being described by someone else, they had lost sight of what they already had.

So it is many times with each one of us. We often take the gifts we already have for granted. We need to take time to count our blessings for the things we have, and not to complain about the things we don't have.

As the old saying goes, "I complained because I had no shoes, until I met a man who had no feet." Yes, we all have things for which we can thank God. When was the last time you looked up and thanked God? Enjoy your children and make the time to teach them well. Enjoy the health that you have now. Enjoy the adventures of life. Laugh, be creative and look ahead. Take the time to thank God for His goodness and ask Him to guide you on your journey. Be confident in this fact, He loves you!
