SHAPING YOUR COUNTY

Leduc County's Land Use Bylaw

LEDUC COUNTY Planning Our Future

Municipal Development Plan

UPCOMING OPEN HOUSES

We're reviewing both the Land Use Bylaw and the Municipal Development Plan (MDP), and we need your input to shape the future of Leduc County through these two foundational documents.

A full review and update of our current Land Use Bylaw, which was adopted in 2008, is being undertaken. To align with the Edmonton Metropolitan Region Board's Regional Agriculture Master Plan, we've also drafted revisions to the County's MDP.

We had such a great response to our first two Land Use Bylaw open houses that we've decided to feature both projects at three upcoming events.

If you weren't able to make it to a previous Land Use Bylaw event, or if you want to provide input on the proposed revisions to the MDP, join us at one of the following events to see our vision and give your input on key areas for each of the two projects.

Monday, Nov. 20 from 3 to 7 p.m.

Please visit us during our weekday hours of Tuesday 10:00 AM - 6:00 PM, Wednesday 12:00 Noon - 6:00 PM, Thursday 12:00 Noon - 7:00 PM, Friday 10:00 AM - 5:00 PM, Saturdays 10:00am - 1:00pm.

Winter seems to have arrived, and quickly!

We have some amazing books to help us embrace the chilly weather. From books on everything from knitting and other cosy crafts, through bird watching and soup making, we have it all at the library!

In addition, don't forget out bowling passes, which allow our patrons to enjoy one free bowling session during regular bowling times.

And for anyone wanting to try out walking poles, we have two sets available for borrowing.

Our Makerspace is expanding in scope! In addition to our monthly featured kits, we now have library kits for patrons to explore, including card making, box making, and origami. We also have a fully operational sewing machine with notions for anyone who needs to work on a sewing project.

The leathercraft kit was very popular, and is now on its way home. Look out next week for the circuitry kit, which will be available for exploration through the month of November.

There are very few spaces left in the Art of Making Bath Bombs workshop, coming up on November 16, 5:00 – 6:30, so stop by or call the library to register if you are interested in participating.

Thank you so much to everyone who helped make our annual book sale a whopping success. Our amazing volunteers once again did a fabulous job, and thanks to everyone who stopped by and supported the library last week.

Come warm up with a good book or DVD. See you at the library!

SCHOOL DIVISIONS COLLABORATE

Black Gold School Division / Wild Rose School Division

Black Gold School Division and Wild Rose School Division collaborate for educational excellence during Breton High School modernization

November 1, 2023 - In a move to responsibly manage resources and to ensure uninterrupted and high-quality education for students, the Black Gold School Division (BGSD) and the Wild Rose School Division (WRSD) are collaborating to facilitate the temporary relocation of Breton High School's grade 7-12 students to Warburg School during the anticipated Breton High School modernization project.

Following careful consideration and consultation with their school community and the project architects, the WRSD Board of Trustees passed a motion on October 17, 2023, to temporarily move all grade 7-12 students from Breton High School to Warburg School in September 2024 until February 2026 or until the project is completed, pending construction funding approval from the Province.

On October 24, the WRSD sent a letter to BGSD, formally requesting to jointly utilize the Warburg High School for the duration of the modernization process. At their regular meeting on November 1, the BGSD Board of Trustees expressed their readiness to collaborate.

"Black Gold is pleased to support our neighboring school division by working together to ensure that Breton High School students receive a seamless and high-quality educational experience at Warburg School during their school's modernization project," said BGSD Board Chair Esther Eckert. "We look forward to a productive partnership with the Wild Rose School Division and are committed to making this transition as smooth as possible."

"Our Board and administration thank Black Gold School Division for allowing us to temporarily utilize Warburg School during our high school's modernization," said WRSD Board Chair Daryl Scott. "We believe this move is the most efficient way to ensure minimal disruptions and provide the highest quality of instruction for our students."

Breton High School will retain its staff, students, and identity throughout the modernization project and will occupy an unused portion of Warburg School, and will have access to sufficient classrooms, a gymnasium, shop, science lab, and music room for the duration of the construction.

While the decision to temporarily relocate to Warburg School will present challenges, such as longer school bus rides, both school boards are optimistic that the benefits of this collaboration will ultimately result in a fully modernized school that will serve K-12 students in the Breton community for many years to come.

Both school boards also extend their gratitude to the Breton and Warburg school communities for their support and understanding during the anticipated construction period.

THORSBY SENIOR'S SPECIAL GUESTS

Submitted by Pat Nystrom

The Thorsby Seniors held their monthly pot-luck dinner meeting last week with a special guest – Bob Layton and his wife Marg. Bob entertained the group with memories from his lifelong career as a radio host and part time dee jay. Everyone enjoyed the good humor and laughs as Bob recalled many light hearted memories spanning his career in broadcasting.

Stories of Jerry Forbes, Bryan Hall, Wes Montgomery, Bob McCord, Jungle Jay, Bruce Bowie, Eileen Bell, Wayne Gretzky & Muhammad Ali. Police at 630 CHED, guns ready. Little Tiny Uglies. Bob banned in Barrhead. A tragic Indigenous baby death. Behind the scenes at Santas Anonymous. Mayerthorpe RCMP. And Much More...

I'll Puke In Your Pocket: How Bob became a keynote speaker, ventriloquist and auctioneer. A Gene Zwozdesky revelation. Wedding guests walk out on the bride. A 630 CHED Santas Anonumous coincidence. Indigenous dignity. Dealing with Time Shares. Travel tales. Pandemic poetry. Purdy's. Hecklers. ## STORIES OF LIFE

Written by PK

JUMP OF A LIFETIME!

In April, 1988, the evening news reported a true story of a videographer who was also a skydiver. He had jumped from a plane with several other skydivers, his mission was to film the group of skydivers as they joined hands in a circle and then opened their parachutes.

I do not know how you feel about the idea of skydiving, but I have always imagined the unbelievable sensation that you would feel as you sailed through the air on the wind, high above the ground. The adrenaline would be pumping and your heart would be thumping with anticipation. Of course, this is how I feel with my feet planted on the earth as I gaze at the small plane breaking through the clouds.

However, how would I respond if I were to actually go up in that plane for my first jump? The door would open and the instructor would say "OK, jump!" There is a good possibility that my response would be very quick, "Are you crazy?"

Getting back to the story, this videographer was a seasoned skydiver and he was very excited about getting this video report "live" on the news. The live feed was captured on television as the high flyers joined hands and one by one opened their parachutes. After the last parachute was opened the live feed had static and then went black. The announcer told the viewers that there was some technical issue and went on with their newscast. Later the news was broken to the viewers that the videographer had fallen to his death.

He had jumped out of the plane without a parachute. It was not until he reached for the rip cord that he realized he had been free-falling without one. Until this realization, he was consumed and preoccupied with getting the best video shots possible. Tragically he had acted with thoughtless haste. He had all of the camera equipment he needed, the appropriate clothing and boots, but he did not have the one most valuable thing a skydiver needs to have. The parachute is the one thing that will allow a skydiver successfully go home to his family.

When he jumped from the plane without it, there was nothing that could save him. His faith was in a parachute that he never even had on.

Faith in anything but an all-sufficient God will be just as tragic for each of us spiritually. Only faith in Jesus Christ will allow us to land safely. All roads do not lead to heaven. Freedom from sin and the promise of eternal life only come through Him. Is your parachute strapped on today, or are you free-falling through life without Him? Jesus is always there for you. You never have to be alone!
