

THE BRETON BOOSTER

FRAUDULENT BANK DRAFT USED IN WETASKIWIN

Media Relations RCMP Alberta, January 16, 2025

Wetaskiwin Alta.- On Jan. 6, 2025, RCMP are investigating a case of fraud after a fraudulent bank draft was used to purchase 2 Snowmobiles and a trailer, leaving the dealership out of pocket and deeply impacted.

The dealership was approached by the buyer with what appeared to be a legitimate bank draft. After the transaction was complete, the victim discovered that the bank draft was counterfeit, leaving them without their snowmobiles and payment.

This scam has raised concerns as to how realistic the bank draft appeared. RCMP are actively pursuing leads to identify the perpetrators and recover the stolen snowmobiles.

Suspect is described as

- Heavy set Caucasian male wearing a white shirt, dark jacket and blue jeans.
- He was driving a white Ford pickup truck

Snowmobiles are described as follows:

- Polaris 850, black and tan coloured.

- Polaris Patriot, orange in colour.
- Trailer is a grey Marlon 400-006AL trailer.

RCMP are aware of other similar cases in the Edmonton area involving the same suspect.

Counselling Subsidies –Breton and Area FCSS is pleased to offer Counselling Subsidies. A subsidy is available for individuals, couples and/or families who are struggling with common, everyday issues to access short-term preventative counselling services. The goal is to:

- Improve relationships with better communication and conflict resolution skills;
- Improve mood with anger management and emotional support;
- Enhance personal growth with creativity, spirituality, self-esteem, self-awareness, goal setting;
- Improve parenting skills by focusing on attachment;
- Reduce stress with life balance; and/or
- Learn new skills and behaviors

The cost of counselling can be a barrier for many individuals and families. This subsidy is available to those who do not have access to coverage through health benefits or employee benefits, such as an Employee Assistance Plan (EAP), and whose family income is less than $75,000 per year. Fees are determined according to a sliding scale based on income and family size. Fees range from $15 per session to $50 per session. The maximum number of sessions available is seven for individuals and nine for couples or families.

Counselling services are provided through a partnership with Karunia Counselling from Leduc.

We know that in this current environment many may have additional stress and anxiety. We also know that transportation may be an added barrier. These sessions can be arranged to be in person in the Karunia offices in Leduc, over the phone in your own safe environment or virtually on your computer.

Breton FCSS Continued...

To apply for the subsidy services, application forms are available through the Breton FCSS Office at 4916 50th Avenue or by contacting them at fcss@breton.ca or calling 780-696-3636.

ALL APPLICATIONS ARE STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

Breton and Area FCSS will be doing the intake of the applications. Counselling services are provided by Karunia Counselling by Registered Psychologists, Registered Provisional Psychologists, Canadian Certified Counsellors and Masters or PhD level student interns under the supervision of a qualified psychologist. All applications will be kept in strict confidence.

Kindness Project 2025

"Did you know that acts of kindness are a key contributor to mentally healthy communities? Kindness, as research has shown, also makes us happier, improves physical health, slows ageing, and improves relationships."

An act of kindness can be as simple and as a smile, a genuine greeting or acknowledgement, intentionally including someone in something, and can be a big as you can imagine. Many acts of kindness are free or low cost and are proven to make a difference to the mental wellbeing of a person.

An act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted. You can show kindness in everyday life; from picking up the phone to say hello, to dropping round a baked loaf, to offering to pick something up for someone, to raking their yard. It could even be as simple as saying hi to someone in the street or taking the time to stop with someone who might need to see a friendly face.

Throughout 2025 we are asking you to let us know who has shown you Acts of Kindness. There are a couple of ways you can share with us:

- Send an email to fcss@breton.ca. Include the Act of Kindness, whom it was done by and their contact information along with your name and contact information.
- Drop by the Village office or the Breton Municipal Library and complete a form

Once a month we will select random entries to be awarded gift certificates to local businesses for their gestures.

Please feel welcome to contact us at

VENTRILOQUIST MICHAEL HARRISON PREVIEW EPAC January 24

Submitted by Russell Hickman

I feel like a dummy! Ventriloquist Michael Harrison is generous. The interview is going well. His seven weeks 'on the road' performing VENTASTIC! on Princess cruise ships in the South Pacific was nice. The "sailing and flying" between Australia and New Zealand was routine. As I spill his words onto a page for you to read, noticing my frozen thermometer, I wonder, "who's the dummy here? Harrison kindly uses the word puppet.

From the outside looking in, Harrison's successful entertainer lifestyle looks glamorous. "It is!" he laughs, "It certainly has upsides. Many more upsides than downsides. I have a good balance between work life and home life. It's the secret I think in this business and during the hard work of starting a career, too."

We all know the wooden headed puppets don't speak. I asked Harrison how ventriloquism works with of an audience. "I don't know for sure," he started, "but I watch other ventriloquists and see it works the same way. There's a moment the audiences looks at the ventriloquist and sees that their lips aren't moving. There's nothing to look at, so they focus back on the puppet. That's the trap! Now there are two personalities on stage and you go back and forth, just like it was two humans!" He added: "You suspend your disbelief for moment and away we go, merrily down the road!"

I asked him how he got his start. "I had no friends!" he confided. "We all feel that way sometimes and then I got a magic kit for my 10th birthday. I really loved it. I learned how to ride a unicycle and juggle. I took mime courses and bought a book on ventriloquism, which I really loved. The others fell by the way side and I've done ventriloquism ever since. As a kid, it was just a fun hobby and I could make my friends laugh and then I started doing kid's birthday parties. You make a little bit of money; five dollars for a half hour birthday party show. And you know, at 15, that's the good life! I was kind of a shy kid so performing helped me get over my shyness. I had a tool, you know, that I could use and sort of deflect the attention off me and onto my puppets."

Then he spoke from the heart. "I highly recommended it for any parents who have shy, slightly introverted kids. It's a great tool that helps kids get over their shyness. They're able to speak through a puppet but still be in control."

Harrison had two turning points in his career. The first was the realization that he could do ventriloquism for a living. And the second was his first cruise ship contract. When it finished he was booked back. He recalls that his agent's phone rang: "We like what you do. Can you be on a flight at Miami on Saturday. We've got work for you." "Me: Let me check my calendar. Yes, I can think I can squeeze it in! I still work for that agent all these years while booking cruise ships around the world." Since then he's performed with The Muppets, Boyz to Men and Kelly Clarkson. He's headlined on the world's most luxurious cruise line and resorts.

Michael Harrison is performing at Eleanor Pickup Arts Centre on January 24. I asked what the audience could expect. "My show is fun for all ages. It's not a kiddie show. It's not an adult show. It's just a good family show for all ages. There's jokes in it for everybody. I often say my show is like a Disney movie where there's humour and fun for kids, but there's also jokes that go above and beyond the kids for the adults. Very G-rated, though. Everyone can enjoy it, you don't have to worry about going and feeling you're going to be bored. I like to say I will win you over and you'll become a fan of ventriloquism by the end of the show!"

Michael Harrison is performing his one-man, laugh out loud romp VENTASTIC! Reimagining the Art of Ventriloquism at EPAC on January 24, 2025. Tickets at Ticketpro.ca and Value Drug.

AGAIN?! ALBERTA'S TOP BABY NAMES HOLD THEIR CROWN

Alberta News, January 20, 2025

For the sixth consecutive year, Olivia and Noah clinch the top baby name spots.

With the release of Alberta's 2024 list of baby names, Olivia and Noah take the crown for another year. Olivia has held the top spot for 12 consecutive years. The next longest reigning name was Ethan, at nine consecutive years between 2001 and 2009, followed by Liam, with seven years from 2010 to 2016. 2024 marks Noah's sixth year in a row in the top spot for boys.

Charlotte, Amelia, Sophia, Emma and Ava were among the top five most popular names for baby girls, while Oliver, Liam, Theodore and Henry rounded out the top five choices for baby boys.

"Congratulations to all those who welcomed a child in 2024 and Albertans who took part in the contest to guess the winning names – you continue to make this event my favourite time of year." Dale Nally, Minister for Service Alberta and Red Tape Reduction

This year's list of baby names showcases Albertans' deep respect for their strong cultural roots. It was clear that some parents were inspired by the natural beauty of our province and the virtues that make Alberta stand out – names like Cedar, Hope, and Prairie. Some parents seemed to take notes from mother nature and found inspiration from animals in names like Bear, Fox, Jaguar and Sora, while others looked to the night sky, choosing names such as Celestial, Cassiopeia, Andromeda and Orion.

Among the new arrivals are names that express joy and aspiration, like Serenity, Hope, Heavenly, Blessing, and Bliss, while others are practically meant to sparkle on the Stampede big screen, like Rowdy, Shooter, and Stryder.

"As we celebrate the new arrivals in 2024, let's also celebrate the families who have chosen to build their futures in Alberta. By prioritizing policies that strengthen families, protect traditional values, and celebrate our shared heritage, we can ensure that Alberta remains the best place to raise a family for generations to come." Dale Nally, Minister for Service Alberta and Red Tape Reduction

Quick facts

- More than 50,000 births were registered in Alberta in 2024.

- Notable changes to the list:
 - Levi made its way back to the top ten list for the first time since 2020, coming in at number nine.
 - Ethan also returned to the top 10 list for boys after a short break in 2022 and 2023.
 - Harper is back on the top ten list for girls after a brief hiatus in 2023.
 - Sophie has cracked the top 10 list for the first time since 2011.
 - Newcomer Ellie shakes up the top 10 list for girls for the first time.
- Historically, girls' names that held the No. 1 spot for the longest consecutive time period include:
 - Olivia: 12 years (2013-2024)
 - Jessica: six years (1990-1995)
 - Emily: five years (1998-2002)
- Historically, boys' names that held the No. 1 spot for the longest consecutive time period include:
 - Ethan: nine years (2001-2009)
 - Liam: seven years (2010-2016)
 - Noah: six years (2019-2024)
 - Matthew: five years (1995-1999)
- Parents have up to one year to register their child's birth. As a result, the list of 2024 baby names and birth statistics may change slightly.
