GAGA BALL PIT DEDICATED TO DOUG OSWALD

by the Thorsby Elementary Parents Association

TEPA believes that great leaders leave lasting impressions through the hearts they touch and the community they help build. In recognition of the extraordinary dedication and impact of our late principal, Mr. Oswald, we are proud to dedicate a newly constructed gaga ball pit in his honor.

Mr. Oswald was a big believer in students staying active through sports and recreation and was the driving force behind the "O"rena, an outdoor skating rink he helped construct and spent countless hours maintaining and flooding.

The gaga ball pit not only physically sits in the same spot as the "O"rena, it also stands as a symbol of his vision: a place where students can come together, build friendships, and learn through movement, fun, and friendly competition. It's a space filled with laughter and energy-values Mr. Oswald championed every day.

This tribute ensures that future generations will continue to benefit from his legacy. We are grateful for all that he contributed to our school and are honored to remember his leadership in this special way.

Thank you, Mr. Oswald, for everything!

Left - Doug Oswald passed away in November of 2024 at the age of 73.

He was a beloved teacher and administrator for 33 years.

JUNE 2 - 8 is SENIORS WEEK!

Seniors' Week has been recognized since 1986 to celebrate and recognize the contributions seniors make to enhance the quality of life in Alberta. Seniors' Week was inspired by the vision of the late Alice Modin. Almost 40 years ago, Modin began a campaign to start a seniors' day in Strathcona County that helped pave the way for this annual event.

Good day Town of Thorsby....

The warmer weather is upon us, and with that, we all have come out of hibernation! Thorsby appreciates our residents getting out and about with your neighbors after a long cold season. With this socializing comes responsibility. Please ensure your get-togethers follow all Thorsby bylaws and respects your immediate neighbors. Noise, ending times of get-togethers, fire pit safety- all of these aspects need to be considered when organizing parties. Maybe advise your neighbors of upcoming parties or events. How about giving an open invitation to them! Even a simple gesture of a door knock during your party to see if any unknown issues have arisen with your neighbor goes a long way. Some party food would always make that door knock a welcome sound.

Thorsby Council and Administration would like to wish all our residents a safe and enjoyable summer!

Regards,

Town of Thorsby

The Tops Ten Miscellaneous Tips for Better Living

Celebrate yourself. Many people, especially those carrying excess weight, are so focused on how they should improve themselves that they never think to celebrate themselves. Think about it. You are the total of all your experiences. You are one of a kind. Today's world highly values one-of-a-kind things. You should, too. Spend some time thinking about your good qualities and accomplishments. It's okay to take a little credit and to feel good about yourself. You wouldn't dish out constant criticism to anyone else, would you?

1. Select some fresh sweet potatoes for tonight's dinner. A nutritional all-star, the sweet potato is loaded with carotenoids, vitamin c, potassium and fiber. For extra moisture and sweetness, mix in unsweetened applesauce or crushed pineapple.
2. Recharge with the best rest you can manage. Sleep in a cool dark, quiet room in a bed that you feel comfortable. Wear warm nightclothes and socks if you tend to get cold. Use a humidifier, de-humidifier or fan for preferred air quality. Turn off the radio and TV. Use a fan or some other constant soothing, background noise to mask sounds you can't control.
3. When your mind is spinning or your mood is bad or mad, scribble words. With the comforting knowledge that you will be burning or tearing up every mark that you place on your paper. Just jot, jot, jot, with abandon. Single words are fine. No editing, punctuation, thought or worrying necessary because no one will read it. You might fill up three lines with: "I am mad mad mad mad mad mad mad mad mad mad.." until, suddenly, something else appears on the line. Very often, after a flood of miscellaneous words, phrases, or sentences come out, a person's head starts to clear, and some valuable observations and feelings appear on the page.
4. Add a little newness to your life. Look up and notice the architecture in your town or city. Sit somewhere and watch people—what they do, what they are wearing, their facial expressions. Go to a hobby or craft store and find something that interests you. Consider taking a class. Drive to a different area and take your walk there.
5. Volunteer in a field or at a place that interests you and is meaningful to you, such as a hospital gift shop, an animal shelter, a horse stable, or your favorite charity. Besides feeling good about the activity, it's fun to meet places, too.

6. Push away from the table and brush your teeth immediately after you've finished eating each meal. This will take you away from the temptation to eat more—and make the extra food taste terrible if you do go back and grab a little. If cleaning up the kitchen after the meal is a problem, chew a piece of sugar-free gum while doing so, to prevent grazing.
7. When eating out, stay away from cream sauces. They're too high in calories. Ask for red sauce on your dish instead.
8. Never eat pizza without eating healthful salad first. The salad will fill you up, so it's easier to eat less pizza. Just avoid the heavy dressing, bacon, cheese and other high fat ingredients that can be added to a salad. Also, wean yourself from ordering garlic bread with pizza. Pizza crust is a bread. What makes sense about ordering bread with bread.
9. Invite various individuals in your life to take a walk with you. There's nothing more bonding than a pleasant, one-on-one talk with someone. And there's nothing more conducive to talking than taking a nice comfortable walk together. If you're very fit, adjust your pace to what is most comfortable for your partner. Good relationships make life grand.

WARBURG SCHOOL NEWS

Strong Performances from Local Athletes at LDAA and Zone Track Meets

Several of our Warburg School athletes delivered strong results at the recent LDAA Track and Field Meet, earning top finishes and advancing to the zone level of competition.

Reese Tollenaar earned a 3rd place finish in the discus, showing consistent technique and strength in the field events. Travis Cygan took home 1st place in the 200 meters with an impressive sprint performance. Felix Cropley had a standout meet, winning both the 1200-meter and 2000-meter races, and placing 3rd in javelin. Ryland Anderson also represented well, finishing 4th in the triple jump.

Their efforts qualified all four athletes for the Zone Championships, where they faced tougher competition and continued to perform at a high level.

At zones, Tollenaar placed 4th in discus, maintaining a solid showing against a deep field. Cygan finished 5th in the 200 meters, holding his own in a fast heat. Cropley continued her strong form in distance events, placing 2nd in the 1200 meters and 4th in the 2000 meters.

These results reflect the hard work and determination of each athlete throughout the season. Their performances at both meets are commendable and a positive sign for future competition.

THE "FAIRLY INTELLIGENT" FLY

By Ken Bishop (aka: PK)

One day, out by the barn, the flies, bees and spiders were all actively going about doing their bug-life stuff.

There was one very inquisitive fly who liked to buzz in, through and around anything and everything. He had flown around the entire area many times and knew exactly where everything was. This fly flew around as if he owned the place. A spider had been watching him flying by and had his eyes on him. I suppose he was going to invite him to come down for dinner.

In a loud voice the spider called out, "Come on over and I will make you lunch. Rest here on this beautifully woven bed I have made for my visitors."

Hovering close to the spider the fly said, "Oh sure! Do you think that I am crazy? I am an intelligent fly and I know a trap when I see one. My uncle Fred got tricked by you last year and I will not be the next victim."

With this, the "rather intelligent" fly was off. He was rather full and was more interested in finding some friends and having a good time. It was then that he noticed, down on the barn floor, there were dozens of other flies having a dance party on a yellow dance floor. Although he couldn't hear the music, he could see some of them doing the twist and the jerk, the majority were doing some kind of a line dance.

As he was about to dive down, a bee called out to him. "Hey buddy! Don't go down there, it's dangerous! That is fly paper!"

The fly looked at him with disgust. "What is it with you bees? You hate to see a fly have a good time? Buzz off! Mind your business! Dangerous? I don't think so. Everybody's doing it, so it must be ok."

With that, the fly laughed and flew down to join in the party. He realized his mistake instantly once he had landed. Nobody was laughing. Nobody was dancing. Everybody was dying. If he had only listened to the warning.

The truth be told, it is easy to get trapped into thinking something is alright when you see others going in a certain direction. The Bible tells us that bad company corrupts good character. It also says that the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life. The "fairly intelligent" fly couldn't read or understand the signs.

UPDATE 1: ALBERTA WILDFIRE UPDATE (June 3, 3 p.m.)

Alberta News, June 3, 2025

Evacuation orders remain as wildfire activity continues across Alberta. Cooler weather offers some relief as crews, aircraft and support from other regions respond.

Following a week of extreme wildfire behavior that included multiple fires and evacuations, Alberta is now seeing slightly improved conditions. Cooler conditions and high humidity are aiding firefighters. Alberta resources are bolstered by the addition of imported firefighters from across Canada and the northwestern United States.

Current situation (as of 3pm, June 3)

- There are 56 wildfires currently burning across Alberta in the Forest Protection Area.
 - 27 are classified as out of control, 5 are being held and 24 are under control.
- Since January 1, there have been 503 wildfires in the Forest Protection Area, burning more than 492,000 hectares.
- More than 1,000 Alberta firefighters, contract firefighters and imported firefighters are currently battling wildfires across the province.
- Resources currently being used include heavy equipment, airtankers, helicopters and night vision helicopters.
- Alberta has imported firefighters and aircraft from British Columbia, Yukon, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Washington State, Oregon and Idaho.
- Information about wildfires can be found by visiting the Alberta Wildfire Status Dashboard.

Eligibility for Emergency Evacuation Payments

- Alberta's government provides a one-time emergency evacuation payment to residents who had to leave their communities for seven or more days due to mandatory evacuation orders.
- Eligible adults receive $1,250 and $500 for each dependent child under the age of 18.
- Evacuees are encouraged to apply for these emergency payments online at www.evacuationpayment.alberta.ca, by calling the Alberta Supports Contact Centre at 1-877-644-9992 or by visiting an Alberta Supports office for assistance. Locations can be found at www.alberta.ca/alberta-supports.
- Those in need of immediate emergency financial assistance can contact the Income Support Emergency Contact Centre at 1-866-644-5135. The contact centre operates 24/7.

Air quality

- Visit www.alberta.ca/wildfire-smoke-information for air quality monitoring information to make informed decisions about outdoor activities to protect your health. While wildfire smoke is affecting air quality in parts of Alberta, the presence of smoke does not necessarily mean there is fire near your community. Find information about the status of active wildfires and wildfire updates at www.alberta.ca/alberta-wildfire.

UPDATE 1: ALBERTA WILDFIRE UPDATE

Alberta News, June 3, 2025

Fire bans

- A fire ban is in effect for the High Level, Fort McMurray, Peace River, Grande Prairie, Slave Lake, Lac La Biche, Whitecourt and Edson Forest Areas.
- Under this ban, all outdoor wood fires are prohibited, and existing fire permits are suspended.
- Please confirm advisories, restrictions or bans for your area at www.alberta.ca/fire-bans.
- Fire bans outside the Forest Protection Area are the responsibility of municipalities and counties.
- All Albertans have a role to play in wildfire prevention. Albertans must follow all fire bans and restrictions to avoid new fire starts. If you see smoke or flames in the forest, call 310-FIRE to report it.
- Applying FireSmart principles to homes and property can mitigate the risk of wildfire damage. Removing flammable materials and vegetation around the property and preventing embers from accumulating can help protect your home from wildfires. To learn more, visit www.firesmartalberta.ca

Roads and highways

- Highway 686 between Red Earth Creek and Trout Lake is currently closed due to a wildfire.
- www.511.alberta.ca/#:Alerts is the best source of real time information as conditions change on our highways. Follow on X (formerly known as Twitter) @511alberta.
- Alberta highways that are affected by the wildfires will open and close frequently depending on safety and weather conditions. Be patient and respect the staff at the closure/detour sites – they are there with your safety in mind.

Health

- The Swan Hills Healthcare Centre is temporarily closed due to wildfire in the area. EMS resources remain in the area to provide support.
- For information about wildfire resources, including mental health, visit Wildfire Resources | Alberta Health Services www.albertahealthservices.ca/news/Page14070.aspx

Emergency Preparedness

- Get ready for emergencies and disasters by taking simple steps now. To be prepared, Albertans need to know what to do, where to go and have enough supplies for a week or more. Supplies include food, water, medications and important documents. Include supplies for pets as well.
