Leduc West Antique Society Celebrates 35 Year Anniversary

Submitted by Brent Bauman, Director, Leduc West Antique Society

The Leduc West Antique Society will host their 35th annual exposition event at the Alberta Heritage Exposition Park located just west of Leduc on July 19 and 20th.

The event will feature two days of family-oriented activities at the park including live music and a parade of vintage vehicles and farm equipment. "There are a few surprises this year, some new displays, and unique experiences to take in", said Kevin Eklund, the Associations President.

The event also features an antique tractor pull competition both days and all the museums and displays at the site will be open to the public. There are several practical demonstrations offered during the event including vintage sawmill, threshing, plowing and a working blacksmith shop where members of the Blacksmith Guild will be demonstrating the smelting process by turning raw ore into iron.

Activities for kids include vintage games like cornhole, potato sack races and more that fit the historical theme of the park. "It's a bit of nostalgia, a call back to games that many of us played years ago," Eklund added. SCARS society will be on hand with adoptable pets throughout the weekend and a concession and beer gardens will be available both days.

"We're making all of this available for one entry fee, just $10 for an all-day pass for adults and $5 for kids 6 to 12 years of age, with kids 5 and under free", added Eklund. "It's a great value and admission includes all the activities."

Each day kicks off with a pancake breakfast with gates open at 8am and Sunday will include a non-denominational church service in the historic church in the Park at 9am.

The park is located 4km west of Leduc on Highway 39 at Range Road 260.

How do you move a barn? Carefully, and with the decades of experience - Jim McCannell donated to the cause. The Leduc West Antique Society is preserving this 1949 Barn for future generations.

Vintage treasures of all kinds are on display at Leduc West Antique Society July 19 and 20th during the 35th annual exposition event.

Plenty of history on display at Leduc West Antique Society July 19 and 20 during the Societies 35th Anniversary.

Community Support for Amelya & Aaden Stewart

It is with deep sorrow that we acknowledge the tragic loss of Kaley Stewart and her husband Ben Kipper, who passed away as the result of a motor vehicle accident on Saturday, June 28th, south of Thorsby, Alberta.

Kaley and Ben were dedicated and loving parents to their two children, Amelya and Aaden. Both children are students at Thorsby Elementary School and members of a well-known and deeply respected family in our community.

In response to this heartbreaking loss, the Thorsby community is coming together to support Amelya and Aaden during this profoundly difficult time.

To provide direct and meaningful assistance to the children, a trust fund has been established through the ATB Financial – Thorsby Branch.

Those wishing to contribute can do so via e-transfer to:

Agnes Rempel

September 6, 1948 - June 14, 2025

Agnes Rempel was born September 6 1948 in Edmonton Alberta, passed away June 14, 2025 at her beloved acreage near Breton. Agnes was a strong and determined woman who blazed her own trail.

Agnes was a true pioneer, raised in a homesteading family with her mother Helen and Helen's brothers. The family had come to Norbuck Alberta from Carrot River Saskatchewan.

One of Agnes' favorite memories was when she lived in Vernon, BC. She talked about the bounty of fruit and vegetables there, and the mild weather. She had always wanted to go back for a visit.

Agnes wanted to live her final years her own way. She insisted on roughing it and enjoyed the challenges that come with living on an acreage. She heated with wood, and her good friends would always make sure that she had a years' supply, "Because you can never have enough wood."

Agnes will be deeply missed by her friends and family. She made an impact on many lives.

Agnes has been laid to rest at the Breton Cemetery beside her mother Helen and uncle Corney.

ALBERTA-ONTARIO MOU'S FUEL MORE PIPELINES AND TRADE

Alberta News, July 7, 2025

Alberta and Ontario will sign agreements to drive oil and gas pipelines, energy corridors, and repeal federal policies blocking investment and growth.

Alberta Premier Danielle Smith and Ontario Premier Doug Ford have signed two memorandums of understanding (MOUs) during Premier Ford's visit to the Calgary Stampede, outlining their commitment to strengthen interprovincial trade, drive major infrastructure development, and grow Canada's global competitiveness by building new pipelines, rail lines and other energy and trade infrastructure.

The two provinces agree on the need for the federal government to address the underlying conditions that have harmed the energy industry in Canada. This includes significantly amending or repealing the Impact Assessment Act, as well as repealing the Oil Tanker Moratorium Act, Clean Electricity Regulations, the Oil and Gas Sector Greenhouse Gas Emissions Cap, and all other federal initiatives that discriminately impact the energy sector, as well as sectors such as mining and manufacturing. Taking action will ensure Alberta and Ontario can attract the investment and project partners needed to get shovels in the ground, grow industries and create jobs.

The first MOU focuses on developing strategic trade corridors and energy infrastructure to connect Alberta and Ontario's oil, gas and critical minerals to global markets. This includes support for new oil and gas pipeline projects, enhanced rail and port infrastructure at sites in James Bay and southern Ontario, as well as end-to-end supply chain development for refining and processing of Alberta's energy exports. The two provinces will also collaborate on nuclear energy development to help meet growing electricity demands while ensuring reliable and affordable power.

The second MOU outlines Alberta's commitment to explore prioritizing made-in-Canada vehicle purchases for its government fleet. It also includes a joint commitment to reduce barriers and improve the interprovincial trade of liquor products.

"Alberta and Ontario are joining forces to get shovels in the ground and resources to market. These MOUs are about building pipelines and boosting trade that connects Canadian energy and products to the world, while advocating for the right conditions to get it done. Government must get out of the way, partner with industry and support the projects this country needs to grow. I look forward to working with Premier Doug Ford to unleash the full potential of our economy and build the future that people across Alberta and across the country have been waiting far too long for." - Danielle Smith, Premier of Alberta

"In the face of President Trump's tariffs and ongoing economic uncertainty, Canadians need to work together to build the infrastructure that will diversify our trading partners and end our dependence on the United States. By building pipelines, rail lines and the energy and trade infrastructure that connects our country, we will build a more competitive, more resilient and more self-reliant economy and country. Together, we are building the infrastructure we need to protect Canada, our workers, businesses and communities. Let's build Canada." - Doug Ford, Premier of Ontario

These agreements build on Alberta and Ontario's shared commitment to free enterprise, economic growth and nation-building. The provinces will continue engaging with Indigenous partners, industry and other governments to move key projects forward.

"Never before has it been more important for Canada to unite on developing energy infrastructure. Alberta's oil, natural gas, and know-how will allow Canada to be an energy superpower and that will make all Canadians more prosperous. To do so, we need to continue these important energy infrastructure discussions and have more agreements like this one with Ontario." - Brian Jean, Minister of Energy and Minerals

"These MOUs with Ontario build on the work Alberta has already done with Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Northwest Territories and the Port of Prince Rupert. We're proving that by working together, we can get pipelines built, open new rail and port routes, and break down the barriers that hold back opportunities in Canada." - Devin Dreeshen, Minister of Transportation and Economic Corridors

"Canada's economy has an opportunity to become stronger thanks to leadership and steps taken by provincial governments like Alberta and Ontario. Removing interprovincial trade barriers, increasing labour mobility and attracting investment are absolutely crucial to Canada's future economic prosperity." - Joseph Schow, Minister of Jobs, Economy, Trade and Immigration

Together, Alberta and Ontario are demonstrating the shared benefits and opportunities that result from collaborative partnerships, and what it takes to keep Canada competitive in a changing world.

ADDRESSING CLASSROOM AGGRESSION AND COMPLEXITY

Alberta News, June 30, 2025

Alberta's government is launching an action team to address classroom complexity and aggression to make schools safer for students and staff.

Alberta's classrooms have become increasingly complex, with more incidents of aggression occurring, paired with increased challenges with behaviour and the special learning needs of students. To address these issues head on, Alberta's government is creating an action team composed of teachers and education partners that will provide recommendations to help guide new policy and address complex classrooms.

"We have heard loud and clear from teachers and parents that we need to do something about aggression in classrooms, and that is exactly what we are doing. Every student and staff member deserves to feel safe, supported and respected at school, and the action team will help reach that goal. Creating this action team is one of several concrete steps we are taking to improve school safety and better support students' diverse needs." Demetrios Nicolaides, Minister of Education and Childcare

The team, named the Aggression and Complexity in Schools Action Team, will make recommendations to Alberta's government on short- and long-term actions that will support students and educators. The action team will consist of 20 education system leaders including representatives from school boards in Edmonton and Calgary and the Alberta Teachers' Association. To ensure their work is informed by front-line experience, the action team will also work closely with teachers, education support workers, school resource officers and representatives from student and family advocacy groups. The list of action team members will be published online once finalized.

"Alberta School Boards Association (ASBA) appreciates government's commitment to address classroom complexities. ASBA looks forward to this collaborative effort, including local school board perspectives, to help shape meaningful, long-term solutions that support students and educators." Marilyn Dennis, president, Alberta School Boards Association

The action team will deliver a report with advice and recommendations to Alberta Education and Childcare to inform a combination of practical solutions and policy by fall 2025. Some recommendations could begin rolling out as soon as the 2025-26 school year. The action team may also continue to be engaged to provide advice to Alberta Education and Childcare on implementation of policy or program changes that result from its recommendations.

"The College of Alberta School Superintendents recognizes the growing complexity within today's classrooms and the impact it has on learning, safety and well-being. We welcome the creation of the Aggression and Complexity in Schools Action Team as an important step in addressing these challenges. By working collaboratively with government, educators and community partners, we can help ensure classrooms remain safe, supportive spaces where every student has the opportunity to thrive." Mike McMann, president, College of Alberta School Superintendents

Quick facts:

- In December 2023, a survey published by the ATA found that more than half of Alberta teachers experienced aggression in the first three months of the school year.
- Most respondents reported lacking training and confidence to manage aggression, and many were dissatisfied with how incidents were handled.

CAMPFIRE BEAR?

By Ken Bishop (aka: PK)

Some years ago, my four brothers and my sister decided that it was time for us to get together for a sibling campout in Algonquin Park in northern Ontario. We all enjoy the outdoors and wildlife, and the area that we were camping in was known for moose, deer, and bear.

While the others were finishing off some of our camp cooking, I told them that I was going to collect some wood and stoke the fire. I have to admit, I did have another plan as well.

Besides getting some wood, out of sight of the others, I tied a strong fishing line to the bough of a large evergreen, then let the line unwind behind me as I brought some wood out to the fire. Throwing the logs on the fire, I sat with all my siblings and we talked about all sorts of things. We had already seen a couple of moose and some deer and we were hoping to see more wildlife. My youngest brother, Michael, said that he heard that there was a bear in the area but he doubted that we would see it. I told them that I heard something back in the bush when I was getting the wood. "Sure" was his response. My back was to the forest, but he was facing me across the fire.

At the opportune time, I tugged on the line and this caught everyone's attention. His eyes were big as he stood up, pointed, "there was something there!" I tugged on the line a couple more times and he was convinced and ready to run. Adding to the drama, I did act nervous too. Then he noticed the line in my hand as I pulled it again to expose the trick. Laughing together is always healthy. This set the tone for a memorable week ahead.

DEVON DENTAL ASSOCIATES

Chamber 2024 Large Business of the Year Award Winner

Root Canal Therapy Near You

Root canal therapy is a common dental procedure that is performed to save infected teeth from extraction. At Devon Dental Associates, our dedicated team of dental professionals performs root canal therapy near you with expertise and precision for optimal results. We are happy to address any questions, concerns, or anxieties that you may have about root canal therapy in Devon.

What is Root Canal Therapy?

Your smile is important, and it should last you a lifetime. Before advances in technology, infected or damaged teeth typically had to be extracted. Luckily, with today's technology, an infected tooth can be saved through the process of root canal therapy.

To understand how root canal therapy works, you first must understand the structure of your teeth. The human tooth is made of many layers. The first layer is called the enamel, which is the hard surface of your tooth. Under that is the dentin, and in the center of your tooth is the pulp. The pulp is the soft tissue that contains all the vital nerves and blood vessels that supply nutrients to your teeth to keep them healthy and strong.

When this pulp becomes infected, treatment is necessary. If you do not remove the damaged or infected pulp, the tissues around your tooth's root will become infected, leading to swelling, pain, and bone deterioration. This is where root canal therapy comes in.

What Happens During Root Canal Therapy?

While the idea of root canal therapy can seem daunting, it is generally painless and straightforward. You will need to visit our dental clinic at least twice to complete the procedure.

At your first visit, our dentist in Devon will numb your tooth and its surrounding tissues so that you do not feel any pain during your procedure. Next, they will drill a small hole into your tooth so that they can access and remove the infected pulp from the interior of your tooth before disinfecting and sealing it with a temporary filling.

Once your tooth has healed, you will need to come back to Devon Dental Associates to get your temporary filling removed and replaced with a dental crown. The dental crown will protect and support your tooth so that it can continue to last you for years to come.

Laurie's Laughs

In Memory of

I saw my wife putting her sexy underwear on this morning. This can only mean one thing...
It's laundry day!

The bank says I can't afford a $1200 mortgage so I pay $2000 in rent instead Husband: What's for dinner?

Me: A tender filet mignon, lobster mac and cheese, with a side of garlic brussel sprouts.

Husband: Really?

Me: No, tequila's in the freezer. Man up. We're drinking dinner tonight.

HOLY CRAP
I'M BATMAN!

When you sneeze so hard, your moustache changes lips:
